Antoinette (Tony) C. Warren Is Awarded Borden Trophy

Happy recipient of the Borden trophy (a gold link bracelet) was Antoinette C. Warren, 11, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Campbell S. Warren, 443 S. Wayne-av, for her leathercraft entry in the arts and crafts division of the Girl Scout booth at the Ohio State Fair. She is a member of Intermediate Troop 545. Antoinette's entry was judged the most outstanding over all the entries in basketry, woodwork, glass etching, ceramics, etc.

She will attend Hilltonia Junior High this fall and formerly attended John Burroughs Elementary.

"Tony" also was awarded first prize for a turtle painting entry. In the homemaking division she scored second for her pie, third for her candy and eighth for cookies. She also took seventh for her entry in International Friendship — displaying letters, pictures, cards, etc., from a pen pal in England.

The 14 members in this troop served as hostesses in the Scout booth, Monday. They were Tony Warren, Janis Wright, Janet Hanley, Carolyn Beagan, Rita Brackenridge, Leah Smith, Barbara Thomas, and Judy Steward.

Other troop members receiving awards for their individual entries were Karen Born, first prize for her weaving; Janis Wright eighth place for a cake entry.

This troop entered seven different troop unit fields and six out of seven won ribbons. This will be the third year that the troop has scored at the fair.

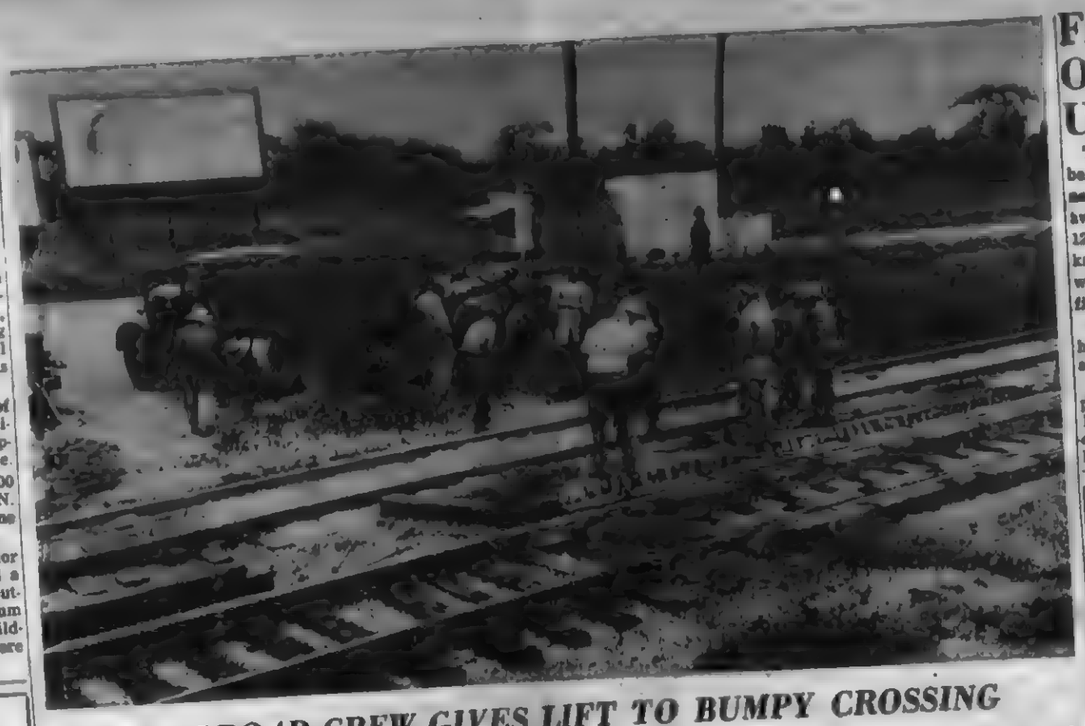
Losses Big In West Side Garage Fires

Two costly garage fires occurred in the West Side during the week.



Fire of undetermined origin last Thursday destroyed a two-car garage at 972 Harmon-av, containing valuable gardening equipment, including four small tractors. Extent of the loss was estimated at $5000.

Mrs. Katherine Buehler of Buehler Greenhouses said neither the building nor the equipment was covered by insurance.

On Friday afternoon a $2500 fire struck a garage at 115 N. Central-av, when an acetylene torch ignited gasoline vapors.

Battalion Chief J.C. O'Connor reported that the fire ruined a motorcycle, old model car, 2 outboard motors and aluminum boat and tools. The frame building was also burned. There were no injuries.

RAILROAD CREW GIVES LIFT TO BUMPY CROSSING

LESS BOUNCE TO THE OUNCE . . . that is the goal of a dozen workers who spent three days repairing this Pennsylvania Railroad crossing on N. Hague-av at Harrison-rd. Foreman Oscar Dean, 644 Georgian-dr, and his crew raised both tracks about four and a half inches, and finished off with leveling and grading. The spot had spanked the springs of some 2500 cars a day and was developing into a hazard. Auto traffic was shut off the crossing until Wednesday afternoon.

FACTORY DEALERS TO CELEBRATE

Westinghouse To Light Fifth Candle Next Month

Announcement of plans for the fifth birthday celebration of the Columbus-Westinghouse Plant was made today by E. L. Smith, manager of operations for the plant.

Construction on the West Broad Street-Phillips-rd plant began in 1952 and the first refrigerator was produced in the fall of 1953.

According to Smith, the birthday celebration will continue throughout the month of September with many special events scheduled for employes and the community alike.

Plan "Weekend in Hollywood"

Topping the features of the celebration is a contest for employes which has as its top prize a "Weekend in Hollywood" for two with a visit to the newest members of the Westinghouse family — Lucy Ball and Desi Arnaz. In addition, four Columbus-made major appliances will be given to employes placing second, third and fourth in the contest.

Basically, the contest will consist of employes encouraging their friends and neighbors to stop at the nearest Westinghouse dealer to see the appliances on display there. Each of these persons will be given a card by employes to be left with the dealer. The employe who has the most cards, bearing his name, left with Westinghouse dealers in the Columbus area during September will be awarded the top prize. The visitor will receive a free gift.

Other Events Scheduled

In addition, the 5th birthday celebration will have many other events:

Special prices and credit terms on Columbus-made appliances are being offered to each employe.

Each employe is being given a special birthday badge to wear.

Employes who will complete five years this year will be awarded 5-year service pins.

Four new Westinghouse appliances never seen by the public before will make their debut in Columbus. They are a special 12 cubic foot refrigerator bearing the name or "The Buckeye," a new line of chest-type home freezers, a new combination clothes washer and dryer in one unit, and an all new portable dishwasher.

Will Pay In Silver Dollars

To show how widely Westinghouse employes are located in the Columbus area and to determine how they affect the economy, on Sept. 12, each employe will receive part of his pay in silver dollars.

"The completion of our 5th year in Columbus is a proud day for all of us here at Westinghouse," Smith pointed out. "In the years since the first refrigerator was produced, we have added the production of freezers, Wash-N-Dry Laundromats, dishwashers and water heaters. We belive that the coming years will see a [illegible] increase in the volume of appliances Westinghouse produces here."

EUCHRE GAME PLANNED

BIRTHDAY IS SUNDAY . . .

Her Memories Span One Hundred Years!

Mrs. Julia Eckert, a familiar little figure on W. Broad-st, was surprised by the cameraman Saturday morning, as she energetically shopped for groceries. One hundred years old next Sunday, her independence has endeared her to neighbors and nearby merchants. (See other picture, page 2)

• • • • • •

By Betty Daft

Mrs. Julia Eckert, 100 on Sept. 7, would be the first to agree that "The first hundred years are the hardest; the best is yet to come."

Facing her 100th birthday with quiet poise and dignity acquired from a century of living, Mrs. Eckert happily fills her days with all the activities her interests dictate.

She and her sister, Mrs. Mary Walter, 90, operate their household alone, at 740 W. Broad-st, attending to details of cleaning, cooking, laundry, shopping and yard work with a dispatch and efficiency creditable in women half their ages.

Nearby merchants, neighbors, friends and family watch over the sisters with affectionate respect.

Still Goes Downtown

Fiercely proud of her independence, Mrs. Eckert said, "There are many things I can no longer do, but I take care of myself. I go downtown alone, go to church at First English Lutheran, Main-st, at 18th-st, shop, cook, wash and iron."

Her only concession to age is curtailment of some household duties. Her sister does the more difficult chores, like hanging curtains and mowing the lawn.

Discussing their health, Mrs. Walter said, "We have never been seriously ill, and are bothered only a little with poor eyesight and hearing."

The two cook separately because, "We like different food." One enjoys steak; the other prefers pork chops. The sisters resolve other differences just as efficiently by merely turning off their hearing aids.

Daughters of German immigrants, the two grew up in Columbus' east side in the Main and 18t -st area. Mrs. Eckert moved into her sister's home seven years ago, after the death of Mrs. Walter's husband.

Her home for 68 years, Mrs. Walter has watched the neighborhood grow from cornfields to crowded community, and W. Broad-st traffic change from horse-drawn vehicles to buses, trucks and autos

Tributes Are Planned

Mrs. Walter's son and daughter-in-law, Lir. and Mrs. Lawrence Walter of Hilliards, will entertain with a family dinner party on Mrs. Eckert's birthday.

First English Lutheran Church will also pay homage to their oldest member during morning worship services.

Mrs. Eckert's children are Mrs. Lillian Balmer of Columbus and William, 80, of Buckeye Lake.

In addition to their son, Lawrence, the Walters adopted a grandson when his mother died. He is Harold Walter, 89 Demorest-av, co-owner of Val-U-House. She also has a grandchild, Mrs. Richard Seeds of Roberts-rd, and 11 great-grandchildren.

SIGNS OF THE SEASON — High School grid teams will get football play underway at preview games scheduled for Friday and Saturday nights. Central will play at North, Friday night and West will host preview games Saturday night. Eddie Kendall, 1086 Bellowsav, above, a Central High School Senior, will play center.

Seek 3600 Members In '58 'Y' Enrollment

At the helm of this year's Hilltop YMCA membership enrollment is John Nippert, president of Nippert Electric Products Co., 1759 W. Mound-st. He was assistant chairman of the drive last year.

The annual campaign for memberships is conducted so that the "Y" program can be carried out in the community throughout the year. By the end of September volunteers will hope to have 3600 names —2400 youth and 1200 adults —on the "Y" roster. Planners have raised their sights 300 over last year's total. Fees for the new cards will be $1 for youngsters and $2 for adults.

John Nippert

James Goudy

Assisting Nippert as chairman will be James Goudy, manager of the Great Western branch of the Ohio National Bank. Both have maintained active interest in "Y" endeavors in recent years.

First phase of the canvass will be among the businesses from Sept. 8 to 24. Residential efforts will follow between Sept. 15 and 24.

Both divisions will tally results of the drive at a victory meeting in the dining room of Hoge Memorial Presbyterian Church at 8 p.m. Sept. 24.

Sapp Market Is Sold To Jim Stevens

One of the Hilltop's oldest business establishments—Sapp's Market, 2976 W. Broad-st—owned and operated for many years by Harley Sapp, has been purchased by Jim Stevens, who opened the Super Duper Market in the Westgate Manor Shopping Center in January, 1956.

Identified with the Market Basket chain for more than a year, under Sapp's ownership, the store will now be operated under the Super Duper banner.

According to Stevens, extensive remodeling is under way, although the store will remain open daily and Sunday, 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., while the alterations are being made. Plans are also being made to enlarge and improve parking facilities, he said.

"The steady growth of patronage from residents of the Hilltop and my belief in the future of this area has led me to enlarge my operations to include the second store," declared Stevens, who resides at 652 S. Hague-av.

After a vacation in California Sapp will return to the Hilltop and states that he has no immediate plans for the future. "I want to take this opportunity to express my appreciation to all my friends for their fine patronage over the years," he stated this week.

Harley Sapp Leaves Local Grocery Scene

Harley Sapp who opened the Broad-Warren Market back in 1929 and later became owner of the Sapp's Market and Bakery at Roys and Broad this week turned the keys to this business over to Jim Stevens, well known on the local scene as operator of the Westgate Manor Super Duper.

In the many years I have been associated with this newspaper it has been my pleasure to have had a continuing business and civic contact with Harley Sapp. All such associations through the years have been only the finest.

Well do I recall that I sold my first display ad in this paper to Harley back when his first local store opened in 1929. In all the time he was in business since then his ads have appeared regularly.

The community will join in wishing him a well-earned vacation and success in whatever his future business may be.

Getting Things Done Together

A graphic illustration of the resulting good that can come from a program of "togetherness" is presented when you stop to consider the workings and accomplishments of the city health department.

In a metropolitan area it is plainly evident that the matter of health, cleanliness, sanitation, meat and milk inspections, etc., just can't be left to chance. Neither will a program of this kind be successful unless it reaches out into all the adjacent areas.

Dr. Ollie Goodloe this past week, in a local address, pointed to the workings of the city board of health and the resulting good work of the department.

For example our local health department costs us but $1.62 per person per year as compared with as much as $4 per head in some other Ohio cities. Contagious diseases that were once so prevalent and so costly in lives and money have been practically eliminated Columbus has become the best place in the world to have babies . . . infant and maternal mortality are practically nil here

Eternal vigilance and cooperation that crosses local municipal boundaries has paid off here

Four Win, Seven Lose In $ Game

Four sharp-eyed subscribers of Hartley Newspapers found cashing in on our "Confederate" money game just as easy as we promised last week. Each spotted a lucky $1 insignia in his copy of the newspaper, and returned it for a crisp, new "Confederate" bill.

Six other subscribers, receiving newspapers with $1 insignia, and one whose copy contained the big jackpot insignia, failed to notice the valuable emblem.

Winners were W. E. Lunsford, 33 Hawkes-av; Mrs. Robert Rice, 591 S. Wheatland-av; Harold Legault, 80 Midland-av, and Harry Vallette, 23 McDowell-st.

Value of the jackpot insignia in today's issue zooms to a high $85. The usual ten $1 insignia are also printed on ads in ten other copies of the newspaper.

All merchants, whose ads appear in the current issue, will accept "Confederate" currency in payment for any merchandise in their stores.

Those subscribers finding an insignia, may exchange the entire copy at Hartley Newspaper's office, 2465 W. Broad-st, before noon on Saturday.

Any subscriber whose name appears on our records as having paid in dvance or on his carrier boy's route book as a paying customer is eligible to collect "Confederate" currency.

School Kids Return To Books Today

Long, lazy summer vacation days ended this morning as nearly all the estimated 100,000 Columbus school children returned to classrooms and books.

Teachers and school officials settled down to the tremendous task of settling their charges to schedules and study after weeks of uninterrupted fun.

Students attending the new Lindbergh Elementary School were handed a ten-day reprieve, as a Sept. 15 opening date was announced for the school. Construction, off to a slow start in June and slowed by weeks of bad weather was not finished in time.

A unique demonstration of Columbus schools' "Line of '59", was presented to more than 2600 members of the professional staff at yesterday's annual convocation of teachers at Mershon Hall.

Serving as "models" were members of the 1959 high school graduating class.

John G. Hawley, 953 Bellows av, a senior electrical major in Central High's vocational division, represented the vocational line of '59 by conducting an experiment on the display board.

Also participating in the program were Robert Johnson, vocal music teacher at Hilltonia Junior High School, who provided organ music.

SITUATION SIZE UP—Opening day experiences were as bright and shining as a newly-minted penny for Shirley Bellin, 837 Clarendon-av, and many more entering Columbus Public Schools for the first time. Transferred to Columbus from the Southwest District when Roe-Rainbow was annexed last spring, Shirley found her second grade teacher waiting in the newly-completed six-room addition to West Mound School, constructed to accommodate youngsters from Rainbow.

Youth Clubs, Fall Sports Organizing At Sunshine

Fall activity is already shaping up at Sunshine Recreation Center, Sullivant-av, and Sandusky-st.

In progress now is the organization of a Junior Little League football for boys under 12. The center aims to teach football to youngsters by letting every boy play under close supervision.

Adults interested in the program are invited to attend the 6 p.m. practice sessions.

The first meeting of "Belles and Beaux" pre-teen club will be held at the center on Monday, Sept. 8, from 7 to 8:30 p.m. Membership cards should be brought along.

Girls Leaders Club will begin the season at Sunshine Monday, Sept. 8, at 6:30 p.m.

All children between the ages of 8 and 12 who are interested in joining the rhythm band should see Barbara Schaefer at the center. Classes probably will begin the week of Sept. 8.

Thursday will be girls' day in the gymnasium this year, the same as last. The first major sport will be basketball. Girls between 8 and 12 will meet Thursday at 4 p.m. Intermediate and senior aged girls will meet with Barbara Schaefer on the same day between 7 and 10 p.m.

There will be a different policy at Sunshine this year regarding the teenage room. Previously the room has been open to dancing five nights a week. This year, however, the room will be open only on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

Any teenager interested in writing the center's newspaper should see Barbara Schaefer. Newspaper Club will meet once a month.

Franklin Heights Loaded For Bear

Experience Big Factor At Franklin

All eyes in Central Ohio will be on Franklin Heights this fall.

Football fans throughout the area are waiting to see just how far the feathering Falcons can stretch their wings.

This will be the first year that Heights will start a football season at full strength. There were no seniors at the high school last year and no juniors the year before.

But all that had its advantages. Head Coach Tom Elliott now will be able to field a squad of 17 seniors and 21 lettermen.

Cox and Pearse will mainly be concentrated on the defensive unit. Biggers, a junior transfer from Athens, could easily start if he recovers from a groin injury suffered in practice.

Another transfer student who has won a starting position is Doug Vance, a junior end who played at Columbus West last fall.

Perhaps the biggest switch of the season is the transfer of defensive halfback Ron Bellisari from his backfield slot to the offensive center position. Line Coach Quentin Lanning feels the lad is adjusting to the shift "quite well."

Other lettermen on the squad are Eddie Ervin, John Hatfield, Ray Davis, Dan Gray, Steve Ballinger, Jack Leffel and Dave Froggett; seniors, Bob Pennington, Larry Abbott and Delmar Rezucka, a junior.

Gabriel, who weighs in at about 196, is the biggest man on the starting line which averages about 170. The starting backs average 150.

Coach Elliott figures Greenfield as "the team you must beat to win the championship." But that isn't all. Also deserving of high rating are Circleville and Washington Court House. "Any of those teams could do it," Elliott warns.

The Falcon camp is full of optimism and the two loss-filled seasons directly behind them don't seem to damage their outlook.

If that feeling continues into the season, the Falcons may fly right to the top of the area pigskin heap, a position which admittedly isn't easily attained.

Westway VFW Wins YMCA Club Division Championship

The Westway VFW team, for the second straight week, defeated the Hilltop Lions Club to gain the title of club champions. The score was 9-7.

Last week, in the church division, Hillcrest Baptist emerged victorious over Burgess EUB by a score of 19-5, enabling Hillcrest to draw even with Glenwood Methodist in the won-lost column for the first round.

This calls for a play-off between Hillcrest Baptist and Glenwood. Should Glenwood win the play-off game it will be the church champion, having won both rounds. Should Hillcrest win the play-off game it will be the first round champion and must play Glenwood for the church championship.

The church winner will then play the club winner for the Hilltop YMCA slo-pitch championship. Arrangements for this game will be made as soon as the schedule in the church league has been completed. An All-Star game will also be featured on the same day as the division championships. Date for this game will be announced as soon as a winner has been decided.

NOW IN OUR 37th YEAR OF APPLIANCE LEADERSHIP

Among Other Duties

President Directs Armed Forces As Nation's Commander-In-Chief

The presidency of the United States has developed into an instrument of leadership singularly suited to the American system. The office includes a unique combination of functions and powers.

A. E. Reilly, Jr.

In the last article several of the president's major roles were considered, including the president as chief of state, as head of the national administration and as the focal point in making foreign policy. Now we shall look at his other responsibilities.

Probably the most awesome role the president has to play is that of commander in chief of the armed forces. In this capacity he is the symbol of the American belief in the supremacy of the civil over the military authority. He is also the active head of the armed forces.

In peace-time he administers the training, supervision and use of the military forces. In time of war, the president becomes not only the commander in chief of the armed forces, but the controller of the nation's economic forces as well.

The presidency is also a major legislative force — indeed, the people expect the president to be able to translate his policies into law. Constitutionally, he must exercise his option to veto or not to veto legislation over a thousand times each congressional session. And every year he must speak to congress on the state of the union and present the annual budget.

Moreover, the presidential imprint is stamped upon many of our most celebrated laws, in the sense that they were drafted at the White House, introduced and pushed in congress by the president's friends and subsequently made law by his signature.

Party leadership is a role that many presidents have viewed with misgivings. However, all have sooner or later recognized its significance, and have utilized the role of party leader. Among his many political duties the president decides the selection of the national chairman of his party, oversees the party platforms and determines the tenure of the party's appeal in campaigns.

The president is also expected to campaign for the party, even when he himself is not a candidate.

The judiciary is an often overlooked sphere of the president's influence. The president appoints the judges of the federal courts. And they are, in effect, appointed for life. Such a tenure might span several presidential terms.

Historically presidents have appointed men of their own economic and political persuasion to judicial office. Thus, a president's influence may be felt through judicial decisions which profoundly affect the course of our system long after the appointing president has passed from the scene.

Finally the president is the spokesman for the people. Both Theodore Roosevelt and William McKinley recognized this role and Woodrow Wilson, as a young professor, wrote years before he became president that "the president is the representative of no constituency but of the whole people."

This survey of the president's powers of course cannot be all embracing. The purpose is to consider and typify his major responsibilities. There is no attempt made to classify them. Actually one is not necessarily more important than the other. For the successful administration of the presidential office has generally been a study in balance — the ability to coordinate the many roles of the presidency into a working symphony.

There's Something Wild About Good Catfish Bait

Fishermen have been howling all summer about the high, muddy water, but from all reports the catfishing has remained good.

Ronald Tatman, 183 Dakotaav, caught 54 catfish from one jar of a mysterious concoction called "Catfish Charlies." Dick Hanes at the Rod and Reel Bait Store, 1018 W. Broad-st, relayed this information to me the other day. The catfish were caught at Buckeye Lake. Tatman didn't take them all on one outing, but a record of 54 fish caught on several trips is something to be proud of.

Old timers will tell you that we're coming into the "catfishin' season." Late August and September seems to be the best time to catch catfish, especially the big ones. Catfish aren't particular when it comes to baits—you can use almost anything. Channel cats will even hit artificial lures. The most effective baits, however, are those that emit a strong odor. Catfish locate most of their food by using their sense of smell, and good baits range from laundry soap to marshmallow.

Several prepared catfish baits are on the market and you better hadn't take the lid off of any of it while you are eating—the odor is terrific. Catfish Charlies holds its own in this respect, and it's a very popular bait with catfishermen here in Central Ohio.

Some dandy catfish are taken out of Madison Lake every fall, and if you latch onto one of these don't forget to enter it in the HARTLEY NEWSPAPERS FISHING CONTEST. Official weighing station is Corner's Boat Dock at the Lake.

Bible Comment

Man Faces Old Problem

The alcohol problem is as old as the history of man. The Bible itself takes the story of drunkenness back to the story of the flood. If Noah celebrated his emergence from the Ark by getting drunk, he was probably repeating an experience of men from even earlier times.

It is at once impressive and discouraging to realize how old this problem is. Discouraging because one wonders whether, and when, the problem that has lasted so long and baffled successive generations will ever be solved. Impressive because of the persistency of misuse. All that the Bible and history say about it increases the need for solution.

The scripture passages have to do with a great deal more than the question of alcohol. Sodom represented wrong choice in the case of Lot, who made a bad mistake when he pitched his tent in that direction.

But Sodom represented evils and debaucheries which a moderate drinker of today would shun as vigorously as the most [illegible] and obstainer.

Perhaps what is stressed is the alliance of alcohol with deeper evils and immoralities. This alliance has been marked in the history of men and is marked today.

This is one of the facts that moderate men have to face in connection with the problem.

The age-old question is still: can there be use without abuse?

Food Markets This Week

by Mrs. Estelle B. Franks

Fruits — Peaches, apples, seedless grapes, canned peaches and pears.

Vegetables — Tomatoes, sweet corn, head lettuce, cabbage, peppers, potatoes.

Other Foods — Rib roast, fryers, frozen whiting fish, eggs (medium and small).

AUTUMN FOOD FORECAST

Food prices will likely level off or drop slightly this fall, is the forecast of marketing specialists, and welcome news to all food shoppers. Although some commodities will be more abundant than others, there will be adequate supplies of all foods for the remainder of the year — barring any unusual events, of course.

Vegetables — Summer vegetable supplies are estimated to be slightly larger than last year. Tomatoes, sweet corn, green peppers, potatoes and cabbage are on the plentiful list. Prices for fresh vegetables should be attractive into late September or early October. Both frozen and canned vegetable stocks are adequate, though smaller than last year.

Fruits — The fruit picture looks good, with the exception of citrus crops damaged by last winter's frost in Florida. Citrus prices will be higher than last year for fresh, frozen and canned items. However, apple crop reports indicate that supplies will be plentiful enough to assure a place in the class of good buys after Sept. 1, into early 1959. September varieties include McIntosh, Cortland, Grimes Golden, Golden Delicious, Jonathan and Rome Beauty.

The season for fresh peaches ends in September. At the present there is a good supply of Hale Haven, Elberta and J. H. Hale — all good varieties for either freezing or canning.

Meats — Slightly lower retail prices may be evident as the fall season approaches. Supplies of hogs and cattle are building up throughout the nation but are not yet big enough to bring any drastic drop in retail prices in the near future. Retail prices of pork and beef are expected to drop slightly, but slowly, during the coming months.

Prospects are that broiler-fryer chicken will be even more plentiful than last year — and a buy. Retail prices will likely remain at current low levels most of the fall and winter. The tall 3-3¼ pound can of whole, stewed chicken is worth considering as a time and heat saver during the remaining hot days.

September should bring a good supply of small and medium size eggs to market. These will continue to be the better buys for the next few months.

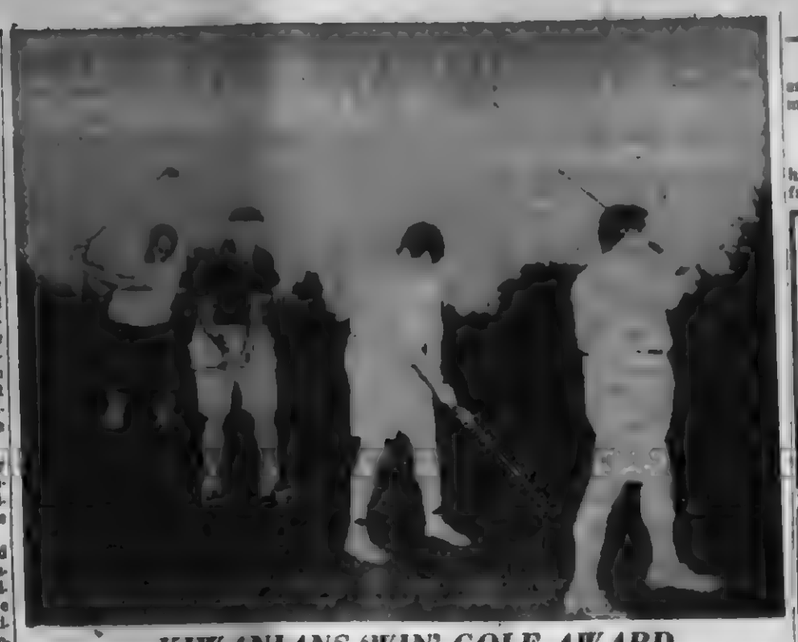
New Library Charge Plates Streamline Book Checkouts

Hilltop Library joined two other Columbus branch libraries in the switchover to "mechanical book charging" on Tuesday, Sept. 2.

The term is a lot more complicated sounding than it is in practice, according to Miss Mary Elizabeth Kayes, Hilltop librarian.

Hilltop Library, which currently boasts the larges' registered patronage and the biggest circulation business of the 11 city branch libraries, was selected to use the new method of signing out books along with Beechwold and Clintonville Branch libraries.

Each patron is given a "charg-aplate-type" identification card. This card is then slipped into the "mechanical charger" along with the book card of the book desired. No pause is necessary for the librarian to write down the patron's registration number.



During the summer 4,447 patrons have been given the new cards in exchange for the old ones as they have visited the library. The remainder of the 10,869 Hilltop patrons registered with old cards will obtain their new cards within the next few weeks. All the old-style library cards at the branch are now void.

Patrons will be urged to carry their own cards and to be cautious about losing them. The library must charge a 10-cent fee for replacement.

As in the past, the new card may be used at any of the agencies of the Columbus Public Library and may be used at the Main Library to borrow 16-millimeter sound films and phonograph records.

Officials at Columbus Public Library said that the new Hilltonia Branch Library, to be located at W. Mound-st and Wheatland-av in leased quarters, will also use the mechanical system.

Construction of the building which will house the Hilltonia Library is nearing completion and the building is expected to be ready for occupancy sometime in mid-fall.

Senior Citizens May Have New Center By Next Year

A new Senior Citizens' center heads the list of projects proposed by the city's Recreation Commission last week.

The new facility for the aged would be built in the Sunshine Park area next year, according to Nick Barack, recreation superintendent.

The center would be part of a 342-unit public housing project for aged people. It would serve apartment residents and the public, as well, replacing old Memorial Hall headquarters now used by Golden Agers. Money for the project would come from City Council-voted bonds.

Also proposed for 1960 are a new heating plant at Glenwood Recreation Center and a new ceiling for Sunshine Recreation Center. Funds for these are available.

Future projects include: new recreation center and swimming pool in Westgate Park, new swimming pool at Sunshine, and establishment of a day camp at Southview Park. Barack explained that these projects would be financed by a public-voted bond issue.

New Scout District Formed; Relieves Southwest's Load

Eleven West Side scout units this week were incorporated into a newly formed Central District of the Central Ohio Council, Boy Scouts of America.

Previously they were part of the Southwest district under Robert G. Meade. The local units are merging with others from sections of the Northwest, Arrowhead, and Mohawk districts. The move took effect Sept. 1 and will leave 54 units with Southwest. The national average is 30 per executive.

John Gallaher

Included in the transfer are Troops 14, 20, 81 and 255; Cub Packs 21, 29, 225 and 232; and Explorer Posts 29, 204 and 225.

Heading the new Central territory is District Executive John Gallaher, an experienced Scouter from Charleston, W. Va. He and his wife and two children live at 35 Midcliff-dr. Gallagher has been on the job several months and has organized all necessary committees, staffs and council representatives.

Boundaries of the new district in this area begin at Central-av form the Pennsylvania Railroad and travel south to Mound-st, and then go east to the Scioto River. Everything west of this block, bounded on the north by the railroad, by the river on the east and elsewhere by the Franklin county line, will remain in the Southwest district, Meade said.

He added, "The creation of the new district has long been overdue. It is but the beginning of needed additional men of professional caliber if the council is to keep pace with the rapid growth in population in this area. It was made possible here when the Council successfully operated its first Sustaining Membership Campaign for additional funds in February of this year."

Meade Praises Volunteers For Good Scout Program

Robert G Meade, Southwest District scout executive, this week praised the volunteer work of hundreds in carrying out an active summer of scouting in this area.

In particular he mentioned the planning for the Third Annual Cub Scout Wing Ding, Aug. 16 at Westgate Park. It was attended by about 500 Cubs, their parents and leaders from all over southwest Franklin County. General Chairman Elmer Chenault, 262 Whitehorne-av, was assisted by several committees.

"Individuals and business concerns of Grove City, the Hilltop, West Side, and Lincoln Village did much to make the afternoon and evening one of great pleasure for so many boys and girls, who will themselves soon be citizens and customers of this area," said Meade.

Among the businesses contributing to the affair were: City Furniture, Central Point Shoe Repair, Waugh's Gift Shop, Paul's Repair Shop, Broad St. Drug, Columbus Candy Company, Reeves Bros, Great Western; Val-U House, Bud's Drug Store, Reeves Bros. Central Pt.; Rausch Bros. Hdw, Hilltop Hdw., Fell's Hdw, Zettler's Hdw. Great Western.

Lincoln Village Pharmacy, Moore's Hdw. Central Pt.; Seely's Hdw., Moore's Store, Mead Jewelry, Cousins & Fearn, Jacob's Dept. Store, May & Co. Central Pt.; Standard Oil Company, Spires Shell Co., Lorene Beauty Shop, Davis Dept. Store; Keener's Gulf Service, McMurray's Service, Hanks Shell Service, Bob's Shell Service, Dairy Queen, Swan Cleaners, and Ritz Theatre.

Letters To The Editor

(Editor's note—This letter of tribute to Miss Blanche Kern, vice-principal of West High School for 25 years, was sent to us this week by C. S. Kennedy, retired drafting instructor, who served the school during her tenure. Miss Kern died June 13.)

In Memoriam . . . Blanche Kern

"Now that school is starting again it occurred to me that the following lines might be appropriate. In June I wrote them for the family:

No more we hear her pleasant voice
In wisdom's council sagely given,
Nor vision that happy, cheerful
On a countenance radiant all the while.

The "Halls of West" seem empty now
As eager students throng to class.
Her footsteps echo nevermore
As when in days gone by — we passed.

And many thousand former students pause
In mournful memory and recall
Her cherished friendship of the past
And long for hours that could not last.

We miss her presence here today,
As life's solemn echos fade away
And the lonely days weave long-
While memories deepen thru all [illegible]

Yet memory brings her here again
Her worth to those lives she touched—not in vain
With the passage of time grown [illegible]
As we mourn the passing of a great teacher.

Can any assay the good she has [illegible]
Will we ever forget the years now gone?
Who can assess the power possessed
By this "Guiden of Youth" who reached the crest?

HilltopBabeRuth Team Loses Title

Hilltop Kiwanis' Babe Ruth National League team lost the championship title to St. Charles Saturday, by a narrow six to five margin, in a ten-inning game.

Winning run was scored in the bottom of the tenth on a walk to Fred Schramm, a stolen base, fielder's choice and a passed ball.

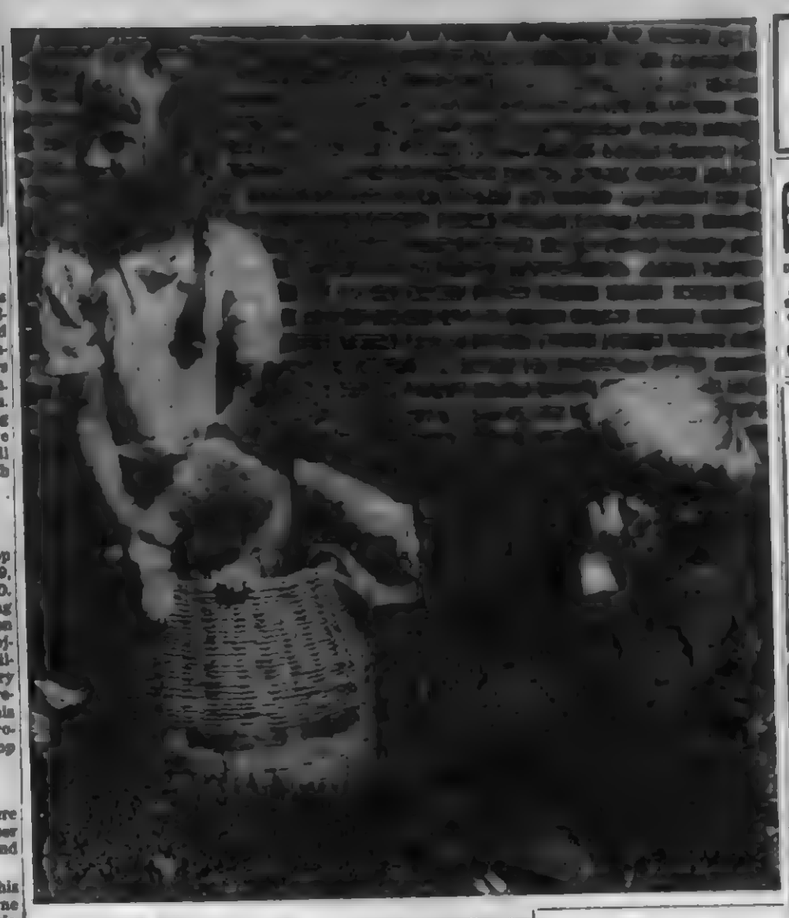
Westsider, Crushed By Tractor, "Satisfactory"

Denver Wellman, 50, of 44 W. Town-ct, was listed as "satisfactory" in St. Anthony Hospital Tuesday, with injuries received Friday when a tractor tipped over on him.

The accident occurred when a small scoop tractor he was driving upset as he was working at Frank and Scioto-rds.

Determined Kiwanians Go To Lake



Some people will go to great lengths to win a trophy —especially the West Side Kiwanis Club.

Last week 10 members made a 250-mile round trip to Lake Erie just to attend a routine meeting of their brothers in Huron, O.

Earlier this summer the local club decided it would win the organization's District 10 inter-club visitation award. To garner enough points the Kiwanians visited 13 other clubs (some of them twice). For bonus points they went to Zanesville, Delaware and Newark, as well as Huron.

—In hot pursuit of the prize are the University and Circleville clubs. Now, Interclub Chairman Jack Williams, 905 W. Rich-st, is sure his competitors are in the dust. The contest ended Sunday so he'll know soon.

Last April the West Siders added a ribbon to their flag by having a month of perfect [illegible].

GOT HIS GOAT—Too much is too much, according to Rusty, yellow calico cat displayed by owners, Louise and Teddy Shepherd. He won a ribbon for largest cat in the pet show Wednesday, Aug. 28, at the Hilltop Library, posed briefly for this picture, then ran away a few moments after one of the dogs barked at him. About 20 minutes later, Rusty was back in the basket after being forcibly pulled from the hood of the auto of Miss Mary Elizabeth Keyes, librarian, where he had lodged himself.

Branch Library Pet Show Attracts 30 Lively Entries

Pal, part-pomeranian and part cocker spaniel dog owned by Danny Ansel, walked off with the grand prize ribbon at the Hilltop Library Pet Show on Wednesday, Aug. 27, which climaxed a busy summer craft, reading and story hour program.

Other prize winners and their owners in the event, the first pet show sponsored by the library in its 30-year history were as follows:

Other prize ribbons went to Mike Morris for his rabbit, Cotton; to Molly Laird for her goldfish Goldie; to Beth Spangler for her turtle, JO JO, and to Leonard Wagner for "most unusual entries in the show," a lizard and a hamster.

Thirty pets were entered and the event was attended by some 75 people, including owners, friends, proud parents and a liberal sprinkling of smaller brothers and sisters. Animal crackers were served later as refreshment.

Happenings Are Recounted

A special children's version of the happenings of the "big pet show" is posted on the bulletin board of the library. It mentions such unusual things as the "almost-swallowing" of the turtle entry by a young spectator, showing of a younger brother in halter and leash as a pet entry, and two runaway cats.

Judges were Lee Grugel, a library apprentice; Miss Dilly Tichenour, a willing friend of one of the librarians; and Galvy Gordon of the main library staff. Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Lakin, assistant librarian, served as emcee and supervised the preparations.

Smith-Barratt Nine Win Title

Smith-Barratt Post's American Legion Junior Baseball team, is winner of the Gold League championship title this year.

Gary Jewell and Bill Lewis, representing their team, received the trophy from Bob Southwick of Southwick Funeral Home, last week.

Scioto Post team won the Blue League and district championships.

JUST MAD ABOUT MELONS . . .

MOST FITTING WAY to bring the summer to a close is to munch on a melon, according to this Wiltshire Addition set. The cameraman found them, surrounded by seeds and rinds, at 964 Chestershire-rd last Sunday.

Troop 33 Does It Again . . . Hikes In Land Of Lincoln

There'll be little left to learn about Lincoln after Boy Scout Troop 33 finishes the project it is working on.

The troop has just finished the second of three hikes on land once trod by the 16th president. Lincoln trails have been established in three states with the cooperation of Scouting's Order of the Arrow (camping honorary) and the state governments.

On Aug. 20 and 22, 11 boys and two leaders — Scoutmaster Roger Mayer, 3226 Eakin-rd, and Assistant Scoutmaster Marvin Avery, 33 Orel-av — drove to Rockport, Ind. There they toured the Lincoln pioneer village, which has exact replicas of buildings significant to Lincoln's career.

After camping overnight they went on to Lincoln Ferry Park on the Ohio River. From there they hiked 17 miles to Lincoln State Park and Nancy Hanks Lincoln State Memorial.

Last year the same troop hiked the 32-mile Kentucky-Lincoln trail in the Kentucky mountains. For both trips the boys received medals.

Next summer the group will do the Illinois Lincoln trail, said Avery.

Jim Morris, 789 Binns-blvd; Kenneth Wolfe, 833 Stephen-dr; Vaughn Cupoli, 3365 Mary-av; Charles Robinson, 265 S. Powell-av; Cecil Wriston, 139 Binns-blvd.

Jones Park Aficionados Hit Nefarious Wrestling Tactics

By Dave Hess

Jones Park wrestling fans have demanded that promotor Bob Rogers rematch Irish Mike McCall and Matt Burns against Gentleman Rocky Mingo and Bill Hoover in a four-man tag team match, after the under-handed beating McCall and Burns subjected Mingo and Hoover to last week [illegible]

According to ringside witnesses the Irishman and Burns took advantage of a bad leg Mingo had sustained in earlier bouts and got him out of there early. While Burns was coming out on the short end of the score with Hoover, McCall reached over the ropes and smashed the giant Negro with what observers say were "brass knuckles."

Hoover crumpled and was easily pinned by Burns.

Obetz police conducted a search of McCall's belonging after the bout and found a set of hard rubber knuckles which could be used with almost the same effect as metal knucks, without the danger of cutting.

Irish, of course, denied charges that he had stooped to such tactics, saying that "Hoover is just a candyeater and can't take the punishment that good wrasslers can take!"

Police made no arrest because there is no law on their books against rubber knuckles. Rogers, remarking that justice had to be done within or without the law, reversed the decision and gave Hoover and Mingo the nod.

He also has rematched the foursome in a tag team match listed as the main event on Saturday night's card. Preceding the tag bout, however, will be prelims featuring Mingo against McCall and Hoover against Burns. The referee has been instructed to search each man carefully before the [illegible]

In Friday night action Hoover will wrestle Chest Brennaman and Mingo will take on Glenn Redman in what is termed a "grudge fight."

State Depts. To Estimate 1970 Needs

What kind of building will you need by 1970?

That was the poser handed to heads of the various state departments Friday as first steps were taken toward planning of a new $15 million state office building.

Architects, chosen two weeks ago by the State Office Building [illegible] said that future space requirements would largely spell out the size of building needed and subsequent selection of a site.

Ernest J. Stork, chief engineer for the commission, said the departments have been asked to return their office space estimates by 5 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 15. "From these figures, coupled with an estimate of the off-street parking needs, we can picture the size of site necessary. Until all this is digested we will not single out any 'ideal' location for the new building," Stork said.

A westward expansion of the Columbus Civic Center, in the vicinity of Central High has been mentioned as a favorable spot for the building. Friday the executive committee of the Regional Planning Commission urged inclusion of the building in the Civic Center and pledged its active support in further development of the area.

First phase of the campaign began Monday noon when the business and industrial leaders met to officially start their contacts.

"The work of the 'Y' in this area has been warmly received," said General Drive Chairman, John Nippert. "Hundreds and hundreds of adults and young people have benefited from its valuable program." Funds from the memberships sustain the local 'Y' on a year-to-year basis.

Close on the heels of the businessmen are some 300 women volunteers who will enlist memberships in local homes. Division chairmen are Mrs. John Sines, Mrs. Wilford Sloter and Mrs. Jack Hedges. They will assemble with their captains and assistants at 8 p.m. Monday, Sept. 15 at Hope Memorial Presbyterian church to distribute kits and instructions.

The women will make their contacts between Sept. 15 and 24. Canvassers north of Broad-st will be Mrs. Sines and her captains, Mrs. Carl Black, Mrs. R. B. Logan, and Mrs. Harold Griffith.

Avid television viewers will be the happiest subscribers of the six Hartley Newspapers this week.

Appearing in each issue of the newspaper will be a television guide listing program selections over the four Columbus stations for a week in advance. The page may be removed from the paper and folded into a compact booklet.

Included with the program listings will be highlights of coming drama programs as well as sports events and movie titles. The guide will furnish all the information you need making it unnecessary to hunt out individual listings each day.

And the best part of it is that the guide is furnished free . . . just another "extra" which is found in each issue of Hartley Newspapers. Keep yourself in tune each week through the television section of your community newspaper.

Boothe May Refuse Village Mayor Post

Charles J. Ringer

Whether Norris S. Boothe will succeed Mayor Charles J. Ringer as Valleyview's chief official remains uncertain.

Mayor Ringer told councilmen last week that he was stepping out of public life on the advice of his doctor. Resignation becomes effective Sept. 30.

Council President Boothe seemed like the logical man to fill the vacated post, but his wife indicated Tuesday that he probably would be unable to accept the position.

Ringer, who is 59, lost his right leg five years ago because of a heart attack. Another attack hospitalized him again recently.

Boothe, who is 63, hasn't worked since May 6 when he suffered a heart attack.

If Boothe decides he does not wish to accept the mayor's post, he will have to resign from the council presidency. Council would then elect one of its members to fill the vacated council president post and he would automatically become mayor.

If Boothe does step aside, he will probably be returned to a council position when the new mayor takes office.

All organizations wishing to send representatives are welcome said Poly.

ONE COLLECTS LAST WEEK . . .

$90 Awaiting Subscriber

Ninety dollars in "Confederate" currency is free for finding to some lucky subscriber of Hartley Newspapers this week.

Value of the big, jackpot insignia, undetected for several weeks, has risen steadily in value to its present $90 mark. Ten smaller insignia, each worth one "Confederate" bill are also placed in ten other copies of this issue.

Mrs. G. M. Whitten, 614 Mt. Calvary-av, Apt. C, spotted a $1 insignia in her copy and redeemed the newspaper for a crisp, new "Confederate" bill. Nine others, whose copies contained $1 insignia and one with the jackpot insignia, missed their opportunity.

Always in plain view on an ad, insignia are printed in brightly colored ink.

Advertisers appearing in the current issue of the newspaper will always accept "Confederate" currency in payment for any merchandise in their stores.

Any subscribers whose name appears on our records as paid in advance or on the carrier boy's route book as a paying customer is eligible to collect "Confederate" currency.

YOUR RETIREMENT
We all look forward to happy retirement years. Our time will be our own and we will be free to do those wonderful things we had somehow never found the time to do before. But whether our plans include travel or a house in the country or golf or painting, we will need an income. Remember that life insurance can provide the necessary income to allow you to maintain your accustomed standard of living. It also insures your family of financial protection through the intervening years.

I'm sure I can be of service. Why don't you call me?
You will be under no obligation.

Last Chance To Win Prizes In Hartley Fishing Contest

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROD COCHRAN

Remember that picture full of prizes we ran last April when the Hartley Newspapers Fishing Contest got under way? Well that treasure of fishing tackle won't be on display at Carner's Boat House, Madison Lake, much longer. Soon, these terrific rods, reels, baits and lures, lines, and other fishing tackle will be resting in some lucky fishermen's tackle boxes.

The contest will close at midnight Sept. 15 — next Monday. This weekend is your last chance to land some of these prizes worth more than $300.

A fine way to wind up the current fishing season would be to win one of these prizes. This year hasn't been the best for fishing. Rains kept the waters high and muddy for much of the season. Cool weather, and perhaps the thickets crop of mosquitoes on the face of the earth kept fishermen home. The fish, however, were there for anglers willing to go after them. Fish were entered in the contest every week — right through the rains, cold, mosquitoes, and [illegible].

Remember, you may enter as many fish as you wish, caught from Lake Madison, but only one prize will be awarded to a person. Official weighing station is Carner's Boat House, a convenient location right at the lake.

Also, this is probably the only contest in the world that will award a [illegible] on hook and line. If you want to hold the World's Record for tiny fish rush your entry to Carner's Boat Dock.

Well, the rest is up to you. We've shown you the prizes, told you when to go fishing, and even, on occasion, what bait to use. Many of you have caught fish and entered them. The next thing you'll hear from us is an announcement of the prize winners.

Here Are The Prizes!

To jog your memory here's a list of the prizes that will be given away next week. First, second and third prizes will be awarded in each of the six classes of fish.

	FIRST	SECOND	THIRD
BASS	Pflueger Supreme casting reel.	Three dozen lures — Hofmann, Arbogast and Dono's [illegible]	Airex Eldorado reel.
CRAPPIES	Garcia Gold Bond spinning rod.	Johnson Century Reel.	Two dozen lures—Dono's Gypsies, and Arbogast.
BLUEGILLS	Hodgeman rain shirt, and two dozen Prizz's flyrod baits.	Cortland 333 non-sinkable fly line, 200 yds, Cortland Smoke-Tone spinning line.	Two dozen lures — Williams, Hofmann, and Hubbs Hubbs spinners.
CATFISH	Shakespeare Wonder-Cast reel.	Johnson Century Reel.	Cumberland fish creel, and Te-pat-co life preserver boat cushion.

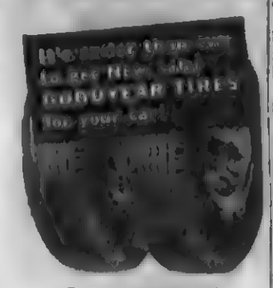
KORTES RETURN TO HILLTOP

'Y' Plans Expansion Of Its School Clubs

IT'S ALL BEHIND THEM NOW . . . just back from an army stint in Germany, Bert Korte and wife, Cherry, have made the switch from khaki civvies. Bert will again be associate secretary of the Hilltop "Y."



With a two-year hitch in the army just behind them, the Bert Kortes, this week again became part of the Hilltop scene.

Prior to his military career, Bert was associate secretary of the Hilltop YMCA for 14 months. He resumed that post Monday following the resignation of Bud Martin.

Bert spent most of his army stint as a psychiatric social worker. From Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo., he went to Ft. Riley, Kans. During the last 18 months he was on duty at the Twentieth Station hospital in Nurnberg, Germany. Through letters to friends and a subscription to this paper he kept in touch with local happenings.

Bert's big responsibility this fall will be an expansion of the Gra-Y, Hi-Y and Junior Hi-Y Clubs, especially among the new schools. He will also direct most of the "Y" athletics. In surveying the local "Y" work, Korte said he hopes to see more programming for the late teens.

The Kortes, who have an apartment at 2624½ W. Broad st, will reenter Hilltop Lions Club activities and, in addition, Bert plans to attend OSU night school next year to receive senior "Y" secretary certification.

Calling the Roll Down Here

Now that vacation periods are over and children are back in school great and important tasks are at hand in this matter of carrying on the necessary functions of our society.

Soon the community will be engaged in the annual United Appeal Drive. There is the unfinished job of raising needed money for new YMCA and YWCA buildings. PTA work will get in full swing in a few days. Youth activities galore will need adult supervision. These, to mention a few.

It is that time when a host of volunteers are needed to carry out the many important tasks at hand.

So often it is a matter of the old hands at the business being called up for action time after time. If a person has done a good job once he is sure to be called on again. That is as it should be but it should in no way relieve others from assuming their share of such responsibilities.

Worthwhile community projects need new blood from time to time. There is a wealth of such talent available in the fast growing area of Franklin County. There is a standing invitation to assist in numerous projects.

The community newspaper so many time becomes a clearing house for information and so if you are one of these newcomers or an old timer who is desirous of doing your part but haven't been called on just give us a telephone call and we'll see that you are offered some opportunity to help some worthwhile cause in your community.

When the roll is called 'down here' why not step up and say "Count on me."

Halloween Begins Early This Year

Bible Comment:

Should Never Show Favoritism

Probably the most brilliant short story ever written is the story of Joseph—10 chapters in the book of Genesis.

It is another episode in the life of Jacob. Here we find an old man, repentant of his sins and his trickeries, but having visited upon him in his own large family the sins and deceptions of his own earlier [illegible].

Joseph seems to have been 12 children, was Jacob's favorite. Jacob made this feeling all too apparent. It aroused jealousy in Jacob's brethren, resentment against the special favor that his father showed him.

Joseph seems to have been unconscious of their hatred. When Jacob sent him to see how his brothers were faring as they tended to their flocks, he went with no apprehension of danger. The brothers plotted to kill him.

It isn't necessary to go into the details of the story here—how they threw him into a pit and then sold him to the Ishmaelites, killed a goat and dipped Joseph's coat of many colors into its bright blood so they might go back and tell Jacob he had been killed by a wild beast.

The brothers little realized the tragedy they were storing up for themselves or the part they were going to play later when famine came upon the land. Then the brother they sold into slavery would have their very lives and destinies in his hand.

The story shows the foolishness of parents showing special favor to any child, a tragic mistake that allows [illegible] and strife to develop within the family.

Watcha Gonna' Be?

"When you get big,
Whatcha gonna' be?"
I say to my lad
As he climbs my knee.
He says he's gonna' run
A newspaper press,
Or be a band leader
In fancy dress,
Or sell ice cream cones,
Like his playmate's dad;
Ah, the plans are many
Of this little lad.

The Russian lad
On his daddy's knee
Isn't asked
"Whatcha gonna' be?"
It's not up to him,
It's up to the state,
Which rules his life,
Which determines his fate;
In Germany, too,
Where men aren't free,
What folly to ask
"Whatcha gonna' be?"

Oh, I'm thankful to God
That in America still
My little boy
Can be what he will;
He can choose his faith,
His vocation, his all,
And he knows not
Of a dictator's call;
What a blissful joy
With my lad on my knee
To say: "When you're big,
Whatcha gonna' be?"

Grid Fans Get First Peek Of Local Teams

Personnel Losses Hit West's First-Try Hopes

By Bob Wilson

Although the West High Cowboys were held scoreless as host school for the second half of the City League's annual football preview (four other schools had demonstrated their wares on North High's Field Friday evening) Saturday night, their football fortunes for the upcoming season are still quite unpredictable.

In the first quarter of action, West played a scoreless tie with Eastmoor; then came back to lose a "heartbreaker" to Linden McKinley in the final stanza, 8-0.

In the 'round-robin' type affair, a full four quarter game was played with each team of the four represented playing twice . . . each time against a different foe. The second period found East dumping Linden McKinley, 8-0, while Eastmoor and East played a scoreless deadlock in the third frame.

Start With Springfield

This Friday evening the Cowboys open their 1958 regular season schedule . . . on the road . . . against annually southwestern Ohio toughie Springfield. As is always a problem at the opening of a season there are no scouting reports available especially for out-of-town schools. However, Springfield is always one of the rough teams in the area, usually rating in the state's top ten, also. This year could be just a wee-bit different as they have not only a fairly big rebuilding job to do with personnel, but also are just learning an entirely new system of play under their new coach, Stone, formerly of the Los Angeles Rams (I understand).

I use those last two words since it is an especially hard obstacle for a writer to start covering such an entirely new 'beat' such as this reporter is doing.

We'll try to round this up into some pretty fair game coverage, personal notes, and interesting sidelights . . . as well as climb a few limbs.

In their clash with Eastmoor, the Cowboys never got a chance to get their offense rolling, as they only had their hands on the ball for six plays as compared to 15 for the foe. Taking the opening kickoff (which was returned 23 yards), Eastmoor marched to West's 18 yard line. There Eastmoor quarterback and co-captain, Bob Naumoff, fumbled and West's Jim Carter recovered.

Halfback Bob Pate picked up three off right tackle, fullback and captain Dave Francis got five through left guard and then came right back straight up the middle for West's longest gain of the period . . . 24 yards. Southpaw quarterback Don Uldricks then took to the air. After losing a yard, he hit end Bob Dean for seven on a fake left toss, but was smeared by Eastmoor's end Tom Peters for a six yard loss on the last play.

West took a big personnel loss this past week, losing one entire side of their line due to ineligibility and injury. As head coach Bill Schmitter put it, "Until that hit us we were a good ball club, but now . . ??

This showed up in both of West's encounters as their line was pretty well riddled, but only for short yardage as neither Linden nor Eastmoor could penetrate beyond the secondary to any extent. But the short yardage gains were enough for possession and constant gains on the Cowboy defense.

Penalty Was Costly

West's appearance against Linden was marred by an unfortunate penalty that cost them a TD. Leon Evans took the opening kickoff on his own 13, cut diagonally cross field and sprinted down the right side line 87 yards for the apparent score. He was completely untouchable once across midfield. However West was called for clipping on the Linden 14 . . . tho there has been controversy over whether or not it really was an illegal block. Also, it must have occured after Evans had crossed the double stripe, thus all in all it was a very unnecessary as well as costly block.

In ten plays with three big gainers, Linden scored. On the quarterback option play, QB Dick Carroll pitched back to half Steve Bennett and he skirted right end for 14 yards. After Carroll had fumbled and recovered himself, he hit fullback Gary Stapf on deep pass to the right good for 30 and then half Dave Beougher swept left end for another 11. Three plays later Bennett went the final five yards off left guard to score; Beougher added the extra two points on a quick opener off right tackle.

It looks from the brief look given viewers, that West may have a pretty fair offense, "the backfield men are powerful and seem to be very promising.

Two players have been injured in scrimmage games. Victor Hart has a broke nose and will miss action for a few games. Steve Morland will be out of action for the year because of a broken arm.

This weekend Central will seek a revengeful victory from a team that is always rated high by traveling to Steubenville. Last year, the Pirates suffered their first loss from this team after winning three games in a row from them.

but their defense is going to have to be stiffened . . . either to get possession so the Cowboy offense can have a chance to score more points than the foe, or to hold the opponents to fewer points than West can muster!

The rest of the preview was pretty routine with all squads showing enough good and bad points to look pretty even at this stage of the campaign. Both teams that scored took advantage of running for their extra 'point' in order to benefit by the new rule allowing two points for running instead of place kicking which still is good for only 1 point.

See you at Springfield . . . !

Good Season Expected From Central Grid Team

Predictions point to a good grid season for the Central Pirates. Coach Frank Howe feels that the passing attack will be able to move the ball. He said, "the backfield men are powerful and seem to be very promising.

The preview game of last week end showed that the team has the drive in the offensive and a very alert defensive.

The Pirates won from Aquinas, 6-0, and gained the nod over South via first down, 2-1. Ed Newkirk recovered an Aquinas fumble in the end zone for the touchdown.

Food Markets This Week

by Mrs. Estelle B. Franks

Fruits—peaches, apples, pears, prune plums, bananas.
Vegetables—sweet corn, tomatoes, potatoes, head lettuce, cabbage, green beans.
Other Foods—pork loin roast, ground beef, frying chickens, medium eggs, cheese.

CANNED FOODS FOR YOU

To save time and labor, for convenient home storage, for good eating, for variety in meals, and for thrift—all these are reasons why American families buy canned foods. In the fall, you may want to buy by the case as markets offer specials on quantity purchases in order to clear their shelves for the new pack coming in.

Canning Important in Ohio—Some of the fine canned foods you buy may be Ohio's own, for we have more than 100 food plants located in 26 counties of the state. Over 200 million cans of perishable fruits and vegetables, plus many specialty items are processed annually in these plants.

Major Processing Crops—Tomatoes are Ohio's most important crop for processing with approximately 20,000 acres contracted by Ohio canners annually. Second in importance is sweet corn. About 7,000 acres of this vegetable are contracted for processing each year. Other important foods for processing are sauerkraut, pickles, and cherries.

High Quality Preserved—The crops for canning are grown in the parts of the country best suited for their production. Harvest of crops takes place at just the right stage of maturity. Canning immediately after harvest preserves flavor and appearance.

With continual research for improved methods and new products, the canning industry assures us of good eating from canned goods for a long time to come. According to the latest count more than 1,300 different canned items are available throughout the year to save the busy homemaker valuable time.

After a Labor Day program which saw the favorites shut out, form has been restored well at the meeting and the percentage of winning choices is about 35, slightly above the national average.

Management has announced a slight change in post time for the remaining Saturday programs. The start will be made at 2:15 p.m., while on weekdays first post will be 2:30.

Mary Dunlap, Bernard Daugherty Wed In Candle Light Rites Aug. 16

Vases of white gladioli and huckleberry against a background of palms decorated the altar of Hope Evangelical Lutheran Church Aug. 16, for the candlelit, double-ring marriage service of Miss Mary Joanne Dunlap and Mr. Bernard Eugene Daugherty.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lee Dunlap of 914 Studer-av, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Daugherty, 74 Wisconsin-av.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a bouffant gown of chantilly lace and nylon tulle over satin. The fitted lace bodice was designed with a scalloped portrait neckline embroidered with sequins and pearls and long lace sleeves tapering to points over her hands.

The bouffant skirt featured tiers of lace and fluted tulle with alternating panels forming a sequin-trimmed, chapel length train.

Her finger-tip veil of silk illusion fell from a crown of sequins and she carried a white prayer book cascaded with stephanotis and maline.

Preceding the bride to the altar was Mrs. Beverly Ranft, matron of honor and bridesmaids, Miss Bonnie Mason, Miss Janet Frye and Miss Carol Lu Masch.

All attendants were gowned identically in bouffant, cocktail-length gowns of sapphire blue taffeta with fitted bodices, low portrait neckline, bracelet-length sleeves and full skirts fashioned with tailored bows. They wore gold necklaces and earrings set with pearls and rhinestones, gifts of the bride, and carried cascades of pink and white gamelias.

Peggy Ann Hayes, flower girl, wore a floor length gown of of lace and tulle with alternating panels of lace and tulle forming the bouffant skirt and train. She carried a miniature basket of pink and white sweetheart roses.

Stephen Pymer served as ring bearer.

Kenneth McDowell served as best man, and ushers were Mr. Leroy Daugherty, Mr. George Eggleton and Mr. Bill Dunlap. Donald and Thomas Dunlap, brothers of the bride, served as candlelyters.

A reception followed at the church.

Mrs. Dunlap chose for her daughter's wedding a cocktail length white lace sheath over delphinium blue satin, with matching accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

Mrs. Daugherty was gowned in turquoise blue and her corsage was of pink carnations.

TV TOPS FOR THIS WEEK

Walt Disney Presents starts a new series this Friday night on Channel Six. The first show is entitled "Davy Crockett, Indian Fighter."

Major League Baseball will be aired three times during the coming week. Channel Four will televise the St. Louis Cardinal-Milwaukee Brave game on Saturday and the Cincinnati Redleg-San Francisco Giant game on Sunday. Channel Ten will bring the Baltimore Oriole-Cleveland Indian game to area fans Saturday afternoon.

Buffalo Bill Cody, out of show business since the death of his son, meets Corky of "Circus Boy," Thursday, Channel Six, and his interest in performing is rekindled in "The Return of Buffalo Bill."

Something Different, the television movie program with no time out for commercials, returns to the air Saturday on Channel Six with "Edge of Darkness," Starring Errol Flynn, Walter Huston and Ana Sheridan, the story tells of the brutal German occupation of Norway and of the underground forces which tried to put an end to it.

Race of The Week brings the United Nations Handicap for three-year-olds and up over a course of a mile and 3/16th for a purse of $100,000 added to viewers of Channel Ten this Saturday.

Guide Forms Booklet

Beginning with this issue, subscribers to the six Hartley newspapers will receive a weekly guide to the top television program on all four Columbus area stations. To fold the page into a handy booklet, follow these simple instructions: Taking the page as it is presented in the paper, fold it vertically in half. Then fold the top of the page to the bottom twice until the front page of the section appears. The first three days then follow in order. By turning the page over, the other four days appear.

To Visit Naval Air Station

Several issues were discussed and decided upon at the Monday night session of Post 225. An overnight visit to Columbus Naval Air Stations is slated Sept. 20-21. The explorers will eat, sleep, march, and possibly fly with forces stationed at the base.

Most of the boys in Post 225 have recovered from the blistering (literally) effects of their 32-mile hike in Kentucky. The trip went pretty well for the most part, although the boys will tell you it was the longest 32 miles they ever hiked.

Rea-Rainbow

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Sharp and daughter, Vella, have returned to their home on Midland-av, after visiting their relatives at Tonawanda, N.Y. and also sight-seeing at Niagara Falls and Ontario, Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gearhart of Midland-av, became grandparents the past week to a daughter born to Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hughs at Grove City, also twin daughters, born to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Taylor of N. Fourth-st.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Arnold of Clarendon-av have returned from a visit of several days with relatives at Clearwater, Fla.

Mrs. Myrtle Kidd of Rainbow joined her mother, Mrs. Leota Moore of West Jefferson, and an aunt, Mrs. Dovie Moore of W. Palm Beach, Fla., and visited Mr. and Mrs. J. G. France and family during the weekend at Marion.

Parents Meet Sept. 18

Troop, post, and pack members of the 225 units should make sure their parents are informed about the next meeting of the Parents Auxiliary, Sept. 18. It will be held at St. Matthews Lutheran Church, beginning at 7:30. Various awards and merit badges will be presented.

Pack 225's committee will get together this Friday evening at the church.

Plans for the month of September were mapped out by the committee of Pack 248 recently. The pack will follow the Cub Scout theme of "corral" this month.

Rental ads reap fast results in Hartley Newspapers. Mrs. Gladys Johnson, 68 N. Princeton-av; Mrs. C. H. Bryson, 2720 W. Broad-st and Mrs. John Lageman, 121 Midland-av, rented their properties in double-quick time, after advertising in Hartley Newspapers' classified section.

LAST TRIP DOWNTOWN—City Council President W. Wesley Llewelyn traveled the familiar route from the Hilltop downtown for the last time Monday. Firemen at Engine House 14, W. Broad-st at Wheatland-av, salute as the funeral procession passes in review.

New Schools Over Capacity

Lindbergh, Binns Full; Board Okays New Site

Columbus Board of Education, at its meeting Tuesday afternoon, moved as far ahead as its funds and previously-made new school commitments would permit in an attempt to alleviate the strained elementary system of southwestern Hilltop.

Binns Elementary, opened last fall with a rated capacity of 525 students, has an enrollment of 963 and Lindbergh School, planned to accommodate 280, registered 378 on opening day, Monday.

Farsighted officials, anticipating an ever increasing student population in the area, officially approved the purchase of an eight-acre tract of vacant land south of Georgian Heights as a site for a possible new school.

Another elementary school in the area would, conceivably, absorb Georgian Heights children relieving the strain on Binns and, in turn, Lindbergh.

However, school construction funds, already committed to the building of other, promised new schools, will not permit an early building date.

The land is bounded on the north by Sexton-dr, on the east by Savannah-dr extended south, on the west by Georgian-dr extended south and on the south by an imaginary line 1000 feet south of, and parallel to Sexton-dr.

Survey Charts Program

Planned as a three-year program, school building is based on known needs as revealed in periodic building surveys, and money is allocated to cover those needs.

Last building survey, made in 1956, determined the building program through 1968. A new survey, next year, will chart building plans through 1962.

Since student population of newly-annexed Georgian Heights couldn't be foreseen in the city system in 1954, no provisions could have been made for a school in the area.

The $12,900,000 bond issue of Sept. 14, 1956, carefully scheduled by the board to cover existing school needs, includes $5,000,000 spent in 1957, $5,000,000 in 1958 and $2,900,000 available for construction in 1959.

Careful stretching of bond money will permit purchase of the Georgian Heights site.

In other action, the board closed the contracts for Binns School with the payment of $1,912.98 to Dotter, Inc., plumbing, heating and ventilating contractor.

FIRST STEP FORWARD on the long road to a diploma was taken by this group of kindergarten students entering school for the first time Monday at Lindbergh Elementary. James Tefft, principal, extends a warm "welcome aboard" gesture. Although corridors were lined with stacked building supplies and swarming with workmen, students found finished, uncluttered classrooms, desks, books and teachers waiting. (More photos on page 2.)

$95 Hoard Buried In Ads Today

No claimants on the jackpot prize money for the past several weeks has added a lot of interest to the game . . . 95 crisp, new "inferests" in fact.

Value of the insignia, increasing steadily each week the emblem isn't found, has risen steadily to a $95 high today.

Ten other subscribers whose copies contain $1 insignia, may also exchange their newspapers for one "Confederate" bill.

I. L. Timmons, 397 S. Richardson-av, last week's only winner, returned his copy of the newspaper containing an insignia, for a "Confederate" bill.

Subscribers locating insignia in their copies may return the entire newspaper to Hartley Newspapers' office, 2465 W. Broad-st, before noon on Saturday and claim "Confederate" currency.

Advertisers appearing in the current issue of the newspaper will accept "Confederate" money in payment for any merchandise in their stores.

Any subscriber whose name appears on our records as having paid in advance, or on his carrier boy's route book as a paying customer is eligible to collect "Confederate" money.

Employes or carriers of the newspaper and members of their families are excepted.

Acquisition Of Housing Site Explored

Columbus Metropolitan Housing officials and the city are studying complicated aspects of obtaining a West Side site for a proposed $2.6 million Golden Age community center.

The area in question is bounded by Sullivant-av, S. Gift-st, Cherry Alley and McDowell-st. Planners say the site is badly needed for an eight-story apartment of 175 units and recreation area for the elderly. It would serve older residents from all over the city.

The housing authority declares it cannot condemn some of the 27 properties in the area because they are not substandard. Most are homes, but several are small businesses.

The city, which would finance about 20 per cent of the project, has been asked to consider its condemnation powers in securing the site. A joint discussion of the matter was held Thursday between Mayor M. E. Sensenbrenner, Metropolitan Housing Director R. C. Taylor, City Attorney Russell Leach and other city officials.

'Y' Workers Have Week To Hit Goal

Challenged by a vigorous population growth, volunteers are in the midst of their biggest Hilltop YMCA enrollment drive.

Money from the annual memberships maintains the local program on a year-to-year basis. Hundreds of solicitors in residential, school and industrial divisions hope to secure 3600 members by Sept. 24. This is an increase of 300 over last year, said general chairman, John Nippert.

"The 'Y' is for youth and adults alike," Nippert reminded. To grownups who are unable to take active part he urged that they see fit to sponsor a boy in the 'Y' with a gift membership . . . "A genuine investment in the future of our community," he said.

The fees are $1 for youngsters and $3 for adults. Some of the money will go to expanded club work in the schools. Eight Gra-Y clubs are being formed in the grades, along with three Hi-Y groups in junior high and two clubs in Valleyview and Lindbergh schools.

Results of the canvass will be tallied at Hoge Memorial Church, Wednesday, Sept. 24 at 8 p.m.

Lindbergh Parents, Staff Tackle Many Obstacles

Lindbergh school, opening its doors for the first time Monday morning, was a scene of orderly confusion as staff members calmly went about enrolling students and parents good-naturedly threaded their way past workmen and stacks of building supplies.

Although still unfinished, most of the seven classrooms were ready for occupancy, clean, furnished and uncluttered. All water and plumbing facilities were in order and construction was advanced to a point where workmen could finish without disrupting classroom routine.

C. L. Dumaree, assistant superintendent of schools and Miss Genevieve Maloney, supervising principal, were on hand to help smooth out problems, as James Tefft, principal directed children to their assigned classrooms and answered parent's questions.

Area Magnifies Problems

All the usual problems of a delayed opening date in a still unfinished building were complicated at Lindbergh by difficulties encountered in every new building in a "frontier" section of the city.

Built on a location chosen because of immediate need, as well as expected increase in population, the area is still not completely urbanized and the school isn't easily accessible to a portion of the children.

Planned to absorb those living in the newly-annexed Rea-Rainbow area, and to relieve overcrowding of the new Binns

Community Shocked By Death of Council President

This community joins in an expression of sorrow following the death of City Council President Wesley Llewelyn.

The city had watched with interest when a newcomer presented himself on the political scene and especially since it was apparent from the beginning that the man had a mind of his own.

His death is a great loss to Columbus. It is hoped that his successor will have similar abilities as well as enough fortitude to stand up for what he believes is right.

It's a Wise Move To Belong To Y

On Tuesday morning a very large team of workers started the annual Hilltop YMCA membership enrollment campaign. Their objective: 3600 individual memberships.

Residents all over the community are being asked to invest $2 per adult and $1 per child for a yearly membership. This money will go to supplement the operating funds of the local YMCA branch.

One needs but to see one of the many Y programs in operation to realize the wisdom of this very small sustaining membership.

The program reaches thousands of youth in the community as well as a host of oldsters even beyond 60. One of the popular organizations sponsored by the Y is the Golden Age Club which provides a regular program and fellowship for older people.

The Y building fund campaign will get into high gear again later this fall and another year should see a new building on the Valleyview site. Until then the Y needs the individual support of over 3600 people who will become sustaining members.

You will be aiding a very worthwhile cause when you respond favorably to the request of a local worker when she calls on you for a membership.

Solemn City Marks Passing Of Leader

A bereaved city paid final tribute Monday to City Council President W. Wesley Llewelyn, 106 S Westgate-av.

Escorted by 20 police and firemen, and accompanied by a half-mile long funeral procession, the hearse left Westgate Methodist Church, moved down W. Broad-st and wound past City Hall en route to Union Cemetery.

Flags were at half-mast and personnel of all city buildings stood at attention as the procession passed in review.

Sincere expressions of loss from friends, business associates and political figures were a testimony to his character and integrity.

His death last Friday night at Mt. Carmel Hospital, after an eight-day fight against infection from a ruptured appendix, marked the end of a spectacularly successful career.

Broke Council Precedent

Elected to council in 1955, he became the first Democrat to sit on the city's legislative body in 11 years, and last year was elected to the post of council president.

Born in Newport, Ky., Llewelyn worked his way through college and gained three degrees in a ten-year period.

Graduated from the University of Cincinnati in 1932 with a degree in traffic management, he went to work for the New York Central Railroad. In 1934, after alternate periods of work and study, he received a degree in business management.

Janitrol Acquires 41 Acres For Space-Age Expansion

When the new Janitrol Aircraft plant made its debut near Lincoln Village last July, officials told Hartley newspapers that immediate expansion seemed imminent.

This week the aircraft parts firm confirmed its thinking and purchased 41 acres in two tracts adjacent to the plant at 4900 Surface-rd. Thirty-six of the acres lie north of the present 17-acre site and five are to the south.

Robin Bell, president of the Janitrol division of Surface Combustion Corporation said expanding machining operations have created the need for two additions to the present plant.

Janitrol makes highly precision parts for jet aircraft and missiles. These include high pressure duct couplings, pneumatic controls and heat exchangers.

Employment now is around 300 but officials earlier told Hartley Newspapers that expected demands for its products in the space age could raise the figure to 500.

Harvester Ships Out First Load

This week the new wholesale distribution depot of International Harvester Co., 3600 Sullivant-av, officially opened and started shipping parts to dealers in the Columbus territory.

The first official shipment Monday went to New Madison, O said Ed LeCaptain, traffic manager.

The Columbus parts depot is one in a system of 12 located at strategic points throughout the United States.

The local plant, when in full operation, will serve approximately 1000 distributors and dealers in Ohio and West Virginia, and parts of Kentucky, Indiana, Michigan, New York and Pennsylvania.

W. J. Mathews, local manager, stated that the company was exceedingly pleased with the location in Columbus, and the attitude and reception that it has received.

"We are very pleased with the type of employes we were able to obtain," said Mathews. "With the exception of department heads, all employes were hired locally and at present are going through orientation and on-the-job training programs.

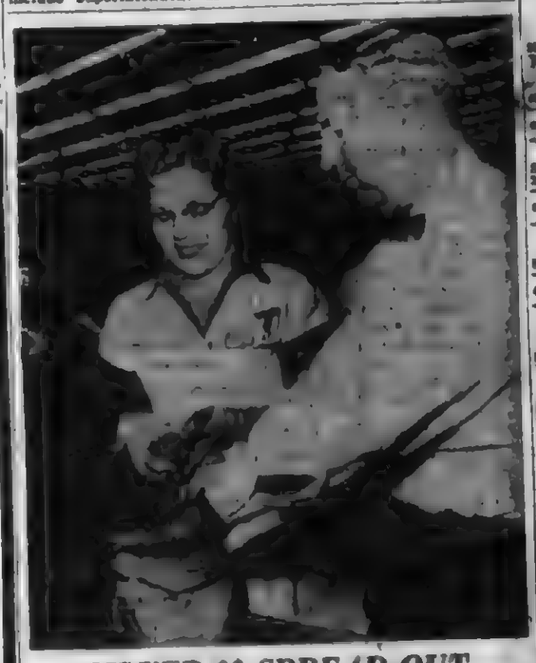
The office building and depot cover six acres. At present 126 persons are employed and eventually may total 200. A formal opening probably will be held before the first of the year.

Ternstedt Strike Comes To Halt

Approximately 4000 workers at General Motors Ternstedt Division returned to their jobs Monday, after 2000 members of striking United Auto Workers Local 969 voted to end the five day walk-out.

Union-management negotiators will continue to discuss grievances cited in the strike.

Representing the union at the sessions will be International UAW representative John Bolin and Charles Rock, chairman of Local 969's shop committee.



Company representatives will include superintendent of the tract since May 31 time-study department.

Employes of the plant have been working without a contract since May 31.

Naval Choir Sets Free Concert

SILVER $$ SPREAD OUT

WHEN THE NEARLY 20,000 silver dollars distributed to employes by the Westinghouse plant hit local retail stores, the Big Bear Store at 2635 W. Broad-st, got its share. Here, Ed Veverka, store manager, holds a money bag while Margaret Bryant, 749 Josephine-av, drops in the last of the big silver pieces. The distribution of the silver dollars was part of the fifth birthday celebration at the W. Broad-st plant.

Glenwood Methodist's team in the Hilltop "Y" Slo-Pitch League gained the title of Church Champions recently by defeating the Hillcrest Baptist in a well played ball game. The final score was 9-3.

370 Enroll At New Lindbergh

LINDBERGH ELEMENTARY, still unfinished, was open for business Monday morning. Staff members and students, side stepping workmen, ladders and building materials, settled down to school routine. A desk set in a corridor and surrounded with crates, became the office and registrations proceeded smoothly with parents filling out forms on packing boxes, and waiting patiently for their turn to be interviewed by clerk, Mrs. Lee Wilkinson.

THEIR YOUNGSTERS ENROLLED in school, mothers made their way home along the pathway provided by the Board of Education, from Lindbergh to Symington, last paved street in the area. Built by the Board of Education, the path insures safe walking for youngsters until Spaatz and duroks are paved.

PRINCIPAL DEFINES LUNCH TIME POLICY

Robert F. Darrow, principal of West High School, has explained the school's policy concerning lunch permits for students, in the following statement:

"A student at West Junior-Senior High School may eat in the school lunchroom, may carry his lunch, or if he lives a reasonable distance from the school, may request a lunch permit. This is permission for the student to eat in his own home and no place else.

"If a student desires a lunch permit, he requests an application from his homeroom teacher, who will call the parents by telephone to verify their approval. The student can receive two periods for lunch only if the parents feel that this is absolutely necessary.

"Students can buy a well-balanced meal in the school lunchroom at a reasonable price. Many students bring sandwiches from home and then purchase hot soup and milk in the lunchroom. Other students bring their entire lunch with them.

"A typical menu in the West Junior-Senior High School lunch room is as follows:

"Plate Luncheon: Meat loaf with tomato sauce, mashed potatoes and brown gravy, buttered carrot strips, buttered roll.

"Side dishes—Cheese fondue with bacon.

"Vegetables: New beets, green beans.

"Soups: Noodle soup, [illegible] soup.

"Sandwiches: Sliced cheese and pickle, egg salad, wiener.

"Salads: Ring cherry, sliced tomatoes and cucumbers.

"Desserts: lemon pie, raspberry jello, iced watermelon."

A plate luncheon costs 40 cents and side dishes are 17 cents each.

Time To Clean Up The News Stands

Loud objection from a local mother this past week has centered a lot of attention to a matter that has needed attention for a long time . . . that of lewd magazines on news stands.

More and more of the "arty" type of picture magazine have made their way to public display and are on sale in many areas to anyone with the price in hand. Youngsters have frequently been the purchasers.

It is time that a concentrated movement gets underway to demand that our enforcement agents put as much pressure as possible on having the sale of these magazines restricted.

But it is even more important that parents let it be known to the proper legislative representative that the law enforcement agencies need to have the backing of laws that would better define what a lewd or lascivious magazine is.

Looking At It Statistically

Bible Comment:

Even Worst Men Have The Latent Ability For Good

Joseph told his brothers that they should bring their brother Benjamin down to Egypt with them on their next journey to procure grain. The brothers protested that the loss of Benjamin would kill their father, Jacob, who had been dreadfully upset when Joseph had gone from home.

Joseph was insistent and, since the famine was so keen, there was no other way. When they next came — with Benjamin — and had secured their grain for the journey home, Joseph planted a silver cup in Benjamin's sack.

When they had gone a little way, they were overtaken and the silver cup discovered. It was, of course, a very serious situation. Judah, the brother who had originally suggested selling Joseph to the Midianites, thus starting him on his journey to Egypt, came to the front.

Assuring Joseph that the loss of Benjamin would kill Jacob, Judah asked that he be taken as a substitute and punished for the alleged theft and that Benjamin should be allowed to go home.

Here is illustrated sharply the latent capacity for goodness and nobility that is in human nature. It is exemplified quite often in men whose lives have been by no means free from serious fault but who rise to the heights of courage and sacrifice in a crisis.

This latent capacity is a hopeful fact for humanity. We find it exemplified in Americans and others, but it is regrettable that it so often requires great crises to bring it out.

Perhaps the greatest task for the Christian church is to so influence men in times of prosperity and peace that what is best in them must be expressed without the stimulus of some extreme situation.

BEST READ . . . Your WEEKLY Newspaper

. . . Says an Advertising Authority

"As advertising agency people, it is our first and foremost consideration in purchasing media to try and get the maximum return for every client dollar spent.

"I don't subscribe to the thought that the way to get maximum return on the client dollar is necessarily that of buying as much circulation as possible. Rather, it is my feeling that the all-important thing to look for when purchasing print media, is READERSHIP. What good does it do to carefully weigh one milline against another, only to end up buying a lot of circulation and a minimum of readership?

"For years, I have carefully watched and studied readership of weekly newspapers and made a number of mental and statistical comparisons between their readership and other mediums that are circulated for the hundreds of thousands.

"It is my opinion, although not officially documented, that subscribers of weekly newspapers will come closer to being cover-to-cover readers than any other print medium available."

Cowboys Taste Defeat In Season's First Tilt

By Bob Wilcox

Springfield scored early in the first quarter and twice in the second in handling the West Cowboys a 20-0 loss in the first game for each squad Friday at Springfield.

This was eight points better from West's viewpoint than last year's encounter which the Wildcats won 28-0 . . . if that's any consolation.

Springfield didn't waste any time from the first. After nine plays Bill Glenn climaxed an 80 yard drive which consumed half the period by going the final two yards. He also ran successfully for two extra points.

Then early in the second period Bob Bradford went from six yards out for the Wildcats' second counter. His try for extra points failed. This drive was started on the first play of the period. Bradford took a West punt on his own 25 and scooted upfield 20 yards to the Cowboys' 44.

On the first play fullback Ormonde Ricketts, a rough customer to handle at times, took off around left end and was finally dragged down by Bob Dean, 36 yards later. With a first and goal to go on the Cowboys, Bradford picked up four around left end and then the final six.

Later in the period West quarterback, Don Uldrick, got off a bad lateral and it was recovered by Springfield on their own 31. Six plays later they had their final tally for the evening. Ricketts' try for the extra point was stopped cold by West's end Jerry Spears.

(Incidentally . . . the 3-4 weeks expected for Spears' knee injury to heal shortened itself down considerably as he returned to the line-up at Springfield. Seeing quite a bit of action, he did a very creditable job to celebrate his return.)

The big play in the Cats final tally, was a 34-yard pass play from quarterback Tom Wilson to Bradford. The score came on a 9-yarder by sub-half Bill Glenn. No score in the second half showed that the Cowboys had "caught on" to the Springfield tactics to some extent.

The West line made some improvement over the preview as they held the short gainers through their "territory" to even shorter ones. The Cats were penalized 12 times for 90 yards. West was "set back" by the officials four times for 20 yards.

Dave Francis did some personal publicity work in his campaign for "top fullback in the area" honors. Even when the Cats began to try to stop him, they couldn't. Having a fine night, especially up the middle, he picked up 88 yards in 21 tries for about a four yard-per-try average.

Meanwhile half Bill Smith was having himself a pretty fair night around the ends as he collected 48 yards in six carries for an average of seven per try. He had runs of 17 and 13 in this total; Francis had runs of 11 and 10 (three of these) in his total plus a 20-yard kick-off return.

The Cats often went to the air late in the game, but failed. West's deepest penetration into enemy territory was near the Cat 30-yard line, and the 31 in the second. The Cats got to the West five-yard line to end the third period but on the first play of the fourth quarter fumbled and West recovered.

Defensively as a whole West looked improved over the Preview . . . individually however such as names as Spears, Gene Branson, Bob Pate, Dean and Francis were in the thick of things defensively with some pretty good and timely tackling.

Francis punted twice for West for an average of 37.5 per kick. Don Uldrick kicked-off once for 45 yards.

Opponents Put Wallop Into Central

Central was two yards from a touchdown before time expired in the first half at Steubenville, then the host team broke things wide open with all the game's points being scored in the final two periods.

After a scoreless first half, Steubenville took charge and scored four times in the second half to whip Central, 30 to 0.

An alert defense by Central was able to hold a check on the Steubenville team in the first half. Central never seriously threatened during the last half and couldn't move inside the 30-yard line.

Practice at the Central field this week is being slacked somewhat because of no scheduled game for this week-end due to a teachers' meeting on Friday. The team has a chance for a rest up before meeting the South team on the latter's field on Sept. 26.

Football Faculty Feted

Football Faculty will be the breakfast guests of Ater's Restaurant, 914 W. Broad-st Saturday morning before the football clinic at Sunshine Recreation Center.

FIRST HOME ACTION IS THURSDAY NIGHT

This Thursday evening (note the change of the day because school is out for teachers' meeting) West will play its first home game of the 1958 season.

The opponent, Linden-McKinley, was seen in action at the Preview twice—once against West. They downed the locals 8-0.

Halfback Steve Bennett is their best ground gainer . . . with speed to burn as the city dash champion in track, also. Fullback Jerry Amos is not rated the ballcarrier that Bennett is, but can pick up the yardage, too. As McKinley dropped Watterson 28-0 last Friday, Amos picked 74 yards over the number 3 hole . . . 58 on one sprint, good for a TD. McKinley also has a good passing attack behind a fair line. Quarterback Dick Carroll (who led the team in the Preview) completed one of one. However John Mitchell directed the team most of the Watterson game and completed four of eight for 60 yards.

Let's all get out and give the Cowboys a royal welcome-sendoff combination as they embark on their '58 campaign . . . at home Thursday evening.—R.W.

Losses Plague Schmitter

Editor's Note — Usually this type of story is printed prior to the opening of a team's season. However due to the late arrival on the scene of our new West sportswriter, this article is being used concurrently with West's first game of the year against Springfield.

By Bob Wilcox

Graduation is always an obstacle, injuries a real hindrance, and ineligibility a terrible bugaboo for any coach trying to build good teams and have winning seasons. West High Head Football Coach Bill Schmitter is no exception.

Ineligibility is one of those items that is unexpected, avoidable . . . but somehow not quite always completely avoided enough.

Schmitter, starting his second year as head mentor of the Cowboys, lost 13 via graduation route last year. Injuries started to take their heavy toll even before the season had started. Early in pre-school drills, their leading passer, Terry Briggs broke his arm. Then just prior to the Preview, converted end, Jerry Spears, hurt his knee and will be out for at least 3-6 weeks. Then the eligibility bugaboo hit, not once, but twice.

When the "smoke" had cleared Schmitter was confronted with the tremendous task of replacing one entire side of his forward wall! Already minus his starting end (Spears), he found himself without a tackle and a guard, Bob Jackson and Jim Calwell, respectively . . . via the "grade route." Both were seniors; thus some youngster will get the chance to prove himself and gain valuable game experience that he might not otherwise have gotten. On the other hand, that's an awfully big hunk of seasoned experience to lose all at once after having counted and made plans around them.

Of the 13 who graduated, they included starters Tom Armentrout, end, Earl Rose and Ken Clapsaddle, who alternated at quarterback, halfbacks Larry Price and Terry Reichert and guard Walt Goudy. However, probably the two biggest holes to fill this fall were vacated by center Don Hallam and guard Dave Bunner, a unanimous all-city choice last season.

The only big switch in position of a returning veteran this year was Spears from tackle to end. How the change will work out will have to be waited on until his return to the lineup some weeks hence. The only other near change is Don Uldricks. Listed as an end last fall, he did also play some quarterback and has taken over those starting duties so far this fall since Briggs' injury.

The Cowboys have 12 lettermen back . . . all seniors. The starting lineup for the Preview consisted of 10 seniors and one junior. The latter is center Larry Barnett. Letter-winners back are Uldricks, Bill Smith, halfback, Dave Francis, fullback and captain; Bob Pate and Bob Thornton, halfbacks; Bill Ingle and Jim Carter, guards; Fred Ash and Tom Myers, tackles; Bob Deeti and Ray Merky, ends . . . the latter is co-captain, and Spears.

Schmitter had high hopes of improving upon last year's 2-7 record with what he termed a "good team" until that final blow of losing half his line. Now he doesn't know; like the fans he'll just have to wait and see how the squad responds to the acid test . . . actual game "warfare." The their passing game was hurt and perhaps somewhat limited from early intentions by Briggs' injury, they still possess the "passing punch" when needed . . . mostly on the southpaw arm of Uldricks.

Employing the modified-T offense which uses flankers and can lead to a wide open offense and the famed Bud Wilkinson - Oklahoma defense (with an almost 7-man line at times), the team hopes to finish higher than their tie for sixth place with East in the City League standings of last year. There are nine teams in the league this year for the first time with two new additions since last season.

Line Coach John Butler considers his line to be slightly lighter than last year's, but compensates with more speed and desire ("the" essential ingredient for any winner). He has one of the two men up from last year's Reserve squad that looks quite promising and should see plenty of action. That is center and started Barnette. The other man up is under Backfield Coach Charles Meyers; he is half Leon Evans. The not a starter in the Preview he was their best ground gainer with some fine dashes including the called-back beautiful 87-yard opening kick-off return for a "supposed" TD against Linden.

In speaking of his squad's "pros and cons," Schmitter felt the team was weak on speed and depth, but strong in such spots as fullback and some good line-men . . . but not near enough of the latter specie. Francis, the fullback, looked impressive in the Preview; while on the line Merky, Meyers and Carter are strong "links in the chain." So come on out to Magly Field . . . and the road stadiums, too . . . and support the team. See what evolves from this "question-mark aggregation" during the ensuing season of "pigskinism."

FUTURE GRID STARS, PERHAPS?

NUCLEUS of the Hilltop Lions Junior Football League was formed last Saturday morning at Westgate Park, under the wing of the Lions and Dennis McDonald, West High quarterback of 1957. The sponsors hope to select four teams of 20 players each, all between 9 and 12 years old. Here, Ed Eberhard, 2725 St. Joseph-av, chairman of the Lions boys and girls committee, signs up, left to right, Rico Skelton, 36 Powhatan-av, Bobby Minnix, 840 S. Rayo-av, and Timmy Weigand, 2923 Crescent-dr. About 30 more boys are needed. Registrations will continue at the park next Saturday morning. Boys must furnish their own helmets and pads . . . Lions are financing the rest.

LINDBERG PARENTS

School that must accommodate those living in Georgian Heights, Linbergh boundaries were extended to include the eastern portion of Binns district.

Most affected by problems of distance and unfinished streets are those youngsters living on Racine, western boundary of the school district.

Parents Protest Route

In addition to a longer walk to school than they had when included in the Binns district, parents' chief complaint is the condition of Symington-av, scene of extensive construction. Parents protest the mounds of dirt in the street, and resultant mud after heavy rains.

School board officials, making every effort to provide a safe passage for [illegible] provided a path from Symington, last paved street, to the school. Plans call for paving of Spoats later this year, as well as Eureka.

Francis Rudy, executive assistant to the superintendent, in sympathy with parents' concern, travelled the distance from 1084 Racine, last house at the end of the street, to the school and found the route to be eight-tenths of a mile, "not an unreasonable distance."

Explaining the need of transferring the street from Binns to Lindbergh district, Rudy said, "Binns must serve the area north and west because there is no other school. Although opened only last fall Binns, with a rated capacity of 825, already has 983 students enrolled."

ERA OF TROLLEYS ON SULLIVANT PASSES

AFTER SERVING 23 YEARS, trolley lines on Sullivant-av, and in the West Side's ball park loop have been taken down. This crew, directed by Louis Luzader, 445 Wrexham-av, and another under Joseph Garrett, snipped off and rolled up 21 miles of lines and 57,325 feet of copper power feeder cable. The changeover to diesel buses was dictated by expressway construction in the Sullivant-Sandusky-st area. George L. Green, superintendent of trolleys, said 326 poles are being abandoned along the routes. All those, excepting a few needed by other utilities, will be removed by Nov. 15, said Green. He recalled that a large community celebration was held early in June 1935 when the trolleys were installed. A parade of buses was held at Hague and Sullivant-ave.

Church Of Savior To Dedicate Chancel

Dr. Floyd Faust

Dr. Floyd Faust, pastor of Broad Street Christian Church, will be guest minister at the dedication of the new sanctuary of Church of the Savior, 1074 W. Broad-st, Sunday, Sept. 21.

Service will begin at 8 p.m.

Rev. A. W. Witherspoon, pastor, announced that decision to rebuild the sanctuary was made less than one year ago.

The congregation had made plans to build a new church building on N. Hague-av at Fisher-rd, but it was learned that the building site would probably be taken for the new Western Freeway. Facing a long delay in building, the congregation decided upon the present course of remodelling the sanctuary.

Architects Wright and Gilfillen guided the group in building plans.

Chancel was rebuilt and completely refurnished, with a new altar, dossal curtain, communion rail, and pulpit. New lights were installed, new floor laid, pews refinished, new carpets laid, and draperies hung.

Members of the congregation redecorated the room. Several artists, members of the group, planned the decorations.

Rev. A. W. Witherspoon has been pastor of the local congregation for 11 years, succeeding his father, who was pastor for 30 years before him.

Hunters Put Bead On More 'Bushytails' Than Expected

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROD COCHRAN

In the week and a half since the opening of squirrel season in Zone I, I have had a chance to talk to several hunters who took advantage of the early season.

Success differed widely as it often does. Randy Guthrie, 194 Kerr-dr, Hilliards, shot four squirrels the first Saturday in Coshocton County without too much trouble. They were fox squirrels, and according to Randy were big ones. He said a couple of them looked like small dogs.

Bob Bogard, S. Center-st, West Jefferson, didn't see a squirrel on the same day in Ross County.

The early season in Southern and Eastern Ohio was established to give hunters greater opportunity to hunt gray squirrels in the more forested region of the state. Hunting the heavily wooded hill country is tougher, and this section does not receive heavy hunting pressure. Also, gray squirrels are more wary and can stand a longer hunting season — hence the early opening.

Fox Squirrels Are Stable

As nearly as I can determine squirrel hunting in Zone II (the remainder of the state that was opened last Monday) has been good. Fox squirrels live in the small woodlots and field borders of the flatter lands in Ohio, and their population does not vary as much as gray squirrels. Only a very poor nesting season makes the fox squirrel season decline noticeably. Even a nut and acorn failure has little effect because cornfields are usually available nearby for fox squirrels.

Actually, the hunting in Zone I is better than first predicted. Before the season came in Sept. 5, the Division of Wildlife was warning hunters that gray squirrels might be down this year. This seems to be true in many areas, but what the state biologists hadn't counted on was good numbers of fox squirrels in the hill country. These big orange rascals filled out hunter's bags during early season hunting, and they're still doing it.

It seems strange to me that hunters don't go after squirrels throughout the open season. But more than any other type of hunting, squirrel hunters go out the first day and the first Saturday and then bide their time until the rabbit and pheasant season. Squirrel hunting is one of my favorites, and I enjoy it whenever I can until the season closes. That date this year is Nov. 1.

Is "Pioneer" Sport

In my mind, at least, squirrel hunting is more closely associated with pioneers, Indian scouts, and early settlers than is any other type of hunting. With their long, heavy "Kentucky" and "Pennsylvania" rifles our ancestors learned how to shoot by collecting a mess of squirrels for breakfast. Every frontier lad learned marksmanship and woodcraft in a squirrel woods. These accomplishments stood him in good stead — they provided food and clothing, and they turned the British soldiers.

So it is with a great deal of respect for the American heritage of hunting and bearing arms that I get out of bed at 4 a.m., bolt a hurried breakfast, and head through the darkness for a squirrel woods. Once in the woods you enjoy the quiet of another planet—for a while. Then you hear and watch the birds wake up; secretive thrushes and diminutive warblers.

With the dawn a breeze stirs through the trees. Finally a squirrel tells the world what he thinks with his staccato bark, and starts to rustle and thresh around in the leaves of a shagbark hickory. It is then that you see Ohio country as it was when the Indians paddled like silent shadows through the forest. You can see what our forbearers saw when they came in their creaking wagons from the eastern mountains.

Virtually everything else has been changed by civilization. But when you stalk a gray squirrel cutting in a huge hickory-nut tree, time stands still. This is why squirrel hunting will always be one of my favorites.

South Side Entitled To Council Post!

A vacancy exists in Columbus City Council. Apparently the matter of selection of a man or woman to fill the position rests on the shoulders of the six remaining councilmen.

Three of these men are Democrats; three are Republicans. At this point it appears possible that a deadlock may develop in which neither side will give in and the result will be a six man council for quite some time.

The Spectator By C.C. Hartley

Any such deadlock that might exist for any period of time will certainly result in an extended period of bickering and resultant ill feeling in the future courses of city legislation.

The fact that there is a three to three tie in council at present makes it possible for both sides to stand pat and claim they should have the post to be filled.

While the Republicans are claiming they are entitled to something in city hall because the Democrats have most of the patronage at present it is hardly to be expected that the Democrats will turn around and give them anything. If the situation were reversed the Republicans would hold on just as tenaciously.

It is hoped that the situation doesn't turn into a two ring circus. It is far better that a capable man be selected for the post and that council get down the multitude of chores at hand.

In view of the present distribution of representation in city council it seems to make good sense that the appointment of the next councilman be from the very large South-East.

A popular choice would be William Hoermle, South Side appliance dealer. He is a long time business man and a civic leader. He would work for the best interests of the city. We believe both Republican and Democatic voters would generally approve of his selection.

We believe Hoermle could be counted on to weigh council matters seriously and vote for those things that are for the greatest good for all the people. He is capable of thinking for himself and would vote accordingly.

It is hoped the members of both parties in council will see fit to resolve this mater in an amicable way. In doing so they should recall that they were not elected to their posts because they were stamped with any particular party label. We believe Columbus will continue to elect officials this way.

A Tribute To Men Of Vision

If you mingled with the thousands who attended the dedication of the new municipal airport terminal on Sunday you were no doubt thrilled to see the fine facility that will serve this progressive community for many years.

If you have not yet visited the new airport and terminal you should avail yourself of an early opportunity to do so. Columbus and surrounding communities has perhaps the finest such terminal in the country.

"Where there is no vision the people perish."

This terminal is testimony to the vision of such farsighted men as the late Edgar T. Wolfe and others who saw the needs of our times far enough in advance to get action that will result in services and will extend far into the future for millions.

This completed servicable structure is a fitting memorial to their vision.

Prizes Ready For Winners Of Hartley Fishing Contest

The smoke has cleared away in the giant Hartley newspaper Fishing Contest.

There are a number of observations that we have gleaned from the contest. First, there were some really big fish caught at Madison Lake this year. The winner in the bass division was a 19-inch, four pound smallmouth—a real trophy from any fishing waters in the country. Many anglers fish a lifetime and never even see a four pound smallmouth.

The winning crappie was a 15-incher, weighing one pound, eight ounces. The catfish that brought home the bacon was 24½ inches long, and weighed almost seven pounds.

Men Have Competition

A second fact is that the women and youngsters held their own in the contest. There are several female winners, and two

State Highway Office May Centralize Here

Two state highway department buildings, ready to go up on the east extreme of State Hospital grounds, may some day be joined by a huge administrative building. The department is expected to ask the Capital Planning and Improvement Board to approve a building "designed around highway needs" which would pull together bits and pieces of the department now spread out all over the city.

This centralization is already begining here with the start of a garage to replace one at 368 W. Goodale-st and a testing laboratory to be moved from the OSU campus. Later a sign shop may be added.

The administrative building is still several years away. Speculation is that the project would be in the state planning board's 1960-1965 Capital Plan.

Highway department spokesmen said that present facilities are far from good for efficiency. Messenger service alone around town is costly. Some sections are housed in the old School for the Blind on E. Town-st, and other offices on S. High-st, E. Gay-st, 17th-av, and W. Woodruff-av.

About two floors of the State Office Building are occupied by department personnel.

"We need a building designed to handle 40-foot blueprints, scores of drafting boards, and with floors strong enough to hold tons of heavy electronic computing machines," an official said.

Approximately 1400 people are working at the E. Town-st location . . . and about 130 with the interstate projects group are in the old turnpike offices on E. Gay-st. These, along with others from the S. High bookkeeping and records section would be under one roof of the W. Broad-st building is approved.

Nearby land to the south of Broad-st at Central-av is still being strongly considered as a good site for a new $15 million state office building. The State Office Building Commission gathered space requirements data last week and has turned it over for study by the architects. Final selection of a site may not come until spring, planners said.

'59 Recreation Budget May Give Local Areas Priority

Work on Hilltop Community Center tops the list of 1959 projects soon to be submitted by the Columbus Park Commission for consideration as part of city's 1959 budget.

The projected improvements on Valleyview-dr, involving an expenditure of $21,760, would include remodeling of the barn at the northwest corner of the site for recreation use; construction of two baseball diamonds; preparation of a parking area measuring 360 by 130 feet; and the grading and seeding of ten acres.

Hilltonia would come in for its share of the 1959 improvements, too. There, $4,300 would be spent in constructing a shelter and the preparation of one diamond each for softball and baseball.

The park commission's 1959 suggestions will be submitted to city council within a month. W. Ralston Westlake, 3294 W. Broad-st, represents the council on the park commission.

Betterment League To Hear Speakers On Election Issues

Topics of vital interest to November voters will be discussed at meetings of the Hilltop Betterment League in the coming month.

Guest speaker Saturday, Sept. 27, will be William Garner, United Auto Workers representative, who will discuss proposed Right-to-Work laws. A film will be shown also.

Republican candidates for office have been invited to speak at the Oct. 4 session.

On Oct. 18, Democratic candidates are expected to appear.

All meetings will begin at 8 p.m. at the Masonic Hall, 226 S. Highland-av. Members and their friends are urged to attend, said Wilbert Pack, league publicity chairman.

Good Guessing Can Win Football Prizes

Football is in the air . . . and this year your interest in the pigskin pastime can be made a paying proposition if you are a regular reader of The Hilltop Record.

Both high school and college games will be listed.

All entries must be delivered to the office of Hartley Newspapers, 2465 W. Broad-st., before 12 noon Tuesday or postmarked no later than this time. Winners will be announced in the next issue of The Hilltop Record.

HE HAD A RUDE AWAKENING

. . . . AND SO DID THE W. L. McMULLENS of 2499 W. Broad-st at 7 a.m. last Sunday. After attending an all night meeting downtown, Ernest E. Doulton, 26, thought he could stay awake until he got back home to Cincinnati. He got as far as the Hilltop before he dozed at the wheel and veered across the street. Striking the curb he awoke and apparently panicked on the accelerator instead of the brake. The car cut grooves across Dr. Raymond Miller's lawn, skidded across McMullen's flowers and two nice maples, tore up an iron railing, chipped up the sturdy 75-year-old native stone steps and jarred a concrete and brick pillar. Doulton was booked for crossing the center line, witnesses told.

Retirement Values

A prominent industrialist has reached the age of retirement. Now, it is reported, he intends to spend his time catching up on his hunting, and on watching football and baseball. That is his privilege, certainly. After spending long years at work, a man has the right to do what he pleases during the rest of his life.

Yet there is something rather disturbing about the idea that a man who has been a leader in the business community can think of nothing better to do with his remaining years than to indulge in sports and games. To say it is less a personal criticism than it is a criticism of the social values that man make such as attitude not only possible, but common.

There is nothing wrong with catching up on hunting and baseball. But is it intellectual snobbery to suggest that it might also be rewarding to spend some of those retirement hours at catching up on Shakespeare, or listening to the great music that is a part of our cultural heritage, or reading the political philosophy of Thomas Jefferson?

If some retiring executive were to tell interviewers that he intended to spend some of his leisure time at such pursuits, that might be a sign that we were reaching maturity. The implication is not that hunting and football games—or, for that matter, golfing or speedboating or other such pleasures of retirement—are signs of immaturity.

Recreation is valuable, and eminently justified. But there are values and rewards, also, in things of the mind and spirit. These, too, should play their enriching part when a man has put aside the harness of daily work.

Since scientists of Communist and democratic countries seem to hit it off harmoniously, it has been suggested that they be allowed to run the governments. But then who would invent new bombs and other weapons?

HOMELESS HECTOR

The owner of the house answering the bell to find a friend whom he hadn't seen for some time was at the door along with a large shaggy and rather muddy dog. Inviting them in they sat in the living room and talked about old times. The dog, after sniffing around finally hopped on the couch and settled down for a nap much to the host's dismay.

Finally the guest rose to leave. "Aren't you forgetting your dog?" said the host.

"That's not my dog," said the guest. "I thought he was yours."—The Gilcrafter.

SURPRISE VISIT

The father, passing through his son's college town late one evening thought he would pay his son a surprise visit. Arriving at the son's fraternity house he rapped on the door but was unable to rouse anybody. Then from a second floor window came a sleepy voice.

"Whaddyah want?"

"Does Steve Jones live here," said the father.

"Yeah," replied the voice. "Bring him in."

"No," said the waiter, "If you want synonyms I can give you a bun."—American Legion Magazine.

Bible Comment:

Joseph Wished Only To Forgive His Brothers

Among the great figures that stand out in history is Joseph. We first see him as a gentle and rather naive lad, somewhat in danger of being spoiled by the favoritism of his father.

He is well-intentioned, guileless and unaware of the great hatred that his brothers have for him which so quickly changes the easy circumstances of his life. But when tragedy strikes him, Joseph shows the spirit that is in him. He is not crushed by misfortune and shows himself capable of standing trial.

He is honest and industrious and earns himself a position of honor and trust. Then comes the crucial time in which not only his personal honor but also his position are endangered. Here, again, he stands the test, though it means prison and degrada-

Elevation and greater honor than before follows. Due to his foresight, there is plentiful food in Egypt while surrounding countries starve. Joseph is able to keep his father and family alive.

Later, Joseph has his brothers entirely in his power, able to inflict any punishment on them he chooses. But all along he has no other purpose than that of forgiving.

It was permissible to take the unique way he did of bringing home to his brothers their own sin and the fullness of their forgiveness.

He was testing them, too. There was another brother at home, the apple of Jacob's eye. Would the brothers be jealous of him? Did they hate him. Would they try to sacrifice him?

Their attitude entirely changes in the grand climax to one of the greatest stories in all literature.

Some bosses want to hire men under 30 with 40 years of experience.

Vivian Leigh, I said, I saw her in "Guys and Dolls."

No, you didn't, I was told, you saw Vivian Blaine.

Funny, I thought the singer was named Leigh, pronounced Lee.

The Lee pronounced Lee is Peggy Lee, and she is a singer.

I thought that was Patti Page.

No, now listen to Janet Blair and stop confusing us.

Is this the Janet Blair who may marry a Brazilian in Rio?

No, that's Sallie Blair.

How do you keep track of all these things?

It's easy, the same way you can tell the difference between Kirk Douglas and Paul Douglas and Lewis Douglas and Lloyd Douglas.

So I went back to spinning my hula hoop.

As Other Editors See It

Confusion, Anybody?

If you are not hep nowadays, you are pretty much of a square.

We were watching the Chevy show. A girl named Janet Blair was singing.

Janet Blair, I said, isn't she the one who's in "The Vikings?"

No, I was told, that's Janet Leigh.

Oh, Janet Leigh, I said, I thought the movie actress was Vivien Leigh.

No, Vivien Leigh is a British actress. She was in "Gone with the Wind" with Clark Gable.

For the time of your life!

GEORGE WASHINGTON'S BURNING SPRING MULTIPLIED BY MILLIONS!

ON THE BANKS OF THE KANAWHA RIVER, SEVERAL MILES ABOVE THE PRESENT CITY OF CHARLESTON, WEST VIRGINIA, THERE WAS, IN REVOLUTIONARY TIMES, THE STRANGE PHENOMENON OF A NATURAL GAS "BURNING SPRING." GEORGE WASHINGTON OWNED THE LAND, AND DESCRIBED THE "SPRING" IN HIS WILL. THIS APPALACHIAN AREA LATER BECAME THE FIRST GREAT NATURAL GAS PRODUCING REGION.

WHAT WAS ONCE A NOVELTY IS NOW AN IMPORTANT ASSET TO THOSE OF US WHO LIVE AND WORK HERE IN AMERICA'S ORIGINAL NATURAL GASLAND — THE SEVEN-STATE REGION WHERE COLUMBIA GAS SYSTEM SERVES. ONE-FIFTH OF ALL THE NATURAL GAS CONSUMED IN THE UNITED STATES IS USED IN THIS AREA ... DELIVERED TO YOU AT RATES THAT ARE AMONG THE LOWEST IN THE COUNTRY. NO WONDER NATURAL GAS CONTINUES TO BE, MORE THAN EVER, THE PREFERRED FUEL FOR HOME AND INDUSTRY.

School Board 'Lifts The Lid' On Hilltonia Jr. High

Modern School Features Newest Training Facilities

Hilltonia Junior High School will be dedicated "to the purpose of providing its seventh, eighth and ninth grade students with the best program of training and instruction modern educators can devise," on Sunday, Sept. 28, 2:30 p.m.

Board of education representatives, principal and faculty members of the school, and Hilltonia students will participate in the event. The public is invited.

Built to absorb the impact of post World War II birth rates, the school was planned to accept the first big "crop" of babies born in 1946 and now in the seventh grade.

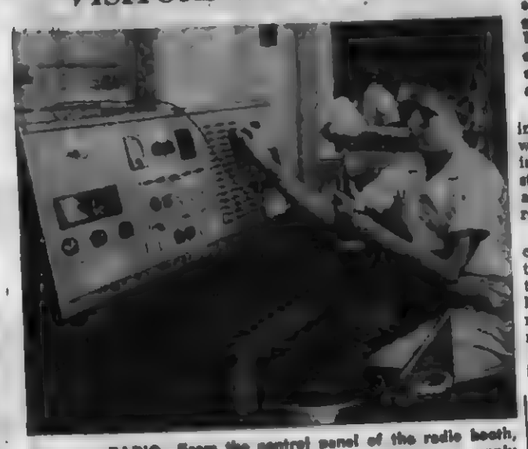
Now in its first year as a full - fledged junior high school housing all grades, Hilltonia opened Nov. 12, 1956, to seventh graders only and, during the 1957-58 school year housed seventh and eighth grade students.

The brick, $1,271,943.76 building is designed in an L-shape, with a two-story portion housing most of the rooms and one-story wing including industrial arts, home economics and art rooms.

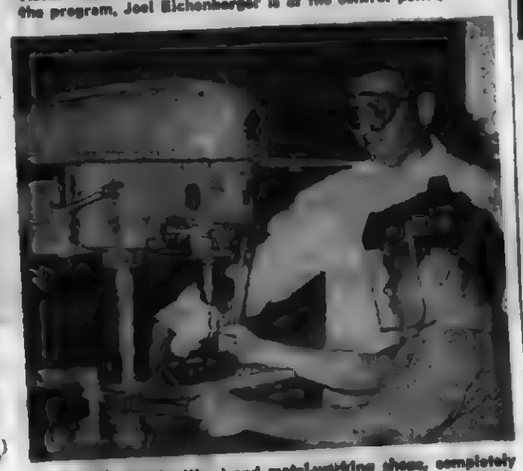
In addition to 11 standard classrooms, the building facilities include three science rooms, three industrial arts rooms, two home economics rooms, art room, typing room, double gymnasium, cafeteria, library, health clinic and administrative offices.

Modern design of the school features such innovations as mobile desks, permitting easy grouping for study units; use of pleasing colors and interior brick walls throughout the building, gyms with fold-up bleacher seats; wash bowls in all self-contained classrooms and pottery kilns in the art department.

The two home economic rooms, a departure from the old method of separating different subjects of the course, are each furnished with refrigerator-freezer, gas and electric ranges, built-in sink units, washer, dryer, ironer and sewing machines.



DENTAL HOSTS . . . L. H. McAllister, principal and Miss Jane Roemer, vice-principal, will proudly present features of the new Hilltonia Junior High School to the public at the building's dedication Sunday, Sept. 28, 2:30 p.m.



SCHOOL CAFETERIA EFFICIENTLY SERVES 500 meals each day to students and faculty. Latest in food-preparation equipment, trained personnel and student checkers and cashiers speed the process. The adjoining lunchroom seats 200, and lunchtime covers two periods.

VISITORS WILL SEE . . .

. . . RADIO—From the control panel of the radio booth, adjoining the dramatics room, a student operator may supply recordings, radio programs or original presentations to any one or to all of the school's classrooms. Albert Post, audio-visual education teacher and L. R. McAllister, principal, direct the program. Joel Eichenberger is at the control panel.

. . . SHOP—Wood and metal-working shops, completely equipped from pressed wood block floors to every conceivable tool and machine necessary for instruction, offer interested boys basic knowledge in industrial arts. Fred Ricketts, instructor, introduces Dick Greezinger to a drill press.

. . . BAND—Dan New, left and Jimmy Rae blow with a will on sousaphones under the critical eye, and ear of teacher, Robert Hicks. One of two music rooms in the school, the room features separate, sound-proofed practice booths.

Dr. H. Ebling, Paul R. Langdon To Give Address

Dr. Harold H. Ebling, superintendent of Columbus Schools and Paul Langdon, president of the school board will speak at Hilltonia's dedication program Sunday.

Hilltonia's band, conducted by Robert Hicks, and the school choir, under the direction of Robert Johnson will present a program of music.

Invited platform guests are assistant superintendents of school, C. L. Dumaree, S. L. Gingery, W. W. Miller and I. F. Young; school architect David Schackne; contractor, Morris Skilken; Hilltonia's architect, Dan Carmichael; PTA president, Mrs. George Meadley; president of Hilltop Business Association, Mrs. Hazel Roberts.

Rev. Harris B. Anthony, pastor of Warren Avenue Nazarene Church will give the invocation, and Rev. Irvin Lane, pastor of Burgess Avenue Evangelical United Brethren, the benediction. Both have children enrolled at Hilltonia.

The building will be open for public inspection following the program.

Fishing Contest—

brothers, [illegible] and Lonnie Ferguson, walked off with a first and second. There were other youthful winners. All this goes to prove that fishing really is a family sport—outdoor recreation that everyone can enjoy.

Another important point—we were swamped with entries. We expected a lot of fishermen to enter their fish, but the response was really tremendous. It substantiates a theory we've had all along, that there are many fishermen here in the Columbus area who enjoy the outdoors and who really catch fish.

We want to thank Carner's Boat Dock, the sportsman's headquarters at Madison Lake for being the weighing station for the Hartley Fishing Contest. Also, a vote of thanks goes to the tackle manufacturers who made this contest possible—the only fishing contest covering the entire fishing season held in central Ohio.

The prize winners have already found out that these manufacturers make the best fishing tackle to be found anywhere.

Let's talk about

YOUR WIFE

You and your wife want the best out of life. But you also want to put a little something away for emergencies and for the future. And what better way of systematic saving than through the medium of life insurance? Through life insurance, your wife's standard of living can be maintained if you should die prematurely; through life insurance, your retirement years can be financially secure if you survive. And the accumulation of dividends over the years increases the attractiveness of life insurance as an investment for the living.

I'm sure I can be of service. Why not give me a call? You will be under no obligation.

West Seeks Change Of Luck

Trek To Eastmoor Friday; It's Their Homecoming . . .

This Friday night West travels to Eastmoor, another of their Preview foes (fought to a scoreless tie) and a team of about the caliber of Linden McKinley.

Possessed of few or no stars (except one outstanding tackle and only, fair speed, they do use the pass quite effectively.

This is Eastmoor's first home game of the year and their homecoming . . . a good crowd out there could help change the Cowboys' luck! Eastmoor's record so far is one loss and one tie.

To get there, go out E. Broad to the 3500 block, turn right onto Weyant-av, and go south about a half-mile.

Cowboys Are 'Unhorsed' In First Home Contest

By Bob Wilcox

West lost a ball game last Friday night, 27-15, to Linden-McKinley . . . but a loss more inflicted by West's own poor play at times rather than McKinley being a far superior team.

A tight game for three periods . . . after West had had come from behind to take a lead that they held going into the final period. Then McKinley broke the contest wide open . . . or more appropriately, a fellow by the name of Steve Bennett did the "opening" . . . in the last frame, scoring thrice to win.

The Cowboys were hurt on two "frosts" . . . one, by their sloppy play at times . . . more specifically on defense and particularly their tackling. The second was their losses inflicted via the penalty route. Some helped the Panthers keep their offense rolling at times, while others nullified West's offensive gains.

West was penalized 7 times for 65 yards, while Linden had six for 60 yards. However two of theirs were offsides on kickoffs which weren't too damaging. West was also called for pass interference which isn't included in the above figures. The Cowboys "wrongs" ran the gauntlet . . . from too many men on the field, too long in huddle, clipping, improper block (the new ruling), off side and winding up with intentional grounding of the ball called on Don Uldricks on an attempted pass. Linden racked up the only personal foul calls.

West was also hurt on a third front last week, but not one new to Coach Schmitter this season. In practice last Tuesday while throwing a block and landing on his arm wrong, the Cowboys lost the services of their very fine end and co-captain, Ray Herkey. On Wednesday the three-year veteran couldn't use the arm. Doctors found a hairline vertical break. He'll be lost anywhere from four to six weeks at least.

Incidentally, several people have asked "how come" I said that Jerry Spears would be out three or four weeks and then "boom" at Springfield he was in the lineup. It was one of those "medical miracles" coaches pray for . . . therapy at OSU did it.

Now for West's other "hurt" . . . and one that could prove very disastrous if continued too far into the season. Several times West men had Linden men trapped in the backfield and let them get away for gains. This was also true past the line of scrimmage . . . particularly on runs such as Bennett's. His last run saw three Cowboys lay hands on him . . . but not stop him. Then there were a couple of cases of block tackling tried right in front of this reporter. This is not only frowned on by coaches, but can prove disastrous . . . and it did. It led to Linden's 19-yard jaunt for a score.

In general West's pass defense . . . falling down only once, but a big one . . . was good. The lapse resulted in Linden's first score.

West started off like a "house afire" in the first quarter, especially through the right side where Tom Myers and Jim Carter were opening deep in their own backfield . . . one by Dave Francis, who seldom misses. Carter did jar Mitchell with one tackle that made the latter fumble, but he managed to recover his own bobble.

Bill Smith took the kickoff and after a juggling act that took him four yards deeper he finally returned it for 15 yards. Given no protection on a pass attempt, Uldricks was smeared and West had to punt.

Eventually Linden had to kick also, but this one was beautifully blocked by Myers and Sarter recovered on the Linden 23. Eight plays later Francis went to the final yard up the middle to score. Uldrick's southpaw kick was good and West led, 7-6.

Linden went to the air unsuccessfully. Rick Baker almost intercepted one in the left flat (and he might have gone all the way), but his knee got in the way. They did complete one screen pass for 6 just before the half. Eleven plays after West had taken the second half kickoff, they had scored again.

While Francis had pulled a "Bob White" (OSU's) in the first TD drive, belting over all comers as a one-man offense, this time he shared the running mostly with Uldricks on quarterback keepers and options. Francis went the final five and added the extra 2 points over tackle.

Then McKinley broke loose: first Bennett on 67-yard jaunt over right tackle, then cut diagonally cross field . . . Dave Morris had the last futile shot at him as he was in the clear from his 30 on. Jerry Hummel grabbed Dick Caroll's arm so he couldn't get his pitchout off and thwarted their extra-point try. Then came Bennett's 19 yarder on a smooth right end reverse and he had the two extra points.

West lost the ball as Uldrick's arm was hit as he pitched out and the Panthers recovered. Not satisfied at the score, yet, Bennett took off over right guard, cut left and scampered 40 yards for the final score with 55 seconds showing on the clock. John Rife's kick was good.

Along with my "panning" of certain phases of the game, I also saw much to praise . . . most of which has already been mentioned. The bull-like running of Francis was outstanding; the running and hand-offs of Uldricks; and the exceptionally fine line work of Myers and Carter. Spears made one nice tackle . . . it was high, but powerful enough to "blast-down."

Central Sets League Start With South

Central will begin action with their first local game of the season on Friday at the opponent's stadium. This league game with South appears to be the roughest on the Pirate's card. Last year Central found itself on the short end of a 38-6 score with South.

The Pirate line-up will be almost back to normal. Eleven Pirates have been on the injured list since the start.

Still ailing are Ron Moore with a broken leg, Steve Morlan with a broken wrist and Charles McCarglish with a slight shoulder separation.

Last week the Pirates had no scheduled game due to a teachers' meeting and rested after the Steubenville clash.

Food Markets This Week

by Mrs. Estelle B. Franks

Fruits—grapes, apples, bananas.

Vegetables—sweet corn, cabbage, potatoes, squash, eggplant, cello-packed greens.

Proteins—ground beef, rib and pork roast, poultry, frozen ocean perch, small eggs.

GRAPES ARE RIPE

Autumn is grape time in Ohio. Cool, crisp weather and sweet, juicy grapes seem to go together. Ohio produces close to 15,000 tons of grapes in a normal season. This year the crop is expected to total nearly 18,000 tons. The quality is reported to be excellent.

Grapes grown in this state are best known for their use in juice, jams and jellies, and wine. However, Ohio grapes are also well known as table grapes. The important varieties, are Concord, Niagara, Catawba and Delaware. Concord accounts for about 70 percent of the state's total grape production.

Concord is a favorite for juice, jam and jelly. These handsome blue bunches may also grace your breakfast or dinner table and are favorites to eat for snacks. Local orchards have started picking and are running tests for sugar content. When the grapes reach their peak of sweetness, many go into grapejuice — probably the last week of September. That's a good time to buy your grapes for making juice at home or for jelly, as well as for eating fresh.

Niagara is the standard white or green-white Ohio grape. Catawba is a red grape especially well suited for juice and wine. It is grown mostly in the Lake Erie region. Delaware is a light red grape of good keeping quality and a favorite for table use. Wine makers also like the Delaware.

When buying grapes—look for well formed bunches with plump, fresh looking mature berries, bright in color, and firmly attached to their stems. High color for the variety indicates good sugar content and flavor. Grapes do not ripen after they are picked. They are a highly perishable fruit—buy in small quantities, and use quickly.

APPLE HARVEST

Harvest of the fall apple crop is under way in Ohio. Cortlands and McIntosh are plentiful. Other varieties are appearing as the season advances. This year's crop promises to be one with good supplies and high quality.

LAUNDRY UNIT SIMPLIFIED

A PROGRAM CENTER that quickly gives the user simple "two-dial" instruction keynotes the trend to simplicity started in the new Westinghouse combination washer and dryer produced locally. Once these settings are made the unit, called the "Cosmopolitan," will operate completely automatically—even to figuring washing and spin time and washing and rinsing temperatures.

Three Agents Attend Nationwide Program

Three area representatives of Nationwide Insurance attended the Training Program conducted by the company last week at the Fort Hayes Hotel.

They were W. Leon Ramage, 158 Haldy-av, Columbus; David W. Rader, 18 W. Main-st, Hilliards; and Jack Quinn, 155 School House-ln, Lincoln Village.

The program was designed to help the men render better service to their policyholders.

TV Artist Teaches Drawing By Using Four Basic Forms

Jon Gnagy, who believes in the artist in everyone, backs up his convictions with the zeal of an evangelist by proving that you can draw anything by using the four basic forms: the cube, ball, cone and cylinder.

The phenomenal success of his televised art lessons for the past 11 years indicates a significant truth in his premise that "Everyone is an artist."

Besides the hundreds of thousands of followers who pick up a pencil and draw with him, he has to his credit millions of viewers who have gained an appreciation of art never before known in history.

His program will debut on WLW-C, Channel 4, Sept. 21 at 10 a.m.

Although most of Gnagy's present television programs are kept on a level of "how to do" methods, he exhibits a rare ability as a teacher when given the opportunity.

The circumstances that have peculiarly fitted him to become everyman's art teacher is a typical American story. Jon Gnagy, the evangelist of art, was born at Pretty Prairie, Kansas, some 45 years ago and began his career at the age of 11. At 17 he left the plains for Tulsa, Okla.; became art director of an advertising agency, married at 20 and moved to Wichita, Kan., to design airplanes. From there he went to Kansas City to study and work a year before moving to New York with his family. In 1937 he went to Philadelphia where during the next 12 years he became known as the art director who smoked art all night.

As a result of his research in the field of color vision he was chosen by the War Service Committee to teach camouflage techniques at the Franklin Institute and coordinate war art activities.

All this experience in visual education prepared Jon for a new role yet to come. Early in 1946 as the postwar television industry began to stir, NBC snapped up Gnagy's show. When television opened its eyes on May 13, 1946, he was on the first regularly scheduled program. He has been on regularly ever since. Standing at his drawing board, he guides the viewers pencil with step-by-step directions from the first line to the finished picture.

Thread, Pigment Art On Display At Local Library

Paintings by Thomas MacMillan, 4037 Sexton-dr, and stitcheries by Mary Evelyn Lakin, 436 Murray Hill-rd, are on exhibit at the Hilltop Branch Library through Oct. 24.

MacMillan has lived in this country only six years. He came here from Scotland in 1952. He had studied art in night school in his native land. Then in 1953 he attended classes at the Columbus Art School. His paintings are mostly water colors, many of them depicting scenes from his experience in the Merchant Marine. He is presently employed as a designer with the J. Leubart Machine Co.

Mrs. Lakin had workshop experience with Mariska Karasz in creative stitchery. Some of the work was exhibited in the Good Design Show, Miami University and the Akron Gallery. A tapestry and floss rug was woven at the Arts and Crafts Center under Twila Alber. Mrs. Lakin taught elementary art in Dayton, and art at Marion Franklin High School. She is employed part time at the Columbus Public Library.

THIS COMING SATURDAY . . .

It's 30th Birthday Of Hilltop Library

By Galvy Gordon

Thirty years ago this coming Saturday, Oct. 4, Hilltop Branch Library first opened its doors. On that date in 1928 three other neighborhood branches of the Columbus Public Library were opened simultaneously at 12:30 p. m. without fanfare in Clintonville, on the South Side and in Linden.

Libraries were nothing new to the Hilltop, which has since gained the reputation as the "readingest section of town" from the circulation statistics of the presentday Hilltop Library. For more than five years before that time, the Hilltop had its own library, supported mostly by funds raised in the community with band concerts and door-to-door canvassing.

However, when it became apparent that the City Council was going to heed the demand of taxpayers to appropriate funds for neighborhood branch libraries, the trustees of the Holmes Hilltop Library at 2393½ W. Broad-st, voted to close its doors.

City council appropriated $40,000 for the purpose of launching the first four branch libraries of Columbus Public Library, Jan. 1927, two weeks after PTA leaders and representatives of the Women's Club Federation marched in a "petition in boots" on City Hall.

Among the factors in the location of the first Hilltop Branch Library at 21 N. Hague-av, presently occupied by the Public Finance Corp., was the imminent opening of the new West High School. The location seemed almost ideal, at a crossroads of a rapidly growing community and just west of West Broad Street Elementary School. The building was constructed to library specifications and leased to the library board for the purspose. Construction began in April, 1928.

Hilltop Branch opened with some 2000 books, magazines and newspaper files. Yes, The Hilltop Record was included in the reading fare offered to the public.

The first librarian in charge was Miss Faith Wolfe, who left the library system some two years later to marry. Very nostalgic about the "good old days on the Hilltop," she is now Mrs. Lewis Eakin and lives on the London-Groveport-rd. Both she and her husband, a farmer, are active in local civic affairs.

One of the first assistants at the branch, Miss Mary Elizabeth Keyes, is currently chief librarian of the Hilltop Library, which moved to its library-built quarters at 2955 W. Broad-st in 1960.

A week after the 1928 opening, The Hilltop Record referred to the new library as "one of the busiest places on the Hilltop." And indeed it was. More than 500 children and adults visited the branch on the first day and similar numbers came daily for the next several weeks. More than 800 patrons obtained library cards in the first week.

Because of the enthusiastic support of the children and the limited hours of service—12:30 to 5:30 p.m. six days a week—adults were advised to come before 2 p.m. as a precautionary measure.

INJURED IN ACCIDENT

Jerry Hutchinson, 19, of 947 Whitethorne-av, was taken to Mt. Carmel Hospital by emergency squadmen for treatment of chest injuries after being involved in an auto accident at Eakin-rd at Chestershire-rd Tuesday night.

Has Five Hour Sellout

Moving soon? Classified ads produce fast results in Hartley Newspapers. Mrs. Ed Beeman, 603 S. Warren-av sold all her household furnishings and miscellaneous articles within five hours after the paper came out. Call the Classified Ad Department, BR. 4-1155, when you want to sell with little effort.

$105 IN AD TODAY

Still soaring upwards, value of the jackpot insignia has reached a whopping big $105 in today's newspaper.

Big enough to finance a really exciting shopping spree, jackpot "cash" could go a long way towards supplying the family with soon to be needed winter wardrobes

An additional ten $1 insignia, placed on ads in ten other copies of the newspaper, give ten more subscribers a chance to collect.

Copies containing lucky insignia may be exchanged at the Hartley Newspaper office, 2465 W. Broad-st, for "Confederate" money before Saturday noon of the week of publication

Advertisers appearing in the current issue of the newspaper will accept "Confederate" currency at face value in payment for any merchandise in their stores

Any subscriber whose name appears on our records as having paid in advance or on his carrier boy's route book as a paying customer is eligible to collect "Confederate" money.

Employes or carriers of the newspaper and members of their families are not eligible

Insignia are always placed in plain view on an ad; they are never hidden or hard to find.

Rites Today For Victim Of Drowning

Services for Thomas Carl Hoover, seven-year-old drowning victim, were to be held Wednesday, 1 p.m. at Gift Street Lutheran Church.

The child slipped into a deep water-filled construction pit near Scott and Sandusky-sts Sunday, while playing.

Firemen retrieved his body and applied artifical respiration for nearly an hour until Dr. R. B. Larrick pronounced him dead at 4:47 p.m.

The victim's brother, Mark, six and a companion, William Simons, eight of 7 N. Green-st, told police the three were playing at the site when Thomas fell in

The pit, part of the expressway project, lies about 100 feet south of Scott-st where Sandusky-st is being channeled under W. Broad-st.

A spokesman for the Visintine Co., contractors for the project, said, "The project isn't one small area: it's several blocks long and watchmen cannot cover it completely."

Fred Dolfinger, 360 Midland av, watchman at the site, told police he was at Mound-st, lighting lanterns at a barricade when the drowning occured.

In addition to his brother, Thomas is survived by parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hoover; sisters, Patricia and Christine; brothers, Harry and Garry; maternal grandmother, Mrs. Frances Longberry; paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Hoover, all of Columbus.

Burial will be at Sunset by Heid Funeral Home.

Principal speaker will be Robert A. Haines, M.D., director of Mental Hygiene and Corrections. Mrs. Flo Brady, president of the chapter, headed the fund drive to finance the project.

A total of 266 employes representing 2225 years of service will receive pins for each five-year period.

Lowell O. Dillion, M.D., superintendent of the ho-pital will present the pins.

Central Student Wins Coveted 'Boy Of Year'

Wendell Littlefield, 14, sophomore student at Central High School was named "Boy Of The Year" at the annual banquet held last night at Milo-Grogan Boys' Club.

He was honored for leadership in baseball, basketball and craft programs.

Wendell is one of eight sons of Mr. and Mrs. Williard Littlefield of 455 W. Second-av.

INTERCHANGE WILL OPEN YEAR FROM NOW

PEERING INTO THE FUTURE, State Highway Department architects present this view of the Mound Street Interchange which is to be completed by Oct. 1959. The interchange is a little ahead of schedule at present, officials said. The new crossing will tie in heavy North-South freeway traffic (which will pass near Harrisburg and Grove City) with the southwest corner of the Columbus Innerbelt System. A new three-lane, one-way bridge over the river (just beyond right of picture) will carry direct traffic to downtown Columbus. The bridge is under construction and is slated for completion by Dec. 1959.

JUMP BEFORE EXPLOSION

Fire Victims Rescue False Teeth, Money

By Nancy Pendleton

William Brown is mighty glad he puts his false teeth in a plastic case overnight. The teeth and some money tucked into a plastic billfold were all that remained after a fire early Saturday morning turned his trailer home at Biddle Trailer Court, 71 Volney-av, into a charred ruins.

Mrs. Tom Siris, 67 Volney-av, with whom the Browns have been temporarily staying during the day, claims water from the firemen's hose got into the containers and the half melted plastic formed protective capsules for the articles.

Mrs. Brown and their 12-year-old daughter, Sue, were asleep and Mr. Brown was getting ready for bed in the back when dense smoke began filling the trailer. After groping about blindly for each other they all jumped out. And, just in time—seconds later, at 1:30 a.m., the trailer caught on fire with an explosion that blew out the windows.

Mr. and Mrs. Siris, rushed to the scene and supplied the rain-soaked Browns with dry clothes. The Browns didn't have time to grab any clothes, only a blanket and sheet in which to drape themselves.

According to Mrs. Siris, it must have been her intuition that made her insist that the the Browns not return to the ruins later in order to "save something." For, as they were all sitting in her living room looking out the front window at 4 a.m., another blaze flared up and she had to call the fire department again.

The Browns have been sleeping at another trailer court temporarily. Sue has been staying at a girl friend's house a few doors down.

The Browns came to Columbus only two months ago. He is a brick mason and took a three year job here. They paid cash for their trailer to save paying rent and were just in the process of getting insurance on it. They own a home in Springfield.

The family has obtained a new trailer, to be delivered Thursday, and will move back to their old number.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Siris has requested that if anyone has clothes, lady's size 24, girl's size 32 or 14, and man's work clothes, waist 30, that they be sent to her address, 67 Volney-av.

Westmoor Tunnel Contract Is Awarded

A Zanesville contractor, the W. J. Heck Co., underbid a Columbus firm by $72 and Tuesday afternoon won the contract to install a pedestrian tunnel under the railroad just south of new Westmoor Jr. High School.

The contract was let for $20,628, by City Service Director Floyd Redick. On July 28 he was authorized by city council to accept the best bid under $30,000, to be financed 50-50 by the city and the Columbus Board of Education.

Other bidders (all Columbus firms) were: Complete General Construction Co., $20,700; J. R. Savage, $24,478; Fritz, Rumer, Cooke Co., $21,750, and C. C. Vogel, $42,000.

Carl Gibson of the City Parks and Forestry Department, designed the 124-foot tunnel to permit safe passage of children under the New York Central to Westmoor school. It will be built at the north end of Huron-av.

Gibson said the Heck firm will first build a pit in which to anchor jacking equipment. Railroad traffic will not be obstructed and bad weather should not prove troublesome, he said. Concrete tile 80 inches high must be cured 28 days before installation.

"While the Heck men work on one end city parks workers will do the finish work on the other," Gibson predicted," and we hope to get the job done before the school opens Feb 1

Pick Bucks To Win

Pigskin Prophets Get First Test On Friday

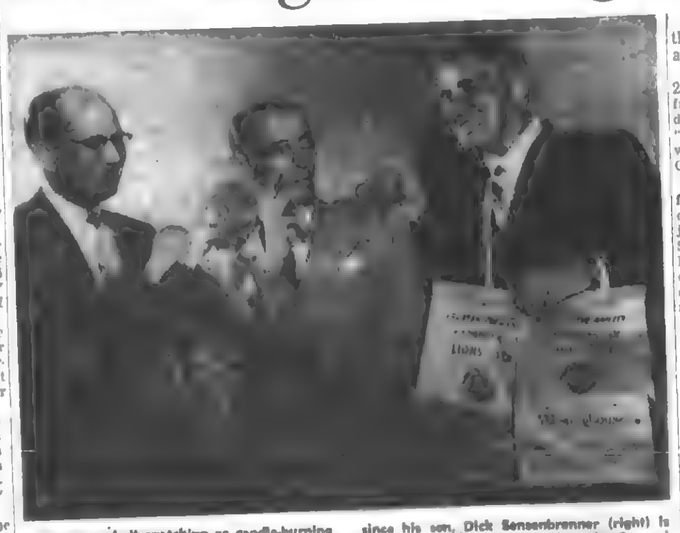
With a batch of "warm-up" predictions already under their belt, Record-News pigskin fans can bear down on picking the right selections in this week's big Football Guessing Contest.

The contest, explained in a full page advertisement inside the paper, gives subscribers a chance to try their hands at the sports writers' favorite chore—picking the winners.

The contest got underway last week with readers asked to select winners of contests to be played this Friday and Saturday. Prizes for the opening round are $10 in cash, a Shell lubrication and oil change from Williamson's Shell Station, Central and Broad, and a $5 merchandise order from Edwards Rexall Drugs, 3036 Sullivant-av. Winners will be announced next week.

Three prizes will continue to be awarded each week with the winner getting first choice. The second place winner will take the next choice with the third place finisher taking the remaining prize.

Prizes for winners of this week's contest are $10 in cash, $3 in merchandise from G&S. Variety Store and an oil change from Tunison's Sohio Station.



For what it's worth, a glance at this week's entries shows the following concensus on who will win games to be played Friday and Saturday:

Lions 'Light For Sight' Sale Starts Tonight

No more bulb-snatching or candle-burning for Mayor Jack Sensenbrenner. He was snared as the first customer in the fall "Light for Sight" lightbulb sale of the Hilltop Lions Club which started today. It was a family affair, too, since his son, Dick Sensenbrenner (right) is one of the co-chairmen of the sale. General Chairman John Garber, left, expressed confidence that the club would dispose of 22,000 bulbs in the next couple of weeks.

The Hilltop Lions will let their light shine— more than 15 million watts in all—when they launch their annual lightbulb sale on Wednesday, Oct. 1.

The above figure represents the wattage of the 22,280 individual lightbulbs the Lions plan to sell to friends and neighbors and door-to-door in their traditional "Light for Sight" sale, which will extend through Thursday, Oct. 16.

All profits are marked for sight conservation and other community welfare projects of the club, according to Sale Chairman John Garber Eye examinations for children, eye surgery, purchase of glasses for those unable to pay for needed visual corrections and general assistance to the blind of all ages are among the projects.

Each Lion will sell 30 sacks of bulbs. Every sack will contain, in the light of suggestions made by local householders last year, two 60-watt, five 75-watt and two 100-watt bulbs. Sacks will sell for $2 apiece, including tax.

Garber announced that John E. Jones, Bob Colegrove, Roger Dennison and Dick Sensenbrenner are serving as co-chairmen of the sale committee.

Sales team captains will include Don Rumley, Myers, Eddie Stratton, E. D. Kimball, Bill Steen, George Blackmore, Ed Eberhard, Jim Musick, Gerald Ferritto, Wayne Bruner Robert Myers, Don Novak, Bud Chamberlin, Jim Steger and Robert Phillips.

Captains will meet tonight at a storeroom loaned by the Great Western Shoppers' Mart Association to pick up the sacks of Westinghouse bulbs for distribution to the individual Lions

Each Lion will be on his own in selling until 6:30 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 16 At that time captains will assemble their teams for a mass canvass to sell any remaining bulbs. Only after all the bulbs are sold may the team members take part in a victory celebration

Max Shipley Bags Trophy Mountain Goat In Canad

Max Shipley 705 S. Ogden-av, noted taxidermist, has returned from an 11-day trophy hunt in the mountains British Columbia. The well-known Hilltop sportsman brou[illegible] back a mountain goat which he thinks will score well in t[illegible] world's records kept by the Boone and Crockett Club.

Shipley has hunted all over the country, and now his hobby is hunting trophy heads that will rank righ in the record books He passed up a shot at a moose this trip, because the antler spread was only about 27 inches. Max considered this animal too small, so he left him to grow a little.

The hunt was staged about 22 miles from Fernie B.C., and it took a day to pack in by horseback. For more details of this exciting hunt read Rod Cochran's column "Inside on the Outdoors" next week.

WON'T WORK—"Aw, shucks, we just can't make fruit cake and expect it to sell," Civitans of West Columbus agreed after an ignoble experiment in the kitchen of one of the members. Undaunted by their flop, the group turned to Claxton bakery, one of the oldest fruit cake bakers in the nation. The club will start its sales campaign Oct. 7. The would-be master bakers in the picture are, from left to right, Cliff Feyh, 211 Denhurst-rd, chairman of the public affairs committee; Glenn Eichenauer, 400 Yarmouth-ln, president; Ward Wheaton, 3288 Miriam-dr S., club director; and Hamlyn Benny, 354 Topsfield-rd, fruit cake sale chairman.

Four Tons of Fruit Cake to Challenge Sales Ability of Civitan Club Members

Members of the Civitan Club of West Columbus will take on a new avocation beginning Oct. 7—fruit cake salesman.

The date is that of the Club's fruit cake sale kick-off dinner at 6:30 p.m. in the Everglades Restaurant, and from then until Christmas, club members are hoping to sell some four tons of Claxton's Old Fashioned Fruit Cake.

Proceeds of the cake sale will be used to further the new service club's project of mental health. Chartered last March, the Civitan Club is part of an international service club organization with headquarters in Birmingham, Ala. The club meets the first and third Tuesdays of each month in the Everglades.

Club members are already "sold" on the virtues of the fruit cake they'll be offering, having been given a sample recently by cake sale chairman Hamlyn Benney, 354 Topsfield-rd. The cake is a product of the Claxton Bakery, Claxton, Ga., which has been in the fruit cake making business since 1910.

A widespread sales campaign is planned to help the club meet its goal, with arrangements already to have Civitans man sales booths in several local supermarkets, campaign door-to-door, and similar enterprises.

Memebrs of the organization will canvass Lincoln Village on Oct. 15-16, New Rome on Oct. 23 and Georgian Heights on Nov. 12.

Civitan members who'll turn salesman Oct. 7 include Glenn Eichenauer, president, 400 Yarmouth-ln; Walter Munch, 4942 Hamden-wy, president-elect; Dr. William Dean Kaho, vice president, 372 Old Village-rd; James Kneale, secretary, 436 Darbyhurst-rd; C. Stanley Taylor, treasurer, 415 Demorest-rd.

Kenneth Campbell, 362 Yarmouth-ln; Clifford Feyh, 211 Danhurst-rd; Charles Hamilton, 286 Topsfield-rd; Armor L. Hank, 408 Danhurst-rd; Lawrence Hart, 4776 Musket-wy; Robert Jones, 362 Old Village-rd; Warren Kennedy, 477 Carilla-ln; Guy Kent, 403 Sturbridge-rd.

Loyal S. Marshall, 324 Old Village-rd; Rev. Frank McCullough, 204 Old Village-rd; William Moore, 4790 Musket-wy; Glen F. Smith, 392 Topsfield-rd; Kenneth Snead, 345 Topsfield-rd; Ralph Snyder, 684 Willshire-rd; Ward Wheaton, 3288 Miriam-rd. S; and Roderick Wittich, 476 Darbyhurst-rd.

Merchants Flood Kiwanians With Auction Merchandise

West Franklin Kiwanians have received everything from bales of hay, turkeys, cider, pumpkins and other farm products, as well as a variety of merchandise from city and rural merchants, according to Clarence Latham, chairman of the organization's Auction Committee.

"In my opinion we'll have the greatest array of merchandise we've offered in the four-year history of the event," he said, "and from the number of inquiries received from individuals in attending, it looks like we'll need all we can accumulate."

The auction sale, to be held at the Prairie Township School on Saturday, Oct. 11, beginning at 7 p.m., will be preceded by a roast beef dinner for the public between 5 and 7 p.m., served by the eighth grade mothers of the school.

Proceeds from the sale will be used for the most part by the Kiwanis Club to support its youth aid program in West Franklin County. The group netted more than $2,100 last year.

Kids Take Over Lockbourne Air Force Base On Sunday

IT WAS THEIR DAY—and the kids had a ball. More than 2000 youngsters swarmed over Lockbourne Air Force Base Sunday, annual Kiwanis Kids day at the base, inspecting planes and facilities. Among the 250 transported by bus by West Side Kiwanis Club were those at left being entertained by T/Sgt. Edward Mullins. They are, from left, Nancy Gothard, 311 West Park-av; Jim Johnson, 2675 Bernadotte; Emily Smith, 413 W. Richel; Terry Gunderson, 731 W. Townd; Janie Brown, 215 Skidmore, and Mary Moore, 312 West Park-av.

COMMANDER FOR A DAY—Judith Kay Leach, 11, of 287 S. Southampton-av, was rewarded for her winning plane-naming entry with gifts and honors going with the title "Commander For a Day," at Lockbourne AFB, Sunday. Col. William J. Jewdy presents her with a set of colonel's eagles and a North American trophy plane. Honors included wearing the colonel's cap all day and use of a staff car for a tour of the base, guided by Lt. James H. Doyle, assistant to the public relations officer. Her suggested name for the B47 stratojet was "Buckeye Sentry."

For Your Thoughts

What is your opinion of the proposed right-to-work law?

Clyde E. Bennett, Sr., 71 S. Algonquin-av: "I'm against it. They're trying to bust up all the unions. Employers will find some way of getting rid of all union employees."

Mrs. Elden Sherman, 129 S. Yale-av: "I haven't given too much thought to it, I think I'm against it, though I'm not really qualified to answer. I didn't know it was going to be on the general ballot, Nov. 4."

Mrs. Norman Reeves, [illegible] N. Harris-av: "I'm very much against it. It will do away with unions and we need unions to keep people satisfied with a proper wage."

Mrs. Johnnie Bunard, 1085 Whittethorne: "I don't think it should be voted in. It's not for the union. I think the biggest thing it would do is put women out of jobs. It would also let employers get rid of the men they don't want."

Robert J. Moore, 489 Dunevest-rd: "I'm not fully informed on this particular issue and therefore I don't want to give an answer."

Howard Wilson, 89 Powhatan: "I'd have to say I'm for the amendment on the basis of the logic involved. An organization of which I'm a member had a meeting where both sides of the issue were presented, and I believe it would permit union members to exert greater control over their unions and would force unions to actively seek membership. It would create and stimulate a democratic attitude."

I Am A Press Camera!

I am the Public Eye. I see for millions of people. I see for everyone who wants to look. I keep watch for the smallest child, weariest oldster, greatest leader and the most discouraged derelict.

The need for my vision was created when a man drew the first picture on a cave wall. Perhaps he drew a buffalo. And when he was done he saw the buffalo there—just scratch marks in the stone. Right then, man's scope was extended beyond the limited horizon of his own presence. By means of pictures, the sights and dimensions of a scene far away or long ago could be transmitted to the ever-hungry mind of man.

I, the camera, am the fulfillment of that need. I see everywhere—all the time. What The Public wants to see I watch.

I was there when a band of Marines raised the flag amid heavy fire on Iwo Jima. Most of that band are dead now, but they will be remembered because what I see is never forgotten.

I watched Man in his first attempts to conquer the limitless space. I fled with thousands out of a land of bondage known as Hungary, and then told my story to the world.

In one day, I can bring to anyone the sights from a hospital in New York, an airport in London, a riot-torn street in Cyprus, a frontier in Israel or a meeting with the Emperor of Japan

Through me, the great bawling, squawling ever-busy giant called The Public can see beyond the mountains or around the corner. Without me, The Public is blind.

Science has sharpened my vision to clarity far beyond the scope of human eyes. The scientists have given me speed, perception to the most minute detail, and an unfailing memory.

Other men have given me themselves—for the Pubic Eye is but a tool for those whose destinies are wrapped in mine. I, the Press Camera, would be as blind as The Pubic I serve without a man to serve me.

In reality, I am slave to the photographer. But lacking me, he is an ordinary man. We are one, and what I have seen, what I will see, is caught only because we are there together.—by Joseph Costa, National Press Photographers Assn.

Bible Comment:

We Can Build Christlike Lives Through Faith

Perhaps a question that is in many minds is: Why should I be a Christian?

Isn't it enough to live a good life, to be honest and faithful in all of life's activities?

The answer to this is given to us very specifically in the Bible itself, even if it isn't apparent in daily life. Most men are conscious of their imperfections. There are few who can say that they have done all they could in the obligation of love and righteousness. If they did so, they would be in danger of aping the Pharisee who congratulated God and himself upon all that he did while the poor Publican, so conscious of his sins that he would not so much as lift up his eyes to heaven, cried out in his heart, "God, be merciful to me, a sinner."

A parable like that should remind us of the deepest thing in goodness. It is humility, and the man who is not conscious of something lacking might be found to be lacking the deepest thing of all.

Personal peace underlies personal salvation. We cannot experience the richness and fullness of the Christian life if there is discord and strife in our souls.

The Christian life begins with faith, and the fact that we are reconciled to God through Christ. This is only the beginning, however, and we can build through constant faith the superstructure of lives that are Christlike.

National Newspaper Week Is October 1-8

The week of October 1 through 8 is National Newspaper Week. This is the one time during the year when the more than 10,000 weekly and daily newspapers of the nation join hands as a group, and make a concerted effort to promote a better understanding of newspapers and the vital role they play in preserving the great American way of life, which we cherish.

Newspaper Week was instituted nationally in 1940, and is sponsored annually, by Newspaper Association Managers, Inc., a nationwide organization of state, regional, and national press association managers.

"Your Newspaper — Guards Your Freedoms!" is the theme for this year's 19th annual National Newspaper Week observance.

Newspaper Week is one of the more significant of the many special weeks observed in this country. It is one which seemingly at first glance is important to only one kind of business, but actually it is of major importance to EVERY citizen.

"Your Newspaper — Guards Your Freedoms!" is not just a high sounding slogan, either—it is an alert, and a challenge to each newspaper reader, and each editor—as citizens—to continue to wage a relentless battle, cooperatively, against ALL enemies, foreign and domestic, to keep America's press FREE!

Some fellers are afraid to ask for a gal's hand for fear of her old man's foot.

—Rev. Charles Grant.

. . . for the women of our time . . .

This is Dr. George N. Papanicolaou, the physician who many feel has done the most for the women of our time. His development of the cell examination for uterine cancer has made it possible to diagnose cancer of the uterus, or womb, in very early stages.

Cancer in this site strikes about 33,000 women a year and claims the lives of almost half of them. The tragic fact is that many of these lives are lost needlessly, for cancer of the uterus is highly curable. If every woman had her doctor perform this simple, painless procedure once a year, thousands of those who have cancer of the uterus could be saved.

Don't gamble with your life! See your physician about a cell examination for uterine cancer soon.

Your Youth

By Al Hollowell and

Last Saturday the Little Nine champions played the All-Stars in each division of Little Nine at the Valleyview YMCA field.

In the first game the Cubs and the All-Stars played 7 innings to a 2-2 tie. In the interest of getting the other game in, the game was called. It was extremely well-played. Butch Glascor pitched for the All-Stars and Darrell Rohrer pitched for the championship Cubs. In the second game the White Sox played the other All-Star team. The All-Stars were leading the White Sox 13-6 when the game was called because of weather in the last half of the sixth inning. Eddie Shute started for the All-Stars on the mound and Jake Fredendall pitched for the White Sox. Buddy Johnson relieved Shute and was effective in his stint as a reliefer.

Mrs. Zaida Ross, 330 W. State-st, peers around one of her massive castor beans.

Life's Too Short For Bitterness Says 85-Year-Old West Sider

By Marcus Orr

To anyone who has the blues we'd recommend a 30 minute chat with Mrs. Zaida Ross, 85-year-old resident of the West Side.

Silver-crowned Mrs. Ross fairly abounds with a zest for living. Aside from an occasional trip downtown, she finds everyday adventure in a backyard that measures scarcely more than 25 feet square.

Her home at 330 W. State-st is in one of the city's so-called blighted areas — surrounded by decaying dwellings that have seen better days. Unperturbed, she and her daughter, Mrs. Ellen Gonoff, keep an immaculate, proud home . . . and refuse to worry about the future.

"If they want to build a State Office Building here we'll just move, that's all," chirped the smiling octogenarian. Hers is one of 53 properties in an area which may some day be condemned. She dearly loves every inch of her backyard which is filled with unusual plants.

Entertains Younger Set

"The neighborhood children call it Mrs. Ross' palm garden," she beamed, pointing out 15 castor oil beans that tower almost 17 feet high. "They like to hold little parties here and I enjoy them so much."

Mrs. Ross, whose perfect speech and diction bespeak a background of culture, has a way with growing things. "Whenever my family throw out old plants I rescue them," she chuckled. "Mountain laurel, herbs and the like grow alongside a volunteer plant bearing [illegible].

Her interests branch out into the community also. She has made countless stuffed dolls for the Christmas baskets distributed from Sunshine Recreation Center. Many times she has sent cheerful little gifts to old folks in a rest home on S. Souder-av.

First With Jets' Name

She has a soft spot in her heart for the Columbus Jets Baseball Club, too. Several years ago she was the first of 20 persons to suggest "Jets" as a good name for the rebuilt team. She is proud of her letter from [illegible] ager Harold Cooper which accompanied a season pass to box seats in Jets Stadium.

In the days of balloon ascensions, Mrs. Ross lived in Clintonville with her husband, Lewis. An interior decorator, he had roots in the Ross family of dairy fame.

"We've lived here 14 years and never had a fight," she boasted in the presence of her daughter. "Life's too short for that."

It's a philosophy that could make many other homes happier, too.

Post Welcomes Combat Vets

"If you are a veteran who has served his country at time of hostilities and have witnessed the hells of war, then it is you to whom I will direct my words as one who has viewed my buddies fall before the enemy.

"Westway Post No. 3441 Veterans of Foreign Wars, located at 852 Clarendon-av, opens its doors and welcomes you to join your buddies who have fought nations that would take from you and your loved ones a freedom which was bestowed upon mankind from the beginning of time.

"The VFW (the nation's oldest Veteran organization is now celebrating its 60th year, and is advocating that we must "honor the dead by helping the living."

My belief is that all veterans should belong to a veterans' organization. If you have served our armed forces outside of the United States in time of war, then Westway Post Veterans of Foreign Wars is where you belong. If you did not leave the United States during war there are other good veteran organizations to which you can belong.

"Westway Post, the No. 1 community service post of Ohio will be open tonight for those who wish to become members. Looking forward to welcoming you into our midst, I am

"Respectfully yours,
"Otis R. Lowe,
"Sr. Vice Commander."

IDLE MONEY
Benefits No One!
Money serves as a common medium of exchange in trade. It can be used to great advantage throughout the world. Benefits can be made expansive and cumulative when invested in the welfare of youth. Here at the Hilltop "Y" we start with boys of eight, the age when great and lasting impressions can be gained.
Here we have hundreds of father and son combinations, fathers, who want their sons to secure the lasting benefits they received in their earlier years. You can be helpful, too, by putting any idle money to work for the youth of today, the men of tomorrow.

Brown Pays Newspapers High Tribute

By Ted W. Brown
Ohio Secretary of State

"Your Newspaper Guards Your Freedoms."

That is the slogan of National Newspaper Week, Oct. 1-8. There never was a greater truth and it behooves us to constantly bear this truth in mind — not for just one week but for all time.

A short time ago it was my privilege to issue a proclamation establishing the entire month of October as "Inform Yourself and Vote Month," looking toward the coming general election in Ohio on Nov. 4.

It is quite fitting that this special month also should start with National Newspaper Week for certainly newspapers do much to not only keep our citizens informed about election matters but they are the constant guardians of all our basic freedoms, including the precious right to vote a free and secret ballot.

There are interlocking benefits to be derived from the exercise of our franchise at the polls. Our freedoms, such as the freedom of religion, freedom of speech and the freedom of the press, are made more secure by a full and free exercise of our right to vote and, in turn, the guarantee which we have given to newspapers of their freedom to write and print the truth places them on duty as constant sentinels, ever guarding these same freedoms.

INSIDE ON THE

Outdoors

By ROD COCHRAN

For Some Real Fun, Take A Dog Hunting

Much like today, hunting in grandpa's time was one of the top outdoor activities. But, unlike today, a lot of the hunting a generation or two back involved an element of urgency. It had a main purpose of putting meat on the table.

Times have changed. Present day gunners, less concerned with pounds of meat, are placing greater emphasis on the healthful recreational values which hunting provides. And each year more hunters are enlarging on their hunting pleasure by adding the refinement of a good hunting dog.

Some years ago I had the opportunity of hunting with a pretty good beagle over in Muskingum County. A couple of trips out with the McBride brothers and their dog convinced me that I had to have a beagle as a hunting partner. Our first beagle was Lady, and she came to us when she was six years old. I had the good fortune to buy an extremely good hunting dog the first time I tried.

Now Lady has gone to her reward, and my present rabbit hunting companion is Trudy—an expectant mother. The pups will come this month, and I hope to have them weaned by the first or second week of rabbit season so that Trudy and I can head for the fields and brushy fence rows.

Beagles Need Little Training

If you're a rabbit hunter and haven't dropped your game in front of a merry pack of yapping beagles, then you have yet to enjoy your sport to the fullest. If there's a gun-dog breed born with everything they need to do their job right, it's this diminutive hound. Unlike pointers, retrievers and other sporting breeds, their mission in life is not to find and mark game for the hunter, but to chase it. They need very little training, for the desire to follow a trail has been bred into beagles through many generations of selective breeding.

Perhaps upland game birds are your specialty — pheasants, grouse and quail if you are able to hunt in neighboring states. If so, you have a great variety of hunting dogs from which to choose. English setters and pointers are the old standbys and continue first in popularity.

But there are a number of other pointing dogs, also capable of doing a good job. And if you've thrilled to the wild thrashing of a pheasant flushing unexpectedly from a fence row, just imagine hunting the wily ringneck using an intense, hard-working, pointing dog. You will get a double thrill, when from break-neck speed he skids to a stiff-legged stop, tail high, and with a hypnotic stare he tells you, "He's right there, boss."

And don't let your dog assistant quit his job with merely finding game. Some will retrieve naturally, while others may require a little coaxing—even urging. But any effort given over to sharpening up the retrieve will pay off handsomely in the recovery of game which would otherwise be lost.

Retrievers Are Valuable

For serious waterfowl hunters a good retriever is a must. He'll save plenty of ammunition, and even more important—birds. If you're the kind of gunner who doesn't believe that you have to be miserable to have a good time, then a strong water dog is what you want. The dog will save you many a weary step plodding through mud, and will find birds that you could never locate. How many times have you spooked an incoming flight of ducks by being caught out of the blind trying to corner a cripple? A retriever will solve your problems.

For more fun this hunting season, take a dog with you.

Nationally Known Journalists Show Need for RIGHT TO WORK

Nation's eyes on Ohio for showdown fight this November. Read these excerpts. Then write for reprints* of complete articles to help you decide how to vote on this vital issue.

"I'm sorry I can't sign my name as it may mean my life or my livelihood. We are living under a labor autocracy—graft, rackets, intimidation, goons. For fear of being bumped off . . . I'm afraid to sign my name."

— Letter from a workingman to the U.S. Senate McClellan Committee. John Dos Passos in Reader's Digest, Sept. 1958

"For seven years I was denied the right to belong to my local union because in 1948 I testified in favor of a bill to outlaw the union shop. I favor Right to Work because it will give the union back to its members."

— Testimony of a United Auto Worker. W. L. White in Reader's Digest, Aug. 1958

Railroads: "The AFL-CIO charges that Right to Work laws have the effect of keeping unions from growing! But from 1934 to 1951, workers on American railroads were protected from compulsory unionism by the Railway Labor Act, and during those years most railway unions imbibed in voluntary membership."

— W. L. White in Reader's Digest, Aug. 1958

"To say that 'right to work' laws which are limited to protecting the free choice of the citizen impair the effectiveness of labor unions would be equivalent to saying that laws controlling gangsterism might also interfere with the effectiveness of labor organizations."

— David Lawrence in New York Herald Tribune, September 30, 1958

"The goons got nine tenths of the rank and file scared. That's the reason they don't come to meetings. I'll face any of 'em for you, Senator. I've lived 63 years now, how much longer can I live? But for God's sake give these young men a chance to raise their families!"

— Letter from a house painter to the McClellan Committee. John Dos Passos in Reader's Digest, Sept. 1958

"Clean up this mess. Make it so a man has a right to work and not have to bow down to them damn Hitlers."

— Letter from a workingman to the McClellan Committee. John Dos Passos in Reader's Digest, Sept. 1958

"It (the use of union members' dues for political purposes) is the denial to American citizens of their political freedom to support candidates of their choice. To permit this sort of injustice to be prevalent will result in a political as well as an economic monopoly inimical to free institutions."

— Raymond Moley, in Columbus Dispatch, August 31

"These are not cranks addressing the Senate Committee. Many have devoted their lives to the labor movement. But they want labor leaders to be subject to the law like everybody else."

— John Dos Passos in Reader's Digest, Sept. 1958

"They want unions, but not the check-off or the union shop. They want union membership to be voluntary instead of compulsory . . . They want unions to be financially responsible, under law, like banks and insurance companies . . . They want the right to present grievances without danger of reprisals . . . They want self-government in unions, freedom of speech and the right to elect officers by secret ballot . . . They want action. They want legislation. They want protection. They want democracy."

— John Dos Passos in Reader's Digest, Sept. 1958

"We pray to God that we will some day get laws passed in this country that will help us working people rid ourselves of these dictators so that we can govern ourselves."

— Letter to McClellan Committee. John Dos Passos in Reader's Digest, Sept. 1958

Local Technical Group In Final Year Of Special Mental Retardation Project

Since May 1956 a local professional staff has, without fanfare, been carrying on an extensive project on "Technical Planning in Mental Retardation."

Herschel W. Nisonger

The work is financed by a $232,000 grant from the National Institute of Mental Health for a three-year period ending next Apr. 1. Offices are maintained at the Columbus State School, 1601 W. Broad-st.

The staff consists of Prof. Herschel W. Nisonger, project director and director of the Bureau of Educational Research and Service at Ohio State University; Dr. Darrell A. Hindman, 6467 Alkire-rd, Galloway, assistant director; Dr. Rick F. Heber, 351 Darbyhurst-rd; Dr. William I. Gardner, 380 Weymouth-la; Dr. Glenn E. Milligan and Mrs. Leetta L. Hunt, research associates; Mrs. Mary E. King, 1976 Guilford, editor; Mrs. Marian F. Winders, 33 Orel-av, administrative assistant; Mary J. Baylock, and Mrs. Rhea Fouts, 786 S. Warren-av, stenographers. Some are giving part time service.

Dr. D. A. Hindman

There is also an advisory committee of 15 professionals.

Purpose of the project, according to Dr. Hindman, is to appraise activities and trends in mental retardation in the areas of research, training and program development, searching out promising areas for emphasis and development. The group also offers encouragement and assistance to qualified individuals, agencies and institutions concerned with mental retardation, Dr. Hindman said.

Studies now in progress include development of a diagnostic and statistical manual of retardation; preparation of a statement of policy to guideline the work; survey of research and training relations between residences for retarded and the universities; development of a planning guide for state and community programming; exploration of cooperative effort among the agencies with respect to preparing the retarded adolescent for suitable employment; analysis of instruction in mental retardation in the education of physicians, psychologists, special educators and social workers.

A study of functions of the American Association on Mental Deficiency in relation to future needs has been completed, said Dr. Hindman, who added: "A request for extension of the project beyond the original three-year grant will be submitted to the AAMD soon."

A ten-year index of the American Journal of Mental Deficiency has just been compiled. The group also publishes a bimonthly newsletter "Project News", covering highlights of mental retardation work and issues select abstracts of technical articles.

Cash Awards Set Aside For Best Amateur Acts

Saturday will be a big day for amateur entertainers of this area. It's the start of a four-week talent elimination sponsored by the Great Western Shoppers' Mart Business Association.

Grand prize of $100 will be awarded at the windup Oct. 25, followed by a street dance, cider and donuts, and all.

Prospects are requested to contact Kay Smith, 1566 Sullivant-av, by mail only . . . stating name, address, age and type of act. After tryouts the best 10 will be picked for one-hour shows each Saturday night. Performers will appear on a big platform in the center of the mart, beginning at 9:30 p.m.

Johnny Jones, of Mogol's Men's Wear, said prizes of $10 $5, $3 and $1 will be awarded, followed by much bigger amounts Oct. 25.

Wile Serving On UCC Group To Study Welfare

John Wile, 1042 Wiltshire-av is a member of the new public welfare committee of United Community Council.

Robert F. Ebinger, president of UCC, said that the job of the committee will be to arrive at a long range plan to cope with the problems of the Franklin County Welfare Department and the Franklin County Child Welfare Board.

"The public welfare programs present the most serious problems for the United Community Council and the entire community at this time," Ebinger said.

He said that in cooperation with Columbus and county officials the committee will examine the budgets and service programs of the agencies and recommended improvements.

Membership of the committee has been enlarged to represent business, industry, labor, clergy, medicine and civic organizations.

State School Patients Moved To Apple Creek

Four non-ambulatory, mentally retarded patients were transferred from the Columbus State School to Apple Creek State Hospital recently.

The move, first of a series involving 200 such patients, will allow more admissions to the state school and will place the patients closer to their homes, according to Dr. R. C. Anderson, acting commissioner of mental hygiene.

Honey produced from the blossoms of some species of Asian rhododendron is poisonous to man, but bees thrive on it.

OCTOBER PLENTIFULS

U.S. apples, potatoes, broiler-fryers, beef, pork, small and medium eggs, cheese, honey, peanut butter, frozen and canned berries.

POTATO CROP IS BIG

Potatoes make important eating for millions of people all over the world. They yield heavily and are relatively inexpensive. This is especially true this year. U.S.D.A. reports the fall potato crop as one of the largest on record—11 per cent above last year. You can expect plenty of potatoes at attractive prices.

Potatoes in Ohio—Katahdins are the chief variety grown in Ohio, although some Cobblers come to market in July and August. Only about 40 per cent of the potatoes consumed by Ohioans are grown within the state. Nearly one-third of Ohio's potato crop goes into potato chips.

"Buckeye" Brand — Some 300 growers in this state belong to the Ohio Potato Growers' Association. They sell potatoes under the "Buckeye" brand. All potatoes bearing this brand name are packed under federal-state inspection and meet U.S. No. 1 standards for quality.

To Buy Good Quality — Select potatoes that are firm and sound; reasonably clean, since dirt can cover up defects; free from cuts, blemishes, cracks or decay; free from green-colored spots known as sunburn, which may cause a bitter taste; smooth, shallow-eyed, well shaped, to avoid waste. U.S. graded potatoes are a good indication of quality.

How Many to Buy—Potatoes keep fairly well away from light at room temperature or slightly under. For this reason you can save money buying in quantity if you have suitable space to keep potatoes, and if your family eats enough to justify such purchases. For example, in one Columbus store, Sept. 18, 1958, U.S. No. 1 white potatoes were available at the following prices:

50 lbs., $1.39 or 2.8c per lb.
15 lbs., 69c or 2.3c per lb.
10 lbs., 45c or 4.5c per lb.
5 lbs., 39c or 7.8c per lb.

September 14 Marriage Ceremony Unites Mary Martindale And James McFarling

MRS. JAMES LLOYD McFARLING

Hilltop Church of God was the scene of the wedding of Miss Mary Ann Martindale and Mr. James Lloyd McFarling, Sunday, Sept. 14, at 3 p.m. Rev. Neff solemnized the ceremony before an altar decorated with white gladioli and chrysanthemums.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Warren Martindale of 177 Lechner-av. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. C. A. McFarling of Wolsey, S. Dak.

The bride wore a princess line gown of organdine taffeta, designed with scoop neckline and brief sleeves outlined with point de Venise lace. Double lace panels of the lace fell from the yoke to the end of the chapel train in back.

A crown of seed pearls held her fingertip veil and she carried an arrangement of white daisy chrysanthemums centered with orchids.

Miss Nancy Martindale and Miss Janet Sue Martindale served as attendants for their sister.

They were identically gowned in princess frocks of sunshine yellow tissue shantung over taffeta, with full, unpressed black pleats and carried French baskets of deep gold daisy chrysanthemums, cat-tails and bittersweet ribbon streamers.

Mr. George McFarling served as bestman for his brother, and ushers were Mr. Calvin McFarling, also a brother of the bridegroom; Mr. Lowell Stultz, Mr. Robert Litman, Jr., and Mrs. Dale Stultz.

New Pastoral Assistant Is Assigned At Hillcrest

George Sublette

Impressions of Hillcrest Baptist Church, the Hilltop and Capital University, made during his visit here last year,influenced the new pastoral assistant at Hillcrest to move to Columbus and enroll at Capital.

After two years' study at William Jewell College, Liberty, Mo., in preparation for the Baptist ministry, he interrupted his education last year to serve as a discipleship interne for 12 months, visiting Baptist churches and helping them with their youth programs.

During his assignment here, he found an appealing church, community and university, as well as an opportunity at Hillcrest to put some of his ideas into effect.

He is working, under Rev. A. L. Roth's direction, with the young people of the church, assisting in pastoral duties, and studying at Capital University.

A native of Texas, Sublette was graduated from high school in Nitro, W. Va. His father is a former professional baseball player and his mother, a musician.

He is now living at 279 S. Harris-av.

Bears Lead Point Count At Glenwood

The Polar Bears, with a total of 159 points in six games, are the offensive leaders in Glenwood Recreation Center's junior boys football league.

The Cowboys, the leading defensive team in the league, are still in first place. They are followed by the Polar Bears, Terriers, and Bulldogs.

The Cowboys, with Clayton and Ruzicka running well, defeated the Bulldogs, 12-0.

Sparked by a pass interception touchdown from behind his own goal line by Larry Graves, the Terriers defeated the Bulldogs, 20-14.

Although held scoreless for the second half by the "heads up" play of the Polar Bears, the Cowboys managed to defeat the Polar Bears, 18-6.

The Polar Bears edged the Terriers, 19-13, in a game highlighted by the rugged play of the middle of the Polar Bear line.

Using a "slow but sure" ground attack mixed with an occasional pass, the Cowboys beat the Bulldogs, 24-7. Both offensive and defensive play of Cowboy Jerry Clayton was outstanding.

Penalties Rattle Cowboys In Cross-Town Struggle

By Bob Wilcox

Well, West is still looking . . . and not for any Otto Grahams or Hopalong Cassidy's, tho the might help the situation out a wee bit . . . but they're looking for one of those old fashioned, ordinary, plain little old victories. In one of their best chances to get in the win column so far this season, last Friday night, they instead ran smack dab into a whitewashing!

Eastmoor had the Cowboys' number to the tune of 18-0. And this Friday West plays host to a reportedly very rough South outfit, so . . . ??? Since Eastmoor's stands are not completed yet, a lot of fans (especially West's had to stand . . . in mud lightly covered with straw. Gave the fans a pretty good view of the game, the (standing) and some of the actions and antics on the field.

This was strictly an old fashioned 'hand basher', grinding out the gains yard by yard on the ground by both squads. There were no outstanding or long runs or passes. All short gains (9-10 yards were the exceptionally long ones), even Eastmoor broke deep into the secondary only once.

West kicked off and Eastmoor, failing to get a first down, was forced to punt. West likewise could go nowhere and returned the ball. From there, exactly at midfield, the Warriors took 14 plays to score. Halfback Barry Wharfield plunged over from the three, but the conversion try was no good. The big play of the drive was a 12-yard pass from co-captain and quarterback Bob Naumoff to Wharfield.

West took the ensuing kickoff and drove to the Warrior's 20, before a penalty and two incompleted passes stalled the drive on the Eastmoor 29. Later in the second period West again started to drive on their own 20 and finally were 'killed' by the clock. With a first and goal on the Eastmoor 9, Dave Francis was swamped at the line of scrimmage for no gain as the final seven seconds ran out.

Early in the third fram Francis's punt was blocked and recovered by Eastmoor and in no time flat they had scored again. Tom Myers blocked the kick for extra point. From the kickoff West moved to the Eastmoor 38, where Francis broke away for a touchdown . . . only to have it called back for only an eight-yard gain. His legs never stopping to pump, but being shoved back by Eastmoor, Francis broke away just as the ref's whistle tooted ending the play.

Midway in the final stanza Francis got off a punt from his own five at West's 35 . . . when it stopped rolling backwards it was on the West 24. Half Dick Wilson picked up 19, and then the final five yards for the Warrior's final score with 6:54 showing on the clock. West's entire left side stopped the run-try for extra points. To all extent and purpose that was the ballgame.

Later defensive left end for West, Gene Branson, stole the ball from Warrior half Tom Doughty in the Warrior backfield. After gaining a first down, Don Uldricks fumbled, recovered and then fumbled again with Eastmoor recovering. The game ended with West in possession on the Warrior 41.

A somewhat peculiar (the not humorous) situation occurred at Eastmoor Friday evening . . . concerning the Cowboys. As against Linden, West was hurt by penalties; some a general harassment thruout the game while others came of critical times and definitely hurting West. Some of the Cowboys gave the impression that they thought that they were being 'picked' on . . . by the refs possibly.

Thus their individual temperatures went up accordingly, with the results that the madder they got (at someone??), the worse their play got (lost efficiency) and the more penalties they racked up. One can sometimes get mad and accomplish so-called "superhuman efforts," but usually, as happened Friday, it backfires into disaster and a much poorer effort.

Thus they definitely upset and opened themselves up to committing and receiving penalties . . . that they deserved, but still hurt. West tried, no doubt . . . but in the wrong manner.

West also three three boys ejected from the game. On the somewhat brighter side . . . West moved the ball fairly well, but couldn't cross those double lines. Dave Francis played another outstanding offensive game . . . carrying 18 times for 81 yards and a 4.5 average. He also returned two kickoffs for 30 yards.

Jim Hastings, the only in a short time, looked pretty good. Bob Pate (teeth) and Leon Evans (ribs) returned to action after missing the Linden game.

Others of note . . . Branson with his steal; Jim Carter who plugged up a pretty big hole a couple of times; Myers with some nice stops and his blocked kick; John Vellani with some nice tackles; Francis at one time carried four men with him for quite a bit of yardage.

All in all West didn't look too bad. If they learn to control themselves while winning or losing (esp. the latter), so that they don't hurt themselves in the end by upsetting their own bandwagon.

They seemed to upset themselves Friday and couldn't cope with it . . . result defeat! West tried seven passes, completed two for six yards. Francis had a bad night punting . . . one blocked, one for only 18 yards and one that backrolled far too much.

Store Robbers Still At Large

Two men, described by detectives as being short and stocky and in their early 30's, robbed the Harrup's Pharmacy, 1971 W. Mound-st of the day's receipts last Thursday while a clerk and several customers remained unaware of proceedings.

One of the men approached owner, William S. Harrup, showed him a pearl handled revolver in his belt and ordered him to hand over the money in two cash registers.

The robbers then fled with the money. According to Harrup, detectives are "still baffled" as to their identity.

SOUTH WILL INVADE MAGLY FIELD FRIDAY

South, this week's opponent at Magly Field, is undefeated (having downed Arlington, Grandview and Central) and is considered very tough. Possessing a very fast backfield and a big line . . . good running and a fine passing game . . . [illegible] easily see why they're rated good and have proven it over some pretty fair squads to date. Defense seems to be their "weak link," however . . . so see you Friday! S.W.

Central Edged Out In League Opener

Central griddèrs lost a hard-fought battle, 27-22, with South in the opening of city league contests. Four of the game's seven touchdowns were crowded into a wild fourth period.

Central opened the scoring when Hairstron crossed the goal shortly after the start of the second quarter. A few minutes later the host Bulldogs recovered their own punt from the Pirates for the easiest [illegible] of the game.

Both teams scored their conversion points and the score at halftime was 8-8. South returned to score again soon after the second half began and twice more in the early moments of the last quarter.

With four minutes yet to play and trailing by 19 points, Central took to the air. Quarterback George Heery fired touchdown passes to Fred Gray and Bill Penick but time ran out before the Pirates could get another chance.

Central was able to regain possession once in the last few minutes of the game by using an off side kick. However, the same tactics were not so successful the second time and South was able to run out the clock.

For next weekend's contest, Central tangles with its arch rivals from St. Charles. The Carolians have won a pair after losing their opener to Bexley.

Hoge Memorial Wins 'Y' Playoff

Hoge Memorial Church defeated West Park Methodist in the recent YMCA Intermediate playoff game by a score of 9-7.

Hoge was the clear cut winner of the second round. West Park Methodist had defeated Hillcrest Baptist in a playoff game to gain the title for the first round. The Sept. 20 game was the round playoff and the final game.

Hoge Church played well under the leadership of Rev. Robert Clark, assistant minister at Hoge.

Cards Outfly Falcon Foe To Nail Win

A strong St. Charles aggregate handed Franklin Heights its second straight setback Friday, 26-14.

The Cardinals stacked up a 14 point lead in the opening quarter which the host eleven was never able to overcome. St. Charles added 12 more in the third stanza and withstood a 14 point Falcon splurge in the final chukker to clinch the win.

Halfback John Yinger was the first Falcon to touch paydirt in the fourth period when he scampered over from the five. Bill Biggers added the other marker with a last minute 55-yard runback of a pass interception.

Tony DiNova, John Murphy, Phil Baehr and Joe Morris broke into the scoring column for the visitors each noting a touchdown. Two extra points were added by Baehr.

IN APPRECIATION

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hoover and family would like to express their thanks to friends and neighbors for opening their hearts and purses toward the donation for their son and brother, Tommy Hoover.

"You may think of Tommy as being dead,
But that's not true at all
His seven years on earth were up,
When Jesus came to call."

Cassell, Dodge To Direct Halloween Celebrations

Robert Cassell

Mel Dodge

Community councils in both the West Side and Hilltop have selected the men who will head their respective Halloween celebrations.

Robert E. Cassell, 143 Powhatan-av, is chairman of the Friday evening, Oct. 31 event at West High school. The local architect represents the Hilltop Business Association on the Hilltop Community Council, which plans the annual affair.

Mel Dodge, director of Sunshine Recreation Center, Sullivant and Sandusky-sts, is president of the West Side Community Service Council which each year coordinates four separate Halloween parties in the West Side.

John Clay, president of the Hilltop council said that the big event at West High is again expected to attract thousands. Although it coincides with a West High football game at North, Clay said the party this year will be directed more toward the "younger set."

The council will meet Thursday night, Oct. 9 at the Hilltop "Y" and Chairman Cassell is expected to announce all committees to handle the arrangements. The meeting will start at 8 p.m.

Principal speaker of the evening will be Paul Langdon, president of the Columbus Board of Education.

Groundwork for the West Side fun fests was laid Monday noon at Gladden Community center. Present were representatives of Gladden, West Side branch of Boys Clubs, Sullivant Gardens and Sunshine Recreation Centers and the Juvenile Bureau of the Columbus Police Department.

The first three centers will plan their Oct. 31 program for children and under. Sunshine Center will be host to the teenagers, Dodge said.

Confidence in City Government is Lost

Most people who have appraised the current situation in city council in the matter of selecting a councilman to fill a vacancy now existing are becoming increasingly disgusted with the play of grown men who have been elected to carry on the processes of good government.

For a number of years, residents of the city have not held their councilmen in the high esteem that should be deserved by them. Fiascos such as the present one have tended to destroy rather than build confidence in city government.

It is a shame that men elected to these offices should try to adhere so closely to party lines that confidence of the public is destroyed while they wrangle.

A Democrat member of council died and a Democratic mayor and three council members maintain that a Democrat should be named to the post. If this isn't the will of the people they will change it at the next election.

The mere fact that the mayor would like to have William Hoermle named to the post seems to be enough of a red flag waved in front of three Republican councilmen that they just won't go along.

In their latest move, they have even indicated their willingness to accept another Democrat, Rand Hollenback, of Clintonville. Hollenback is a good man, but so is Hoermle.

It all seems to sift down to one point: Let's just be contrary and try to make it tough for the mayor.

But who loses while this game is played?

Columbus City Government loses!

It reveals a point we have held for years . . . there is absolutely no difference in a Democrat and a Republican on the city and county level. Independent voters, registered either as Republicans or as Democrats, can take the situation in hand at any election and place their own candidates in office.

Most city councilmen have been elected with the support of both parties. It is quite disappointing therefore when such a situation as this arises and the councilmen adhere so strictly to party lines when in reality they owe the party little, if anything.

When will the people of Columbus wake up and see that men are placed in city government with enough backbone to forget the party line and vote unselfishly on the merits of the matters at hand.

We have contended that William Hoermle would make a good city councilman. It is particularly fitting that the South Side and Southeast should have representation in council. Hoermle fills this bill.

We still hope that at least one Republican councilman will make himself big enough to look to the best interests of the city, forget the party line and vote for Hoermle.

Troubles Hit Congregation As New Church Collapses

CHURCH FELLED BY FREAK WIND—A sudden gust of wind Monday afternoon just as workmen finished installing rafters of Memorial Baptist Church under construction at Eakin-rd at Wayne-av, caused the collapse of rafters and two brick walls.

First bulldozed and now wind-blasted . . . members of Memorial Baptist Church seem to be searching futilely for good in the "ill wind" directed at their church these days.

Their original building at 26 S. Sandusky-st became victim of progress, razed by expressway demolition crews, and their new church under construction on Eakin-rd at Wayne-av, was felled Monday by "tricky winds."

A sudden "mysterious" wind was blamed by workmen for the complete collapse of church rafters and walls.

Builders were finishing installation of the rafters when, they said, "a strong wind seemed to blast the beams from their position. Their weight as they crashed, dragged in and down the completed east and west walls."

Timing of the accident, just three minutes past noon, prevented possible serious injury to builders working in the building just minutes before.

Extent of the damage will not be determined until later in the week when debris has been cleaned away and complete inspection is possible. A spokesman of the church said the loss was covered by insurance.

Rapid progress of construction had led the congregation to believe they would be in their new church by Thanksgiving.

Time loss from the accident could not be estimated until full damage is known.

Joan Heights Sewer Costs To Be Sent

Acting on petition from residents of Joan Heights, west of the new Hilltop Community center, a resolution to build sanitary sewers in the subdivision was passed by City Council Monday night. The mayor added his signature.

Total estimated cost of the project is $49,400. Specifications show that the system will serve 138 taps. City Clerk Russell Drake said assessments will be mailed to residents within the next 30 days. The costs would probably average about $350 a family, he said.

Council also passed an ordinance to provide for the issuance of $25000 in bonds in anticipation of the collection of special assessments for sewers that have been built on River-

NEW PRESIDENT — J. Frank Dillin, 2687 Elliott-av, who was elected the new Valleyview council president Monday evening, is shown discussing a village matter with Miss Myrna Boothe, 514 Herrie-av, town clerk, and daughter of Norris S. Boothe who will soon become the incorporation's new mayor. The switch in positions has followed the resignation of Charles J. Ringer as the village's top official.

In Youngster's Interest

'Valley' Views Park Plans

Possible construction of a shelter house in Valleyview park was discussed Monday night when the town council held its regular meeting.

The idea was brought on the floor when James Leach, who has organized a football and baseball little league program for community's youngsters, asked if he could have two of Columbus's old voting booths moved onto the lot for dressing rooms.

Council immediately objected saying that the old battered buildings would certainly not be a credit to the community and were not desirable.

Instead, council agreed to investigate the idea of constructing a year-round shelter house that might be used by the lads for dressing facilities in the fall.

The village officials have given whole-hearted suport to the Leach's little league program and Monday night paid approximately $300 of the group's bills for equipment.

J. Frank Dillin was named the new council president filling the vacancy created by Norris S. Boothe who has resigned to accept the mayors post.

The mayor's post was given up at the last meeting by Charles J. Ringer, who resigned "on my doctor's advice."

Boothe was in the hospital Monday for a "routine check-up" and will not be sworn into office until council meets Nov. 3.

'Y' Officials Hopeful Of Member Hike

"It's not too late to give your support to another year of 'Y' work in the community," officials of the Hilltop YMCA membership canvass said this week.

While final tabulations are not all in, the drive chairmen are hopeful that recalls and more volunteer membership will bring totals up. A slump over the 1957 figure became apparent this week, even though the goal was set 166 higher than last year's enrollment of 2434 members.

"If you've been missed in our canvass and wish to be a part of what we consider a most worthwhile effort, call us today and we'll send someone to see you," said Al Hallowell, branch executive.

One-year memberships at $2 for adults and $1 for youths may be obtained by calling the "Y" office at BR. 9-4641.

Dance Successful

According to reports, Cub Pack 114's big round and square dance last week was a grand success. Several recommended that the dance be held monthly, on a non-profit basis. A meeting of the committee will be called Sunday, Oct. 12, to take action on these proposals. It will take place at the home of Elmer Nixon, packs treasurer.

Members of Cub Pack 114 have been selling popper and vanilla recently to earn money for their pack treasury.

Pack 357 Holds Inspection

Hilltonia EUB Church Cub Pack 357 had its first pack meeting of the season Oct. 2. Den 2 had the opening and closing exercises.

Sheldon Haiser, neighborhood commissioner, conducted the roll call and held annual inspection with Harold Arnold, neighborhood commissioner and camp and activities director, and John Snider, scoutmaster of Troop 357, assisting.

Advancement awards were made to the following: Richard Greene and Ricki Greene, Bear; Billy Fisher and Larry Long, Lion and Webelos; Steve Doane, John Howell, Monty Chase and Richard Dehman were promoted to the Webelos Den and Bruce Kelly, Ricki Chaffin, Bobby Weisenberger and Alan Hane were advanced to the Boy Scout troop. Scoutmaster Snider welcomed the new members and presented a chow kit to each.

The pack committee will meet Thursday evening, Oct. 9, to plan a Haloween party.

A third place award was presented to the pack for newswriting and public relations by the Central Ohio Scout Council at the Scouter's Convention, Sept 26 at Capital University.

Plan Training Course

A parents' training course is being planned by Pack 226, for Wednesday, Oct. 8, from 7:30 to 9:30.

Pack leaders feel that such a course is necessary to properly acquaint the parents with Cub Scout advancement—since the parents must verify the scout's progress in meeting these requirements.

After the meeting, a Bobcat award will be presented to Paul Lewis and a gold arrow-head to Allen Hale.

Make Fire Safety Foremost Thought

If you own a home or are planning to build or buy one, make fire safety a foremost thought.

Few things can take your home and one or more of your loved ones away from you more quickly and tragically than a fire. And one of the hardest things you'd ever have to live down would be the knowledge that the fire probably could have been prevented.

The fire safe home, Chief Walter Strickfaden of the Columbus Fire Department, points out, has two important factors: good family habits about fire and its dangers, and good construction.

Good family habits include such things as care with matches and smoking, good housekeeping to get rid of rubbish, proper use of electrical fuses, appliances and extension cords, and a sound general awareness of the ways fires start and how to avoid them.

Good construction for a fire safe home, according to the National Fire Protection Association, includes:

1. Built-in fire stops. These are barriers of wood or masonry between studs, joists, rafters, or stringers that serve to prevent the spread of smoke and fire. In existing homes, when open channels can be seen from the basement or attic, they should be blocked off by the homeowner with 2-inch lumber nailed into place or with bricks and mortar.

2. Solid doors on every room. An ordinary wooden door can keep smoke and fire out of a room for as long as 30 minutes. Ideally, bedroom doors should be kept closed at night. An intercom system can be installed so that parents can hear children.

3. Good escape routes. Best exits lead directly outside, not through other rooms. Windows should be large enough and low enough to climb through, and operate easily enough for the youngest member of the family.

4. Interior finish of materials with low flame-spread characteristics. Wallboards made of gypsum, cement, asbestos and similar materials are noncombustible and resist the spread of flame. On the other hand, flame spread is a dangerous hazard with certain other types of wallboard.

5. Fire-resistant roofing material. The National Fire Protection Association says that wood shingles never be used as a roof covering. Flammable wood shingles can ignite easily from sparks and big fires often spread from them, via burning brands. The NFPA recommends a fire-resistant roofing material, such as asphalt shingles, slate, asbestos, or metal.

6. Proper wiring. Qualified electricians observe the provisions of the National Electrical Code when installing wiring in new homes and during remodeling, which means a fire safe installation.

7. A good heating plant properly installed and located. Many furnaces manufactured today are equipped with fire-preventing safety devices. But they must be cleaned and inspected regularly. A furnace never should be located under stairs or near an entrance where fire originating in the heater might block escape. A furnace also needs ample air for combustion and adequate clearance from walls to ceilings.

To The Student

At this time of year, when students have now begun the 1958-59 school years, at both high schools and colleges, we think a word is in order for them. Even if this editorial is read by only one student, we think it is worth while writing it.

Of course, nothing is so free as advice, and yet advice is about all that an older person can give a boy or a girl. As a result, every individual, when given the slightest excuses come forth with words of advice.

The students of the high schools and colleges of our country live in an era which will challenge their intelligence as they attempt to express ideals in actual life. They are confronted with perhaps the greatest menace which has ever confronted our country, and they may have to solve problems which are far more complex than any which have so far faced this young Republic.

The fact that we since our independence, have successfully maintained this independence—as far as external agression is concerned—does not automatically solve the problems that confront the new generation. It is not for an editor, in an editorial, to outline an easy solution to these problems, or paint a rosy picture for the generation coming along.

On the other hand, we think that those students in the United States today come along in a great era, when their country is the leading country of the world, and when the challenge they face is a tremendous one. We have plentiful resources, live in a country with plenty, and an era when opportunities are great for all young people.

The one suggestion we would seriously make, as far as serious advice is concerned, in a specific way, is that enlightened young men and women must have a purpose in life. It has been apparent to the wise men of the ages that the intelligent graduate of college, or high school in the application of training and experience to the issues that will confront him, must have a fixed and guiding purpose in his mind and heart—if he is to get out of life part of that which is available to him.

Bible Comment

Jesus Set Pattern For Religion In Striving To Uplift Lost People

Many persons express surprise that a man of the cloth will always accompany a condemned man to his death, or that missionaries spend their lives working to uplift, educate and convert savages and derelicts to a finer way of life.

The question, "Are these people worth it?" is answered clearly in the Bible.

We have record that Christ was entertained in the home of Levi, where many publicans and sinners sat down to eat with Him. The narrow-minded Pharisees complained, "The man receiveth sinners and eateth with them."

The incident was an epochal contradiction to the shop-worn adage, "A man is known by the company he keeps."

In meeting people on their own level, Christ lifted those people to something higher.

The dedicated missionaries and others who administer to the insane and the vagrant are doing more than meeting those unfortunates on their own level—they are seeking to emulate efforts of Christ.

Those that they administer to must not be judged simply by their outward appearances. How many of the lost and backward have been uplifted to responsible places in civilized society may never be known. But the inroads that the workers of Jesus make daily into ignorance, despair and misfortune must eventually contribute to a reshaped world—a finer society inspired by Christian Love.

South Side Boy Wins Carrier Contest Bike

EAGER TO MOUNT — Billy Wanner stopped just long enough to pose for the photographer and then he was off for another spin on his new prize.

Perhaps the luckiest and happiest young boy in the city this week, South Sider Billy Wanner, 12, was holder of the winning ticket for the grand prize in the Hartley Newspaper Carrier Contest.

The prize is a new Huffy bicycle. Billy, who seems more than deserving because his own bike was stolen several months ago, was stunned when notified his ticket had been drawn.

Wins Against Great Odds

The youth's chances for the bike were slim. There were approximately 2,000 tickets entered for the grand prize. Each carrier was given one chance for each 10 points he made by acquiring new customers.

Some of the Hartley paper carriers had as many as 150 tickets entered in the drawing. Billy had two tickets in the barrel! That's luck!

Billy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Wanner, of 940 Oakwood, said the yoyuth had tried to build of 940 Oakwood, said the youth had tried to build Wanner said her son's present "bike" was always breaking down. "The back tire alone had nine patches on it," added Billy with a chuckle.

The youth, who has been delivering the South Side Leader for about 15 months, is a seventh grade student at Corpus Christi School. Billy wants to become a priest and is now practicing with a little altar he set up in the basement.

More Than $900 in Prizes

Of the 250 carriers participating, 124 boys reaped prizes totaling more than $900 in value. Prizes range from a home disc-recorder to underwater swimming goggles. Carriers will receive their winnings around Wednesday, Oct. 15.

The bike was the top prize in a three-month contest for carriers of the Hilltop Record, South Side Leader and West Side News.

Gardner was in Columbus in connection with the current United Appeal campaign.

West Shows Renewed Spirit After Moral Victory In Loss

Francis, New Plays Prepped For Central

By BOB WILCOX

This Friday evening, at Central, West will take on a foe that was one of their few victims last year and about the only game in which West really "played ball."

Central finally won its first game last Friday, downing St. Charles, 28-6. (West beat them 21-7 last year with halfback Henry Harriston scoring their only TD). Central always boasts speed to burn and Harriston is back to lead that parade of speedsters.

Coach Frank Howe's squad uses the short punt, the split "T" with the unbalanced line and a lot of single wing. They use an unusual defense . . . a 4-4-3, or a four-man line. Their losses this year have been to two real tough powerhouses . . . South and Steubenville.

Their line weight is only fair (but speedy), not noted for their passing in the past they have used that weapon extensively this season. They scored against South three times in the fourth period . . . all on passes. But they still love their end sweeps with all their speed.

So between the taste that West may have emerged with from their encounter with South . . . Central's revenge motive . . . West's desire to repeat last year's performance . . . and Central's losses all coming at the hands of powerhouses . . . it could be a rough night for the Cowboys . . . or a very interesting one!

West's scouts report that Central is quick to take advantage and make their own breaks . . . very alert and aggressive. They consider them to be the best tacklers and blockers they've seen in a long time.

Come early for the best seats and parking space.

South Encounter Is Close . . .

The Cowboys almost did it . . . almost pulled the upset of the season in Central Ohio football warring. They came the closest to the real definition of a 'moral victory' in their 6-0 loss to South last Friday night.

There isn't much to write about (little scoring) and yet there's lots to say (West's unusually fine showing).

West took the opening kickoff and starting on their own 34 quickly picked up a first down. However with a first and ten on their 46, Dave Francis fumbled after picking up three yards and South recovered on the West 49.

From there in ten plays South had scored for the first and last TD of the evening's "performance." Halfback Bob Goodwin scooted around right end for the final yard. The big gainer in the drive was a 16 yarder also around right end for Goodwin and a 10 yard left end sweep by half Charlie Williams. George Jones attempted kick for the extra point was blocked by Tom Myers.

The remainder of the game boiled down to first one long drive by one team and then the other; some starting deep in their own territory had some penetrating fairly deep into enemy land . . . but never far enough to dent the scoring column before stalling or being stalled.

The Cowboys definitely looked their best of the season, most of the time . . . but occasionally went back to their old tricks of 'hurting' their own cause. It was frequent enough to keep them from obtaining a perhaps deserved victory.

As at Eastmoor and earlier contests, West's penalties hurt them a great deal. In addition a bad case of 'fumbilitis' which really hurt their drives. West fumbled twice and lost the ball twice; one resulting in South's score. On several other occasions there was juggling or fumbling in the West backfield, but was recovered by them, also. South was also somewhat stalled up on fumbles with West's Bill Smith covering one.

West was penalized five times for 45 yards while South (mostly on 'delay') were marched backwards 30 yards on four occasions. West's included a couple of clipping and one illegal forward pass.

Show Improved Speed

However on the good side West showed more speed than in previous games and their overall appearance, snap, spirit seemed much, much improved and encouraging for future contests . . . if they keep it up and constantly improve on all phases of the game at the same time. Halfback Bob Pate, normally a defensive specialist, did some ballcarrying and showed some mighty fine high stepping sprinting. But again Francis was the "bullwork" of West's drives.

Francis carried 25 times for 140 yards and an excellent (esp. for a fullback or 'inside' runner) average of 5.6. Again and again he made holes where they weren't, or carried several enemy tacklers with him for good gains.

There are two famed 'bulling' fullbacks in various levels of football today that Francis can very well be compared to . . . remembering his age, experience and schooling level . . . They are Jimmy Brown of the Cleveland Browns (pro), and Bob White of OSU (college); Francis does not resemble either in 'sulking' physical make-up, but could certainly be considered their high school counterpart! On the first play from scrimmage Francis slipped and fall after picking up 15 yards, or he would probably have gone all the way.

In general the Cowboys' tackling was somewhat improved, but occasions did occur when the southerners were caught in their own backfield or even 'touched' by 2-3 men past the line of scrimmage, but got away. West also showed some fairly good pass defense work. South's longest completion was a 27-yard flat pass.

South had one of the best all-around backfield units that you will come across in high school ball. All could move that ball, and although Woodyard was a good passer and a beautiful faker, so could some of the other backs throw. Woodyard was injured in the first half returned late in the game, but his understudy, Jones, did not seem to work any hardship on their offense . . . perhaps less passing, but . . .

Last week West came up with two innovations for the '58 season, running plays without a huddle with time at a premium and a quick switch of formation prior to punting. This week they more successfully pulled some more new tricks from the hat. They used reverses and the old "mousetrap play" made famous by the Cleveland Browns' Marion Motley. Francis worked this latter play to perfection twice, but South soon caught on to the formation.

If coach Schmitter can come up with one or two variations of the same lineup . . . what a possibility! On this play they employed wide flankers and ends and sometimes double flankers.

Don Uldricks started at quarter for the Westerners, but after a bad pitchout, he soon departed the scene. Junior Bill Kern took over and ran the outfit most of the rest of the game . . . and did a very acceptable job considering his inexperience, etc. He and Rick Banker (who took over in the last few seconds for some desperation throwing) showed some nice throwing, but somewhat off-target. Practice could perfect this, and would certainly help the offense.

In the last period West got a break when South's punter was forced to run to his left and got off a very short wobbly kick on the run. However a Cowboy, instead of waiting for it, tried to leap for it . . . (well over his head) . . . and managed to touch it, but not hold it . . . and South recovered.

All in all, we were impressed and enthused over what we saw in defeat for the Cowboys . . . and if they should keep it up . . . well, maybe it all won't be dark the rest of the season.

Meet The Cowboys

FIRST OF A SERIES . . .

Ray Horky . . . better known around West High as "Hork." . . was born Feb. 28, 1940, in Springfield, Mass. After five years his family moved "west" and settled on the Hilltop.

Ray, now 18, abruptly and quite unexpectedly ended his third year of varsity football at West three weeks ago.

Throwing a block in practice the week after the season opened, he came up with what he and the coaching staff thought was a a bad strain in the right arm. The arm stiffened and a check with the doctor showed a hairline up-down break.

He is definitely out for at lease four weeks . . . and perhaps longer. Although it is hightly doubtful that he will return this season, he strongly hopes to

As an outstanding performer at end last season, many good things were expected from Ray, one of this year's co-captains. With West's epidemic of injuries and ineligibilities, Ray's loss was most keenly felt.

Ray loves to hunt, water ski and horseback ride. He quickly learned to shoot even with his arm in cast and was "afield" shortly after his injury "rounding" up squirrels.

Maintaining a B-plus average in his school work, he is also active in Hi-Y and the CYO. He is a member of St. Mary Magdalene parish. He hopes to play his fourth year of basketball at West this year, at guard.

Ray attended St. Mary Magdalene elementary school for five years and then transferred to the first graduating class of Westgate grade school. He went to West Junior High.

Future plans call for some time in college and some in the air force—he's not sure which will come first. He hopes to play some college football.

Still maintaining his very deep "love" for New England, he hopes to attend an eastern college, possibly one of the Ivy League schools, and to major in business administration.

Birds Hold Newark Crew While Losing

Take away a jittery first quarter last Friday at Newark and you find Franklin Heights yielding to the state-ranked eleven after a hotly contested game, 14-0.

But add that first stanza back into the total and you get the score that stands in the record books, 28-0.

Newark pounded out each touchdown with the little Falcon line battering the opponent's forward wall constantly.

Although Heights never did score, the Birds were inside Newark's 20 on four occasions. Fumbles or penalties cost them what might have been enough to tie the game.

Coach Tom Elliott was somewhat satisfied with his squad, although he felt they were capable of pressing the Wildcats a great deal more.

Franklin's record now stands at 1-3 heading into South Central Ohio League play.

City Asks Raising Bids

Bids are being asked by the city for the razing of a two-story frame building at 445 S. Highland-av, along with a 1½-story frame building at the rear of that address. They are one of several in the city that have been condemned.

The demolition bill will be paid by the city, which will, in turn, place the charges against the tax dulpicate to regain the money.

Fired-Up Pirates Meet West Friday

By Don Zacharlah

Central made the victory column in its opening home game for the first time this season with a 28-8 win over St. Charles. Henry Hairston, 161-pound halfback speedster for the Pirates, scored the game's first three touchdowns.

Hairston streaked across the goal line from 15 yards out to score the opening touchdown just before the first quarter ended. He scored twice more in the third by bucking his way into the clear to go for 55 yards on a quick opener, and racing 64 yards down the sidelines after he was seemingly halted.

St. Charles hit pay dirt early in the fourth quarter. However, Central came right back to counter on a 15-yard run by Otis Glover around his left end to make the final score 28-8.

The clock was an important game factor for both teams. Central threatened to score just before halftime and St. Charles missed the last scoring opportunity of the game, as time ran out. The Pirates played a so-so offensive game during the first half, but returned as a fired-up team in the last period.

The Pirates had only an 8-0 lead at the half. The first touchdown was set up on a 25-yard pass to Dave Brockmeyer. The fast charging defense of Central held St. Charles from making much headway during the second quarter.

Central gained possession of the ball in the early moments of the third period by holding on their own 10-yard line. Glover moved the ball out to the 40-yard line and Hairston broke away on the next play to score on his 55-yard scamper.

Hairston made his 60-yard sprint after St. Charles was forced to punt on the next series of plays. Fred Gray deceived the Carolians into letting the ball roll almost to a dead stop before snatching the pigskin and making a 10-yard runback for Central.

Jim Gunnell received passes to score two conversion points each on the first two touchdowns. The Pirates were not so successful in scoring extra points on their last two touchdowns.

Central will tangle with West at the downtown stadium for their homecoming game this week-end. The action with the Cowboys should be most interesting, since West has not been able to score in its last two outings with Eastmoor and South.

Last Wednesday afternoon the opening game of the Sunshine Recreation Center football league, was played. The Packers and the Lions played to a 6-6 tie.

In the first quarter, Cahill went 15 yards on a reverse, to be first scorer for the Packers. Later Joe Scowden went 30 yards and Parker scored on an end run.

Outstanding defensive players for the Packers were Vincent and Humphrey.

On Thursday, the Eagles battled the Browns to a 0-0 tie. White ran for 60 yards for the Eagles in the last quarter for their most serious threat. Charles Cook had a number of outstanding runs for the Browns. Cochenauer for the Eagles and Stalling for the Browns were excellent on defense.

The league schedule calls for a single game on Wednesday and Thursday with for all four teams to play each Saturday. Three rounds of play will take place.

Craig Baker Wins Again

Craig Baker won the Glenwood Center championship Yo-Yo Contest last Friday with a perfect score of 100. Craig was awarded a trophy cup and emblem for his effort.

A woman's idea of keeping a secret is refusing to tell who told it to her.—Frances Rodman.

Cowboys Edge Out Polar Bears At Glenwood

The Cowboys, on the strength of a touchdown scored in the last eight seconds of the game, defeated the Polar Bears 12 to 7 in the Glenwood Junior Boys football league. By winning, the Cowboys remained undefeated and hold an 8-0 season mark.

A clicking passing combination of Bernard Kinzer to Larry Graves was good for three touchdowns and several other long gains as the Terriers beat the Bulldogs 39-16.

An aggressive Bulldog team, led by backs Clinton Graves and Bob Hampton, upset the Polar Bears 19-0. Quarterbacked by John Goodin, the Bulldogs displayed a relentless ground-gaining attack.

A hard-driving Terrier team rallied for one touchdown in the second half before bowing to the Cowboys 14-7. The Cowboys line arose to the occasion several times to thwart Terrier drives within the Cowboys 10 yard line.

Kids' Bowling Leagues Begin

Glenwood Recreation Center will once again sponsor Bantam and Junior Bowling Leagues.

The leagues will meet on Tuesday and Thursday of every week from 4 to 6 p.m. at the Hilltop Lanes.

Taxidermist Gets His Goat

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROD COCHRAN

MAX SHIPLEY, taxidermist, surveys his hard-earned mountain goat hide and horns . . . one trophy he will stuff and get to keep for himself.

Two or three years ago a man brough a mountain goat head to Max Shipley, 705 S Ogden-av, to be mounted. Max is a well known taxidermist and sportsman in this area, and unusual game trophies from all over the world are brought to him regularly.

As is his custom, Shipley lent an enthusiastic ear to the proud hunter. This particular goat was bagged in British Columbia near a little town called Fernie. It was a fine specimen, and as the hunter talked Max made himself a promise. Some day he, too, would travel to Fernie and hunt mountain goats.

This was the year, and Shipley returned just last week with a goat that will rank well in the record books. A goat head is not a spectacular trophy—not like a moose or our native white-tail deer. Goat horns are two single spikes; delicate and shiny black. In the trophy room of a hunting lodge they might be missed completely by a casual

But as Shipley handles those beautifully recurved spikes, he will tell you that he worked harder for them than for any piece of game he has ever taken. They represent an achievement far greater than any of his other hunting trophies.

All of Shipley's dreams about the Fernie region were fulfilled. He saw goats every day, and waited until he was in range of a perfect trophy. Other game was plentiful. He saw a truly magnificent elk, and spent three precious days of his 11-day hunt trying to get a shot. But luck was not with him on the elk, so he returned to the main business at hand—getting a trophy goat.

Shot Had To Be Good

The male Shipley shot was in an almost impossible position. He was head of a band of 10, and was taking good care of them. Finally, Shipley and his guide got within 300 yards of them and decided to shoot. The pressure was on. Shipley had to make a good shot. If the goat was only wounded, they would never see him again in the mountainous terrain. If he did not drop the "old Billy" on the spot, he could roll over a ledge and the delicate horns would be ruined. With all of this on his mind, Shipley shot.

The first shot missed completely. He and the guide were above the band of goats, and the goats still didn't spot them. Shipley squeezed off another shot to drop the monarch in his tracks. Even though the shot was made at about 300 yards, it took the guide three hours to get to the goat, skin him out, and return.

How do you get to a place where you can see mountain goats every day? Well, Max Shipley traveled 2300 miles, one way, by train. Toward the end of the trip the "train" had only one car, that Shipley shared with other hunters and prospectors. In Fernie he teamed up with Bruno Richter from Lombard, Ill.—the man who developed the device that successfully changes the blood in blue babies. They hunted the same area.

In addition to the two hunters, the party consisted of two guides, a horse wrangler, a cook, and 12 horses. They went into the mountains 22 miles by horseback to set up camp.

Saw Plenty of Game

Shipley has hunted many places on this continent, but feels that this is his most outstanding trip. The country there is wild and primitive. Game was everywhere, but since Max was hunting trophy heads he passed up shots almost every day. He could have bagged a moose, but the rack was only about 37 inches across, so he simply watched the animal wend its way along the game trail.

Deer were plentiful, and were up to the camp every night cleaning up oats spilled by the horses.

Shipley saw one black bear, Ptarmigan, a type of grouse, were abundant, and they bagged some for the pot.

Max hasn't scored his goat head according to official Boone and Crockett Club system. He must wait for 60 days to allow for shrinkage. But it's an outstanding head, and certain to put Shipley's name in the record books.

Fired-Up Pirates Meet West Friday

By Don Zachariah

Central made the victory column in its opening home game for the first time this season with a 28-8 win over St. Charles. Henry Hairston, 161-pound halfback speedster for the Pirates, scored the game's first three touchdowns.

Hairston streaked across the goal line from 15 yards out to score the opening touchdown just before the first quarter ended. He scored twice more in the third by bucking his way into the clear to go for 55 yards on a quick opener, and racing 64 yards down the sidelines after he was seemingly halted.

St. Charles hit pay dirt early in the fourth quarter. However, Central came right back to counter on a 15-yard run by Otis Glover around his left end to make the final score 28-8.

The clock was an important game factor for both teams. Central threatened to score just before halftime and St. Charles missed the last scoring opportunity of the game as time ran out. The Pirates played a sense offensive game during the first half, but returned as a fired-up team in the last period.

The Pirates had only an 8-0 lead at the half. The first touchdown was set up on a 25-yard pass to Dave Brockmeyer. The fast charging defense of Central held St. Charles from making much headway during the second quarter.

Central gained possession of the ball in the early moments of the third period by holding on their own 10-yard line. Glover moved the ball out to the 40-yard line and Hairston broke away on the next play to score on his 55-yard scamper.

Hairston made his 60-yard sprint after St. Charles was forced to punt on the next series of plays. Fred Grey deceived the Carolians into letting the ball roll almost to a dead stop before snatching the pigskin and making a 10-yard runback for Central.

Jim Gunnell received passes to score two conversion points each on the first two touchdowns. The Pirates were not so successful in scoring extra points on their last two touchdowns.

Central will tangle with West at the downtown stadium for their homecoming game this week-end. The action with the Cowboys should be most interesting, since West has not been able to score in its last two outings with Eastmoor and South.

Action Begins On Sunshine Grid Fields

Last Wednesday afternoon the opening game of the Sunshine Recreation Center football league, was played. The Packers and the Lions played to a 6-6 tie.

In the first quarter, Cahill went 15 yards on a reverse, to be first scorer for the Packers. Later Joe Scowden went 30 yards and Parker scored on an end run.

Outstanding defensive players for the Packers were Vincent and Humphrey.

On Thursday, the Eagles battled the Browns to a 0-0 tie. White ran for 60 yards for the Eagles in the last quarter for their most serious threat. Charles Cook had a number of outstanding runs for the Browns. Cochenauer for the Eagles and Stalling for the Browns were excellent on defense.

The league schedule calls for a single game on Wednesday and Thursday and for all four teams to play each Saturday. Three rounds of play will take place. . . .

Craig Baker Wins Again

Craig Baker won the Glenwood Center championship Yo-Ye Contest last Friday with a perfect score of 100. Craig was awarded a trophy cup and emblem for his effort.

Bill Miller placed second with score of 75 and was awarded a jeweled Yo-Ye. Cynthia Echols once again took the girls' honors with a score of 90 while Dorothy Devereaux placed second.

All of these winners and runners-up qualify for the District finals which will be held Wednesday, Oct. 8 at 4 p.m.

Cowboys Edge Out Polar Bears At Glenwood

The Cowboys, on the strength of a touchdown scored in the last eight seconds of the game, defeated the Polar Bears 12 to 7 in the Glenwood Junior Boys football league. By winning, the Cowboys remained undefeated and hold an 8-0 season mark.

A clicking passing combination of Berannd Kinzer to Larry Graves was good for three touchdowns and several other long gains as the Terriers beat the Bulldogs 39-16.

An aggressive Bulldog team, led by backs Clinton Graves and Bob Hampton, upset the Polar Bears 19-0. Quarterbacked by John Goodin, the Bulldogs displayed a relentless ground-gaining attack.

A hard-driving Terrier team rallied for one touchdown in the second half before bowing to the Cowboys 14-7. The Cowboys line arose to the occasion several times to thwart Terrier drives within the Cowboys 10 yard line.

Kids' Bowling Leagues Begin

Shot Had To Be Good

The male Shipley shot was in an almost impossible position. He was head of a band of 10, and was taking good care of them. Finally, Shipley and his guide got within 200 yards of them and decided to shoot. The pressure was on. Shipley had to make a good shot. If the goat was only wounded, they would never see him again in the mountainous terrain. If he did not drop the "old Billy" on the spot, he could roll over a ledge and the delicate horns would be ruined. With all of this on his mind, Shipley shot.

The first shot missed completely. He and the guide were above the band of goats, and the goats still didn't spot them. Shipley squeezed off another shot to drop the monarch in his tracks. Even though the shot was made at about 300 yards, it took the guide three hours to get to the goat, skin him out, and return.

How do you get to a place where you can see mountain goats every day? Well, Max Shipley traveled 2300 miles, one way, by train. Toward the end of the trip the "train" had only one car, that Shipley shared with other hunters and prospectors. In Fernie he teamed up with Bruno Richter from Lombard, Ill.—the man who developed the device that successfully changes the blood in blue babies. They hunted the same area.

In addition to the two hunters, the party consisted of two guides, a horse wrangler, a cook, and 12 horses. They went into the mountains 23 miles by horseback to set up camp.

Saw Plenty of Game

Shipley has hunted many places on this continent, but feels that this is his most outstanding trip. The country there is wild and primitive. Game was everywhere, but since Max was hunting trophy heads he passed up shots almost every day. He could have bagged a moose, but the rack was only about 37 inches across, so he simply watched the animal wend its way along the game trail.

Deer were plentiful, and were up to the camp every night cleaning up oats spilled by the horses.

Shipley saw one black bear, Ptarmigan, a type of grouse, were abundant, and they bagged some for the pot.

Max hasn't scored his goat head according to official Boone and Crockett Club system. He must wait for 60 days to allow for shrinkage. But it's an outstanding head, and certain to put Shipley's name in the record books.

Let's talk about

YOUR RETIREMENT

We all look forward to happy retirement years. Our time will be our own and we will be free to do those wonderful things we had somehow never found the time to do before. But whether our plans include travel or a house in the country or golf or painting, we will need an income. Remember that life insurance can provide the necessary income to allow you to maintain your accustomed standard of living. It also assures your family of financial protection through the intervening years.

Do what I can to do all service. Why not give me a call? You will be under no obligation.

Guide Forms Booklet

Again in this issue, subscribers to the six Hartley newspapers will receive a weekly guide to the top television programs on all four Columbus area stations. To fold the page into a handy booklet, follow these simple instructions: Taking the page as it is presented in the paper, fold it vertically in half. Then fold the top of the page to the bottom twice until the front page of the section appears. The first three days then follow in order. By turning the page over, the other four days appear.

Boys' Football Team Needs Equipment, League Tie-Up

Mrs. Violet Swanson, 821 Wedgewood-dr, Westgate Manor, has a football team that has a field, helmets and worn-out shoulder pads, and also its share of troubles.

Mrs. Swanson, a grandmother of seven children, recently took 22 Westgate youths under her wing ranging in age from 13 to 17. They all love to play football and Mrs. Swanson thought something should be done to channel their energies into healthy recreation. According to Mrs. Swanson, many of the boys come from broken homes.

To date, H. A. Berger, manager of Westgate Manor, has donated a field and a civic club has offered help in securing uniforms, but . . . on the stipulation that the team be "organized" by being in a league.

As for the equipment, Mrs. Swanson called the Recreation Department, police, juvenile court and others for help. She said that the boys have helmets and have obtained worn-out shoulder pads from Otterbein College. To date, three boys have been badly injured because they have not had adequate equipment.

Mrs. Swanson has had difficulty securing the cooperation of the boys' parents. When she called a meeting on the subject of the need of such a team, only three parents showed up.

But two other big problems plague the team even more. Money is needed for adequate equipment and two large electric posts are located right on the team's 20 yard line. Mrs. Swanson hopes the poles can be removed soon.

Mrs. Swanson would like residents of the Manor to each donate 25c toward the team's needed equipment and, if anybody has a league that the boys could get into now, or if any qualified person such as a past football player or coach is willing to help out the team, she can be reached at BR. 6-1177 until 5 p.m. and BR. 4-0773 after that.

The boys are playing their third game this Sunday, 3 p.m., on their field, located in back of Mrs. Swanson's apartment building.

Your Youth

By Al Hollowell and

The fall program at the Hilltop YMCA is now moving into high gear.

At present there are six Gra-Y Clubs meeting regularly on the Hilltop. This week plans have been made to begin a club in the new Valleyview school. Following this, a club will be organized at Limbergh. Anyone interested in belonging should contact his principal or call the "Y" at BR. 9-4641 for meeting dates.

West Junior Hi-Y is holding meetings at 7 p.m. every Tuesday. Hilltonia has also begun meetings under the guidance of Mr. Fred Ricketts. A seventh grade club is in the planning stage at Hilltonia. Details will be announced soon.

Saturday morning the Gra-Y touch football league will be getting under way in both the North and South divisions. West Broad and Westgate will kick off the North division activity as they meet on the new "Y" lot on Valleyview-dr. In the South section Binns' and John Burroughs will meet at 9 a.m. on the Burroughs field. Following this encounter Highland will play West Mound at 10:30 on the same field.

Plans are now being made for the annual fall trip sponsored by the Hilltop Lions Club. Tentative plans indicate that this year the first 100 lucky boys to sign up will be making a trip to see Ohio University play a game in Athens. Keep watching this column for details about this trip.

Food Markets This Week

by Mrs. Estelle B. Franks

THIS WEEK LOOK FOR:
Apples, grapes, cauliflower, cabbage, escarole, potatoes, squash, turnips, frozen peas, canned beets, chuck roast, fryers, frozen ocean perch.

GOOD APPLE YEAR

Apples now make eye-catching displays at all roadside stands and food markets. This year's crop is a good one. Nationally, production will run about 127 million bushels. The Ohio crop is estimated at 3.2 million bushels—12% above a year ago. You can look forward to a good supply of apples throughout the year at favorable prices. Modern storage makes this possible, although harvesting of apples takes place in September and October.

Apple Buying Facts—Leading varieties now are McIntosh, Jonathan, Cortland and Delicious. Four things to keep in mind when buying apples are: maturity, condition, variety, and intended use.

Apples are at their best in flavor when they are of optimum maturity. One of the best indications of maturity is the color of the apple. Check background color of apples carefully. When the background color of a red variety is green, it is not fully mature. The same is true of yellow varieties.

For some purposes the smaller apples may be a better buy, economy wise, than larger apples. The small "school boy" apples are especially good for school lunch boxes and after-school snacks. You get more small apples per pound, but less total edible portion.

Apple Uses—Apples fit every meal, and between-meal snacks, too! Use them to add crispness and flavor to salads, vegetables, fish and meat. Try them for stuffing in pork or poultry dishes.

Desserts become enhanced by use of the apple. Minted or glazed apples, or fried apple rings make good accompaniment for meals. Breads and muffins take on a new and delightful flavor with the addition of grated or finely chopped apples.

Polished, this fruit adds rich color to the fruit bowl, or as a center piece for the table. To test their popularity, fill a big bowl of shiny, red apples in the traffic lane of small boys . . . or tall husbands . . . and watch them disappear.

AUTUMN SPECIALS

Broccoli, Brussels sprouts, and cauliflower are important fall vegetables that are in good supply. Cool weather means high quality for these "cabbage cousins." They'll add color and flavor interest to autumn meals at a reasonable cost.

EMERGENCY SERVICE

On most turnpikes an emergency truck passes a given spot every 45 minutes or so. The usual distress signal is to raise the car's hood, or to put a white handkerchief in the left front window, or both. The driver should pull off the road onto the outside shoulder, stay in the car, and wait for help to arrive.

Farm leader urges: Give workers same freedom of choice as farmers

Charles B. Shuman, President, American Farm Bureau Federation, speaks out in favor of Right to Work in this article reprinted by permission of Nation's Agriculture.

Week after week more and more of the unsavory stench of labor union corruption has been brought to public attention by Congressional investigation. Mass picketing, bombings, secondary boycotts, gangster control, murder, shakedown of employers, arson, theft of trust and pension funds — countless other examples to prove that "power tends to corrupt and absolute power corrupts absolutely."

Labor has the greatest political and economic power ever permitted any organized group in the history of our nation. Current legislative proposals that deal only with the results of the misuse of power will not correct this disgraceful situation. Only by restricting the power of the unions will we eliminate the gangsters, goons and grafters and permit the membership to regain control of their organizations.

There are two principal sources of the dangerous labor union power — exemption from prosecution as a monopoly under antitrust laws and compulsory union membership. No business or financial monopoly was ever more ruthless in fixing prices and restricting competition than is the modern-day labor monopoly — often in collaboration with big business and with government encouragement. Legislation to control this monopoly is badly needed but is unlikely as labor controls one political party and neutralizes the other with fear.

WHAT RIGHT TO WORK WILL DO:

Give every man and woman in Ohio freedom to join or not to join a labor union.

Give every man and woman in Ohio freedom to pay or not to pay money to a labor union.

Prohibit compulsory "Union Shop" agreements between employers and labor officials under which an employee must pay union dues or be fired.

Make Unions voluntary organizations conducted by members free to set, investigate or resign, as are religious, farm, political or other organizations.

Require Union employers to compare members on the basis of services performed rather than compulsion.

Help correct such abuses of power by union professional union officials as have become a matter of public knowledge.

Return to Union members effective control of the way their dues and assessments are spent.

Stop forced contributions used for financing candidates, programs of political domination.

Help battle public and member confidence in the labor movement.

WHAT RIGHT TO WORK WILL NOT DO:

Not interfere with the legal right of employees to organize and bargain collectively.

Not affect hours, seniority, or pensions.

Not affect wages or bargaining for higher wages.

Not permit any employer to fire anyone because of union membership or non-membership.

Not interfere with union membership campaigns.

HERE IS THE AMENDMENT

"No employer or labor organization shall deny or abridge the right to work by requiring membership or non-membership in, or payment or non-payment of money to, a labor organization as a condition of employment or continued employment in this State. All agreements in conflict with this Section are, to the extent of such conflict, unlawful and of no effect in this State. Section 1a of Article 1 of the Constitution."

Compulsory union membership is an important source of power because control of job opportunity is actually the power to control the worker's life. Fear is the tool of power-hungry organizers — fear of union expulsion and loss of job, fear of heavy fines imposed by union officers, fear of property damage, fear of physical violence to self or family. In opposing forced membership Samuel Gompers, the founder of modern unionism, once said, "No lasting gain has ever come from compulsion." Much of the present corruption in labor organizations is a result of a lack of member interest in union affairs. Members enrolled by conscription methods cannot be expected to be loyal, interested or participating. Forced membership is facilitated by the check-off system of collecting union dues.

State right-to-work laws assure workers that they cannot be denied a job because they are either members or nonmembers of a labor union. Farmers have taken the lead in bringing about the adoption of these laws in 17 states and are supporting similar action in other states. Farm Bureau members believe in voluntary organization; they recognize the need for labor unions; and they favor collective bargaining between labor and business.

We are not anti-labor! However, we are convinced that right-to-work laws are in the best interests of workers themselves as well as the general public. Compulsory membership in any organization — labor, farm, political or religious — is a denial of one of our fundamental human freedoms — it is a form of servitude.

Justice requires that a balance of power be restored. Right-to-work laws will help restore this balance by making union leaders responsible to their members rather than dictatorial masters over them.

Pope Of Peace Is Gone

From St. Peter's Basilica in Rome to the smallest "grass roots" parishes at the extremes of the earth, Requiem Masses for Pope Pius XII were offered this week.

Catholics and non-Catholics alike lost one of the greatest exponents of peace in our time. The pontiff's death last Thursday drew to a close two decades of illustrious rule of the Catholic faithful.

Beginning on the day after his death, all parishes of the Universal Church joined in an official nine-day period of mourning. Parishes of the Columbus Diocese will remain in mourning until the Pope's successor is chosen.

Black draped Catholic Churches (as in this view of the entrance to St. Aloysius Church) express each parish's sorrow.

The world has lost a great leader.

West Set For '58 Homecoming

Homecoming, excitement peak of every football season, will be marked this weekend at West High with all the traditional pomp and ceremony.

Selection of a queen, chosen by student vote from a court of five finalists will be announced during half-time ceremonies of Friday night's games against Watterson, and a homecoming dance, sponsored by the Alumnae Association, will be held Saturday night in the school gym.

Marching Band, under the direction of Clair Barnard, will present a half-time program of "Autumn Activities." Formations include a leaf, to the music of "Autumn Leaves;" a Bonfire accompanied by "Smoke Gets In Your Eyes."

Crescent moon shape, to the tune of "How High The Moon;" football, "Football Hero," slipper," I Could Have Danced All Night," and a star, accompanied by "Twilight Time."

Pre-game performance will be an exhibition of counter-marching.

A caravan of five cars, arriving on the field at half-time will carry cheerleaders, the queen and court and the girls' escorts.

Varsity cheerleaders will ride in the first car and passengers in the second car will be Pete Trott, president of last year's Student Council and master of ceremonies of half-time events, and Bonnie McIntyre, last year's homecoming queen as well as one of this year's queen candidates.

Gene Beard, representing 12A class president, a football player and therefore unable to participate, will ride in the third car as escort to two of the queen-candidates.

The last two candidates for queen, accompanied by Dan Alder, 12B class president, will ride in the fourth car, and reserve cheerleaders in the fifth.

Bonnie McIntyre will announce the name of the queen and present her successor with a bouquet. Football co-captains Dave Francis and Ray Horky will deliver the traditional kiss.

Crowning ceremonies for the queen will be held during Saturday night's dance.

Don Phillips' orchestra will play for dancing at the semi-formal affair from 9 a.m. until midnight. Tickets are available at the door.

Alumni Association sponsors the annual event. John Pruitt is president of the group.

FOOTBALL FEVER — Has hit all ages, even little Bennie Merrill, 2, son of Mrs. C. R. Merrill, 2530½ W. Broad-st. Ronnie thought he would like to see how he'd look in football togs like the big boys will be wearing at the West-Watterson game, Friday night. Parents Offered Inside Look At West, Central High Schools

West Junior-Senior High School faculty members, preparing for their annual role as hosts to parents during open house Tuesday, Oct. 21, have planned a variation of the usual procedure this year.

The unique program is designed to acquaint parents with school curriculum and to define for them what is expected from students.

Students are asked to remain at home. Parents will report to their youngster's homeroom promptly at 7:30 p.m. and receive from the teacher a schedule of their child's first, third and eighth period classes.

They will then assemble in the auditorium for an address by Dr. Ebling, superintendent of Columbus schools, and a program by West Senior High Choir. Dan Morris, president of student council, will preside.

Bells at the beginning of three short periods will signal time for parents to move to their children's assigned classrooms. During each period, the teacher will explain briefly goals set for the semester's work, and explain what homework is expected of the student.

Those with more than one child enrolled at West may visit the other homerooms between periods and receive from a student on duty copies of their youngster's class schedule.

Robert Darrow, principal at West, explained the innovation with: "The confusion of other years with students crowding the building, and the time loss to parents standing in long lines in order to speak briefly with various teachers, seemed to defeat our purpose of open house.

Conferences Urged

"We urge all parents, concerned about their child's progress in any particular subject, to call the school or write a note to the teacher, requesting a conference. Any teacher will be happy to comply."

West High PTA will also conduct its annual bake sale during open house. Baked goods and candy will be on sale throughout the evening. Mrs. C. Radcliffe and Mrs. H. A. Maxwell are in charge.

'Y' Member Drive Still Incomplete

Hilltop "Y" membership drive figures to date stand at 815 adults and 2069 youth members for a total of 2884 members.

Many returns are still expected. Officials are engaged in covering call-backs for the "Y" drive. Members who have not yet renewed for the coming year may do so by calling the "Y" office at BR. 9-4641. It is hoped that when all recalls have been made that the total of 3000 members will have been reached for this year, said Al Hollowell, executive secretary.

The membership drive is to raise current funds for "Y" operation throughout the year. Officials are hopeful that all "Y" backers will enroll in the coming week.

Judge Supports Reeder Position

Common Pleas Judge Kenneth Sater ruled Tuesday that the removal of Gale L. Reeder, 617 Townsend-av as city civil service secretary and personnel officer was illegal.

Commission members W. H. Brooks and M. D. Franks held that Reeder had no CSC status, while Rand Hollenback supported him. Brooks said today that he favored appeal of the order.

Woman Named Chief

Dr. Leabelle L. Ross, 2708 Welsford-rd, will begin duties as acting superintendent of the State Juvenile Diagnostic Center, 2280 W. Broad-st Thursday.

Central's two new vocational guidance rooms will be open for inspection, and the student advisors on hand to meet parents.

Counsellors' duties include conducting aptitude and intelligence test, advising students on their choice of careers and being available to help them with personal problems.

Students will be assigned to explain to interested parents different displays arranged throughout the building.

Lions' 'Light For Sight' Sale Ending

You may or may not be visited Thursday by a Hilltop Lion as the club makes the final sweep in its annual "Light for Sight" lightbulb sale.

Sale Chairman John Garber declared that more than three fourths of the 22,280 lightbulbs have already been sold to friends and neighbors and in casual solicitation on the part of individual Lions.

All Lions lightbulb teams will assemble on selected street corners at 7 p.m. Thursday and canvass enough houses to sell the remaining few sacks of bulbs. A victory celebration is planned at 8 p.m. in the new building of the Aquarium Products Co., at Sullivant-av and Demorest-rd.

Organizations Pull Together To Assure Happy Halloween

Entertainment and committees are being enlisted to put life into another big community celebration at West High School, Oct. 31.

Hilltop Business Association will have charge of the costume parade and awarding of prizes. Between two and three thousand merry-makers are expected.

Later there will be "canned music" for dancing. This will be directed by the Hilltop Youth Council, with Mrs. H. C. Booth as advisor.

Robert Cassell reported that response for volunteer assistance from Hilltop organizations has been gratifying. Chuck Moore, Glenwood Center director, will coordinate the cafeteria work; Al Hollowell of the "Y" will police the auditorium while Dr. John Thompson of the Lions will head the hall patrol.

Other chairmen include Gene Stinson, BSA Troop 89, first aid; Mrs. W. E. Meservey, St. John's Lutheran, pop; W. F. Poly, Glenwood Center, balloon sales; Mrs. Wanda Radel, Legion Post 98, hat bar; Mrs. Lou Rausch, Kiwanikwe, and Mrs. Arthur Buchanan, Highland Gardens Club, ticket sales.

Subscriber May Collect $115 Today

Four subscribers of Hartley Newspapers found themselves a dollar richer last week, after reading the ads in their newspapers.

Each exchanged his copy, containing a $1 "Confederate" money insignia, for a crisp, new "Confederate" bill, by presenting the newspaper at Hartley Newspapers office before Saturday noon.

Still undiscovered were six $1 insignia and the big jackpot insignia worth $110.

Value of today's jackpot insignia has increased to a whopping big $115.

Ten additional $1 insignia, each worth one "Confederate" bill are also put in circulation in the community this week via Hartley Newspapers' ads.

Church Collapse Damages To Exceed $10,000 Mark

Damage toll from last week's collapse of the rafters and walls of Memorial Baptist Church, under construction on Eakin-rd at Wayne-av, has been guessed by a church spokesman, at an approximate $10,000 to $12,000. Completion date of the building will be delayed for at least three weeks.

Workmen explained the sudden fall of newly-installed rafters and the resulting crash of completed brick walls Monday, Oct. 6, as the result of a "mysterious" blast of wind.

Collapse came just three minutes past noon. Twelve workmen in the church just minutes earlier, escaped injury because of the accident's lunch hour timing.

None of the rafters or materials in the collapsed walls could be salvaged. The flooring was undamaged.

Members, expecting to be in their new church by Thanksgiving, have set their sights on occupancy by Christmas.

Memorial Baptist congregation has sold its old church, in the path of expressway construction, and is now meeting at Hilltonia Junior High School.

The 1908 football team was presented during the pregame ceremonies. Newton played halfback and Raymond played end and quarterback on the 1908 team.

Both admit they aren't playing much football today!

Indifferent Parents, Lack Of Play Areas Are Targets Of Mrs. Swanson's Crusade

By Nancy Pendleton

Carlyle once said, "Our business . . . is not to see what lies dimly at a distance, but to do what lies clearly at hand."

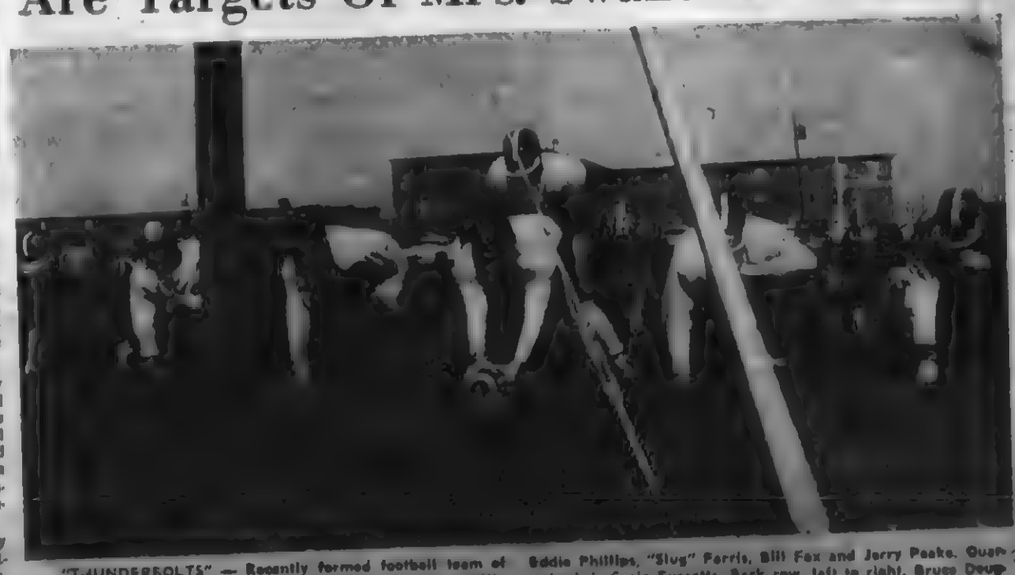
And so it was with Mrs. Bror Swanson, [redacted] Wedgewood-dr, when she saw crowds of teenagers congregating in the drugstore at Westgate Shopping Center, where she clerked every evening and Saturday.

Mrs. Swanson, herself a grandmother, began thinking about the situation and after asking questions decided the youngsters needed recreational outlets. Most are between 13 and 16 and live in Manor apartments. This West Sullivant-av area is not serviced directly by city bus lines. The closest year 'round supervised recreation is found at the overcrowded Hilltop "Y" far across the Hilltop.

Mrs. Swanson asked the kids what they liked to do. They love football. So, she arranged with Henry W. Berger, Westgate Manor's manager (who is a former commissioner of Boy Scouts in New York state and volunteer worker in a New Jersey community house) to allot land adjoining Apartment 810 for a football field.

Ran Into Problems

Goal posts were erected, lines marked off, and "the team" of 22 boys was set to play. But . . . not without difficulties. Three boys became injured because the team lacked adequate equipment.



Mrs. Swanson had called city departments and colleges and rounded up used shoulder pads from Otterbein College. Word spread of her team's needs and donations began coming in. One Columbus firm, who, Mrs. Swanson says, prefers to remain anonymous, donated $100.

Mrs. Swanson put this money in the treasury of the "Westgate Manor Athletic Association," as the youths now call themselves. The association used DETERMINED—Mrs. Bror Swanson, 821 Wedgewood-dr, points out to football players Craig Everetts and Slug Farris some bit of strategy she [redacted] like to see on the playing field.

Engaged Girls Entertained With Party

BRIDES-ELECT FETED — Engaged girls and their mothers of Westside Hilltop, New Rome and Hilliards were entertained by Betty June Scott, hostess for Welcome Wagon, Wednesday, Oct. 8, at Lincoln Lodge. Bridal gowns and attendants' ensembles were modeled by two of the guests, Soni Froggatt and Patty Gard. Each girl received a bag filled with gifts and invitation cards for other gifts from Welcome Wagon sponsors. Attending were, from left, seated, Alice Rice, Beverly Wilson, Lois Ann Cook, Pat Baltheser, Christine Keyre, Kay Louise Hinderer, and, standing, Francis Esposito, Jane Baker, Nancy Jean Cramer, hostess, Betty June Scott; Patty Gard, Catherine Bernard, Janie Toole, Charlotte Robinson, Helen Beatty and Soni Froggatt.

some of it to buy team members helmets and shoes. But, they are still without needed hip pads.

The foremost problem, however is two utility poles set directly on the playing field at their 20-yard line. Mrs Swanson said, "I've even talked to the president of the Electric Company, but nothing can be done." Too, their east goal post runs parallel about four feet from the curb of a large parking lot.

Twelve girls have organized a cheerleading squad for the "Thunderbolt" football team and have chosen Ann Nunley as captain. They talked enthusiastically about some of the money-raising projects they have planned for the association. Oct. 25 we're having a white elephant sale in the Westgate Shopping Center, and on the 28th we're having a toy sale." The girls are also planning a bake sale but haven't set a date yet.

According to Mrs. Swanson and Berger, the football team is only the beginning of a whole recreation program they are outlining for members of the association. This is something, Mrs. Swanson says, "that could be done for kids in similar situations all over town if people would only stick their necks out."

Berger set up a softball field last spring when he took over management of the Manor. He is now planning a basketball court on a paved strip behind the shopping center. Mrs. Swanson said, "we're also going to find a hall or an empty basement for a recreation hall for dances. If it's any distance from here, though, we'd need about six cars to chauffer the kids. That's where we hope to get the parents in."

Need Parents Support

According to both Berger and Mrs. Swanson, securing the interest of the parents has been difficult. Berger said, "I sent out a letter last May, directed to all the fathers at Westgate, suggesting they organize "Little League" softball teams, and out of 868 I received one phone call indicating interest, and this one didn't show up at the meeting." According to Mrs. Swanson, when she called a meeting of the parents of association members, "only three showed up."

The association holds its meetings in an empty building at the center, supervised by both Mr. and Mrs. Swanson. Swanson, an employee of North American Aviation, said Mrs. Swanson has since quit her job at the drugstore "to devote all of her time to the kids."

Right now, members are interested in making a little money to help themselves. Mrs. Swanson said she has obtained jobs for two boys and has promises for four more, but wants jobs for the other boys. Members are considering selling pot holder plackets for a paper route customer of Jerry Dimmy, association president.

Druggist Assists . . .

Bill Snashhall, partner-owner of Westgate Manor Pharmacy, this week gave a substantial boost to the Westgate Manor Athletic Association.

He donated a nine-piece copperware cookery set, valued at $50, to be given away. Persons will be issued three tickets on the merchandise in exchange for every 25-cent donation.

Woman Wins Record-News Football Prize

Proving that football score guessing is not a monopolized art of men is Helen Zielke, 264 N. Wayne-av, who took top honors this week in the second of the Record-News Football Guessing Contest.

Mrs. Zielke will have her choice of $10 in cash, $3 in merchandise from G.&S. Variety Store and an oil change from Tunison's Sohio Service.

Second choice will go to Harry Morgan, 200 S. Princeton, winner of last week's contest, who failed by only a single game of copping his second first prize. Third prize winner is D. I. Walters, 264 Sturbridge-ln.

All three of the winners correctly picked the Army-Notre Dame score and Morgan even prophesied the stunning Texas upset of Oklahoma.

Awards for winners of last week's contest, who will be announced in the next issue, are $10 in cash, $5 in merchandise from Edwards Rexall Drugs, and $5 worth of dry cleaning from Westgate Carriage Cleaners.

Persons who are able to clear the crystal ball haze and correctly pick the winners of this week's slate of games will be eligible for $10 in cash, $5 worth of dry cleaning from Heldeman Cleaners and a family meal up to $5 in value at the Everglades Restaurant.

Contest entrants last week picked the following results for this Friday's games:

Central-Aquinas game rated a real dilly with both teams listing the same number of supporters; Ohio State to breeze past Indiana; West to score its second win at the expense of Watterson and Slippery Rock to rebound against California State.

LOOK WHAT HAPPENED IN WICHITA

The story of what happened in Wichita is of vital interest to every motorist. Chances are that you will be as shocked at the results as were the people who conducted the test.

Wichita's motorists are typical drivers . . . not unlike the drivers right here. They had become so used to superior tire performance that they were lulled into a false sense of security . . . or in an attempt to squeeze the last mile of life from their tires, many drivers were subjecting themselves and all other motorists to extreme danger.

WICHITA, KANSAS. During September a tire-safety check was conducted. It was the most exhaustive check of this nature ever made. Wichita was chosen for the test because it offered a traffic-saturated metropolitan area combined with high-speed turnpike traffic.

The results of the check astounded the safety experts. It showed that four out of ten autos have bad tires! For the first time in the history of highway safety research, they were able to positively document the fact that unsafe tires are a critical factor in highway safety.

The safety check also produced evidence that failure to keep car wheels aligned is a contributing factor to unsafe tire wear.

The Wichita tire-safety check was hailed as the "most worthwhile study of its kind" ever conducted.

OCTOBER CHEESE FESTIVAL

Every October the dairy industry designates a fall cheese festival, and this October is no exception. As a result of the planned promotion, you will find some good cheese buys at your store. Also, we [illegible] reminded of the many kinds of cheese on the market. There's one for every taste.

Cheese is so versatile that it can go into the lunchbox, serve as an appetite teaser, supply the main dish or a grand finish to dinner, or furnish just the right snack following football [illegible]

Cheese is a "natural" with many of the plentiful fall fruits and vegetables such as cabbage, cauliflower or broccoli . . . and of course, with apples. No food stimulates the imagination more than cooking with cheese after you become acquainted with the many varieties avail- [illegible]

We Eat Lots of Cheese — U.S. manufactures about 1½ billion pounds of cheese every year, using nearly one-tenth of the milk produced in this country. Three-fourths of all the cheese produced in this country is the American or cheddar type. Swiss, cream and Italian type cheeses are next most popular, in that order. People in the U.S. eat about twice as much cheese now as they did 20 years ago, averaging around 13 pounds per person a year.

Ohio is a sizeable producer of cheese, especially Swiss, and all of the Liederkrans made in this country.

Nutritionally, cheese ranks among the best sources of protein. A four-ounce serving furnishes one-third of a day's protein requirement for an average person. Because it is made of whole cow's milk, cheese has essentially the same food elements. It's rich in vitamin A, for clear healthy skin; in riboflavin for good appetite and good morale; and in calcium and phosphorus for strong teeth and bones. About 25 per cent of the total weight of cheese is animal protein, making it an excellent and inexpensive meat extender.

When Buying — the label is your best guide. It gives information as to price, type, contents and suggested uses to determine the better buy. Also check cost per pound. Sliced cheese, or especially packaged cheese, usually costs more.

Great Western Firestone Conducting Tire Safety Test

A nationwide safe tire check will be held Oct. 14 through 18 as part of a campaign to cut down the number of automobile accidents due to unsafe tires.

The safety check, patterned after a pilot study in Wichita, Kan., last month will be conducted by Firestone stores and dealers from coast to coast. Safety officials were shocked by the results of the Wichita program, which revealed that four out of every ten motorists in that city were driving on unsafe tires.

Sponsored by the Inter-Industry Highway Safety Committee, the Wichita survey checked more than 36,000 vehicles — more than one-third of all the registered passenger vehicles in the city.

"The results of that study were so shocking that we decided to expand the study on a nationwide basis," E. B. Hathaway, vice president of The Firestone Tire and Rubber Co., said.

"If the figures revealed in Wichita hold true for the nation" he said, "almost 24,000,000 motorists are driving on unsafe tires throughout the United States."

Ralph Huggins, manager of The Great Western Firestone store, said that Firestone hoped to make every motorist in this area tire safety conscious by calling his attention to the present condition of the tires on his automobile.

"One of the most astonishing facts uncovered in the Kansas survey was that inspectors found 6,500 vehicles with tires in such dangerous condition that they were unsafe for normal city driving," Huggins said.

"This means that on a national basis 5,314,000 'killer tires' are rolling daily over American streets and highways.

"With the continuing increase in the Federal Interstate Highway System, many of those motorists are going to be driving at higher speeds under turnpike conditions and the danger will be even greater.

"We want to find as many of those tires as possible," Huggins said.

D. J. Kunz For Commissioner

The government of an otherwise very properous Franklin County has been having a rough time financially . . . so rough that a large number of creditors have already been told they will have to wait until 1959 for their money.

The men who have the most to say about how the county spends its money are the commissioners. Two are to be elected in November, at least one will be a newcomer to the ranks.

As we see it one of the candidates who should be elected is D. J. Kunz, mayor of New Rome.

We like his proposal that the county employ a finance director. We like his proposals for better coordination of planning, zoning and building.

He maintains he is for rigid zoning enforcement, reclassification and clarification of zoning, as well as revised building regulations with more thorough county inspection.

Voters in the county will do well to vote for D. J. Kunz for county commissioner on Nov. 4.

Falcons Top Wilmington In Grid Fray

It was an auspicious occasion for Franklin Heights gridders last week for two reasons — their triumphant 16-8 debut in the South-Central Ohio League — which simultaneously made it a happy homecoming evening. The victory was over Wilmington.

The top ground gainer with a 60-yard dash to his credit, was fullback John Yinger. He clipped off the yardage for Coach Tom Elliot's Falcons to annex the first TD.

Both teams chalked up 209 yards gained by passing and rushing, with Wilmington having the edge on first downs, 12-9. Defensive stars for the victors were tackle Tony Royer and safetyman Bob Pearse.

The new standing now has Greenfield in the lead (2-0), Franklin Heights and Washington C. H., (1-0), Circleville (2-1), Hillsboro (0-2) and Wilmington (0-2).

A doll contest was held at Glenwood Center on Oct. 7. Diane Stubbbs won first place for the biggest doll while Vicky Tanner won for the smallest doll. Prettiest doll was won by Sharon Tatman.

District, State Harriers To Gather At Raymond

By BOB WILCOX

At the week's start the West cross-country team was still looking for their first win of the 1958 fall running season. Winless in their first five starts, they have four meets remaining, plus the district meet.

However, this is one of these famed "building" years with only three lettermen returning from last year's squad which placed second in the City League and third in the district.

Three of last year's six lettermen were lost via graduation. Returning were Bob Phillips and Gary Reynolds, both seniors, and Gary Dusenberg, a junior. This year's captain is not even a letterman . . . Joe Massey, a junior, is this season's selected leader. Showing real promise are Paul Meadows and Denton Belcher, seniors, Jack Fravel and Billy Castle, juniors, and newcomers Sven Carne and Dave Koonts, sophomores.

It is soon apparent why Massey was made captain. He has been first in every meet run this year to date. Koon has been number two man in the win department while a freshman (ineligible to compete), Dave Smith, has consistently been a strong finisher. The squad, coached by R. C. Glass, runs all its home meets at the Raymond Golf Course, Trabue-rd.

One must keep in mind that the winner of a cross country meet is the team with the [redacted] total score or points accumulated by those men finishing in the top spots. The first place winner garners the fewest points . . . thus the farther out of first place you finish the more points you have scored for your team. By the time this article is read, West will have two more meets under their belts . . . Tuesday at Springfield and Thursday at Marion. They will have to bat at least .500 in their four meets to equal last year's win output.

The district meet this year will be held at the Raymond Golf Course . . . one might consider West as the host school . . . with R. C. Glass as the meet manager. The meet will be run on Friday, Oct. 24 starting at 4 p.m. The district contains ten teams (the City League contains five). Placing third in last year's meet, West qualified one boy, Gary Dusenberg, for the state meet. This year's State event will be Nov. 1 . . . also at Raymond. The City Meet, Oct. 21, will also be at Raymond.

The 1958 West High Cross-Country team schedule (with scores to date):

Date	Opponent	Where	Opp.	West
Sept. 25	[redacted] East	There	19	47
Sept. 30	[redacted]	Home	18	45
Oct. 2	Upper Arlington	There	21	35
Oct. 7	[redacted]	[redacted]	19	38
Oct. 9	Central	Home	21	34

Central Regains Lead To Win Homecoming Tilt

'Win Over Watterson' . . . Is West Homecoming Cry

West has its best chance of the season to rack up one in the win column for the 1958 campaign, this Friday evening at Magly Field. Before a traditional homecoming crowd, the Cowboys host Watterson.

The latter has fielded a football team for a couple of years, but this is their first season of "big time" scheduling . . . they play an independent schedule, affiliated with no league at present.

Very little is known about them . . . and the unknown quantity both in science and sports can be highly dangerous . . . at times. Watterson does not appear to be extremely tough. They have won only one game . . . losing to a weak St. Charles squad and a very tough South aggregation. However, that one win they boast is one win more than West can show, so . . .

They have in the past been a tight "T" team, sticking mostly to the ground. However in a desperate attempt to shed their losing cloak, they have taken to the air . . . and quickly copied the rage from Army, etc., the "lonesome" end.

They also vary this formation with the slot back (usually a half back out wide "filling" the slot, although still in the backfield, between the tackle and the wide end). They seem to have no outstanding individual players.

They use the famed Oklahoma defense . . . as did South and Linden.—B.W.

ONE WILL REIGN DURING WEST HIGH HOMECOMING

WEST HIGH ROYALTY—One of the five, above, will reign during homecoming festivities at West High School this weekend, and the other four serve as members of the court. Name of the Queen, chosen by student vote, will not be revealed until half-time ceremonies. She will receive the traditional kisses from football co-captains Dave Francis and Ray Herty, and a bouquet Friday night, and reign over homecoming dance Saturday night. Shown from left are, Rita Derr, JoAnn Campbell, Judy Robison, Pam Mobley and Janet Gove.

By Bob Wilcox

Well, almost, but not quite . . . again . . . that might be the summary of last week's encounter for West and Central.

The Cowboys came from behind in the second half to take the lead going into the final period. But as this reporter stated early in the season . . . the defense couldn't hold the opposition to less points than West could muster. The result . . . West's defense didn't hold when the chips were down and their first victory of the year was at stake.

There were other factors that contributed to West's downfall . . . . like a West fumble lost and a Central interception in the late stages of the game to stall West drives.

Several times Central's line opened up holes in the Cowboy forward wall big enough to drive trucks through, but these never resulted directly in a Pirate score. However, in the fourth period when the Cowboys really plugged a hole, it did result in a TD.

Central almost completely dominated the play in the first half, both in time in possession of the ball and scoring. Fullback Otis Glover and halfback Henry Hairston were particularly speedy thorns in West's side all night. Each scored two touchdowns . . . one apiece in the first half.

Central took the opening kickoff, and starting on their own 34-yard line, in 11 plays hit paydirt. Hairston went off right guard for the final six yards. He also added two extra points . . . the only successful extra points attempted by the Pirates all evening. This came at 6:45 by the clock.

The big . . . and key . . . play of this drive was a 42-yard jaunt off right guard by Hairston. Jim Hastings and Dave Francis laid hands on him, and finally contrived to stop him, after he had spun away from several West defenders.

At 7:37 of the second period, Glover took a wide pitch out (he was a 'lonely' wide flanker) and went around right end for nine yards and a score. This was only one of the many, many times that Pirate quarterback George Henry did some mighty fancy faking on handoffs! This drive took them 12 plays starting on their own 19. The big gainers were a 10-yard jaunt over center by Hairston, a 10 yarder around right end by Glover and a 16-yard pass from Henry to D. Brockmeyer in the left flat.

Thus the second half opened with Central holding a 14-0 lead. However on the first play from scrimmage after the second half kickoff, Francis ambled 56 yards over left tackle to register a score on the West side of the ledger. He plunged over for the two extra points. Late in the same period he went over left guard for another score, added the extra points and put West in front for the first time, 16-14.

Whereas the West defenses had been completely unable to stop the Pirate's offensive machine . . . mostly on the ground . . . in the first half, they seemed to have found the answer in the locker room at the halftime and held them pretty well in check in the third period.

West's second score was a long 15-play drive starting on the West 28. The big hunks of yardage were chewed out by Bob Pate's 16-yard jaunt around right end with some mighty fine blocking (a runner can always get farther with four-man interferance, than if on his own) . . . and an 11-yard run by Francis over center. Francis' scoring play was stopped almost at the line of scrimmage, but he literally suprted through and over the goal.

Fourth Was Fatal

However the fourth frame was a sadder story . . . and one more reminiscent of the first half. At 4:36 Glover bulled over right guard from one yard out to put Central ahead for good. The big plays on this nine-play drive starting on the West 37 (resulting from a West fumble coming at the center-ing of the ball), were nine-yard runs by Glover and Hairston and a nine-yard pass play from Heery to Brockmeyer . . . a quick jumper to the left end cutting across center.

West again tried to get a drive going (just a TD would have been enough to win at this point), but Bill Kern had a fourth-and-five desperation pass intercepted by Central's Fred Gary . . . who returned it 27 yards to the West 30. Five plays later Hairston tried to go over left tackle, but finding absolutely no hole he reversed his direction and ended up going wide around left end and down the sideline 18 yards to score the 'insurance' touchdown for the Pirates. This came at 1:24.

Glover reeled off an 11-yarder around right end just prior to Hariston's score. Both of these men showed not only good speed, but beautiful change of paces and body faking and spinners . . . and kept Westmen in dithers and stews (and grabbing air) all night as they were almost unstoppable.

Kern Makes Showing

Kern ran the Cowboys offense all evening and did a pretty good job. However they certainly could use some more passing to bolster their offense . . . just not in times of 'dying desperation,' either. Francis had another excellent night, as he 'bulled' along for 153 yards in 21 carries for a fine 7.2 average.

The Cowboys continued to show their new-found enthusiasm and drive-spirit of the South game (did their best offensive job of the season), but between the defense not holding when the chips were down and hurting themselves . . . par usual . . . (fewer penalties, but fumbles, etc.) it wasn't enough . . . yet!

Maybe for Watterson, the . . . who can tell?? Francis got some ball-carrying help from Bob Thornton, Jim Hastings and especially Pate, to mention only a couple, but it wasn't quite enough to turn the tide. Kerns had a couple of passes to go incomplete to open receivers due to overthrowing . . . an error also made in earlier games.

Meet The Cowboys

David Lee Francis, 17, is quite an active boy on the school "political front" as well as on the athletic field.

He is not only co-captain of

Dave Francis

this year's West High football squad, but also on Student Council and is president of his senior class, which graduates in Jan. 1959.

He is better known to his friends by one of two nicknames . . . "The Mule" (for his stubborn resistance to enemy tacklers) and "Bevo" (after the famed Rio Grande College basketball player of the same name). Born Apr. 18, 1941, Dave is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Francis of 370 S. Richardson-av.

Dave is in the midst of his third year of varsity football as a starter at fullback and defensive outside linebacker. He roamed the outfield for the West baseball team in his sophomore and senior years and ran the 440-yard run for the track squad his junior "spring". He also played reserve basketball his sophomore and junior years.

Much of his outside-of-school activity is centered around athletics also. During the summers he has played softball with his church team Hoge Memorial) and the Camp Chase American Legion team. Working for the city water department during summer vacations he "edged" himself into the "political world" by playing with the City Hall basketball team in the winter months. He has also played with the Westside Pirates' basketball aggregation.

A member of his church, he is active in its Youth Fellowship and the choir. A Hilltop resident all of his life, he attended John Burroughs elementary school, and West Junior High schools. He maintains a strong "B" average.

His main interests are hunting and fishing and "sports in general". Future plans call for majoring in physical education at college in preparation for a coaching career.

As for any specific college, he is waiting to see what may be "offered" after the football season is over, although he does "lean toward" the Big Ten (att. Woody). B.W.

Bulldogs Rip Cowboy Nine At Glenwood

The Bulldogs turned two intercepted Cowboy passes into touchdowns the hand the latter their first defeat 24-12.

The score at the end of the third period stood at 12 all, when, in an attempt to score, the Cowboys had two passes picked off by Bulldogs Hampton and Stewart and returned for touchdowns.

A safety and a touchdown in the last period clinched a victory over the Polar Bears 21-6. The deciding factor was the hard tackling and running of the entire terrier team.

Scoring 8 to 6, the Cowboys eked out a victory over the Terriers. The Cowboy line charged hard when the Terriers had the ball on their own one-yard line to score a safety, which proved to be the margin of victory.

Led by backs Stewart, Garnes, and Goodin, the Bulldogs defeated the Polar Bears 13 to 0.

Waterfowl Season Nears

Next week sees the opening of the waterfowl open season—popularly known as the duck season. Opening day is Oct. 24, and the season runs through Jan. 1, 1959. Shooting hours are from one-half hour before sunrise to one-half hour before sunset.

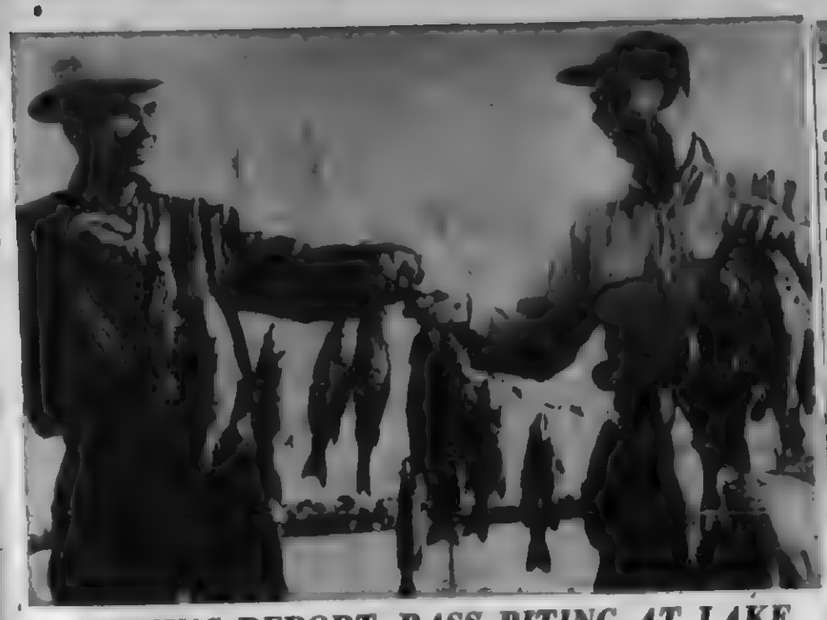
The question everyone asks is, "How will hunting be this year?" According to U.S. Fish and Wildlife surveys, here is the dope: Through this part of Ohio there will be little change from the shooting a year ago — even up along Sandusky Bay the duck population will be about the same. Last year's duck hunting was pretty fair, so this is good news.

The puddlers or shallow water ducks which make up the majority of ducks bagged by Buckeye hunters will be present in as good or better numbers than a year ago. This group includes the mallard, black duck, wood duck and the two species of teal—blue-winged and green-winged.

Diving ducks are down in numbers. These are the scaup, canvasbacks, redheads, ruddy, and a few others. Drouth on the prairie provinces of Canada all summer is blamed for the decline. You will be reading articles about ducks being drastically scarce in some areas, and it is the big diving ducks they will be talking about. Poor nesting conditions have lowered the continental waterfowl population, but we will see little effect of it here.

There will be fewer coots (mudhens) this year because of a poor nesting season. Canada goose flights through this area will probably be up a little over last year.

The opening of duck season next week is later than many hunters would prefer to have it, particularly northern Ohio hunters. They have a valid point of argument—that most of the teal and wood ducks will have flown south by then, and when the swamps and marshes freeze thee ther ducks will follow them.



On the other hand, central and southern Ohio duck hunters have their fun shooting black ducks and mallards on streams and lakes. The large flights show up just before severe winter sets in — around Christmas time and the first of the year.

It seems to be impossible to please everybody with a waterfowl season. This year it opens a little late, and next year it will open earlier. Wildlife officials plan to alternate the opening so that one year will favor northern Ohio, and another year will favor the central and southern part of the state.

Here in the Columbus area best bets on opening day will be the streams for wood ducks, and farm ponds for woodies and mallards. Ducks are scattered right now, but as the weather cools they will group for migration flights.

As the season progresses flights will come through this area, depending on the weather to the north. If the marshes freeze along Lake Erie one night, then look for good flights through here the next day. If they thaw and it warms up for a few days, then the shooting here will be mighty poor.

A willingness to pay for what you get is the mark of an individual who charges for what he sells.

FISHING REPORT: BASS BITING AT LAKE

Bird Lovers Will Gather At Gladden

Gladden Community House, W. Town and Hawkes-sts, will take on all the appearances of an aviary, Saturday and Sunday Oct. 18 and 19.

Many interesting and unusual varieties of canaries, parakeets, wild birds, cockatiels and parrots will be on display there during the Cage Bird Show sponsored by the Columbus Canary and Parakeet Breeders Club and the Central Ohio Budgie Club.

The show will be open to the public, free of charge. More than 100 cups and prizes will be awarded.

Have You Done Your Fair Share?

This is the week it is so vitally important for people all over Franklin County to ask themselves this personal question: "Have I done my fair share in support of the United Appeal Drive?"

The United Appeal volunteer who knocks at your door or who approaches you on the job is not asking for charity. In our modern American way of life, the community welfare agency is a vital and logical part of the many factors that contribute to the welfare of the community.

You would not withhold support of such instruments of community welfare as the fire department or police department. You recognize these institutions as vital safeguards to the welfare of your home, your family, and your community.

In much the same way, the 60 community agencies incorporated in United Appeal safeguard Franklin County residents against bearing the individual burdens created by tens of thousands suffering from disease, handicaps and disaster. Scores of youth and family agencies in United Appeal provide guidance, education, recreation, care and counseling for thousands who might otherwise become expensive problems to society.

In fact, the 60 UA agencies served one out of every three people in Franklin County last year.

With these facts in mind, do your part today to help UA. Here's how you can help most effectively:

1. If you're a volunteer, complete your assignment now!

2. If you're a business executive, see that all employees are contacted and make your final report.

3. Most important, welcome the United Appeal volunteer who calls on you. He is offering you an opportunity to contribute your "fair share" in a single contribution for the insured welfare of your community.

If you have not given, GIVE NOW!!!

Let's Get The Show on The Road

Mayor Sensenbrenner this week did exactly what he said he would do in appointing William Hoermle to the vacancy in City Council. Council sat on the issue for quite some time before the mayor made the appointment.

There has been no criticism of the new council appointee himself. Hoermle is a gentleman, a good business man and a reputable citizen. He has volunteered his services as a councilman and is not concerned with the little money the job pays.

It is therefore to be hoped that the Republicans will be equally as interested as the Democrats in "getting the show on the road" and accept the services of the man in council and settle down to city business at hand. The public wants it this way.

A JOB TO BE DONE—Challenging project of a master evacuation plan for parochial school children, in the event of enemy air attack, is the latest project of St. Mary Magdalene's energetic school bus driver, Mrs. John L. Dehnart, 880 Wedgewood-dr. Progress of her efforts to devise such a plan will be reviewed at a public meeting planned for Thursday night, 8:15, at the parish school hall. Mother of five, she is shown with her two pre-school children.

Open Hearing On Office Site Dated Nov. 13

Local civic or business groups and individuals who have suggestions for the proper location of a new $15 million state offices building will be given a chance to be heard Thursday, Nov. 13.

A public hearing will be conducted from 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. in hearing room No. 2 of the present state office building.

Darold J. Greek, chairman of the State Office Building commission, said he hopes interested parties will write in now to guarantee a spot on the agenda and be prepared to speak Nov. 13.

Ernest H. Stork, the commission's secretary and consulting engineer, repeated that the matter "should be aired very thoroughly." As original architect of the downtown Civic Center, Stork is interested in seeing the new structure included, "as near to the heart of the city as possible." An area immediately back of Central High School has been given strong backing by planners.

Principal obstacle to the selection, however, is the parking problem. In a preliminary architect's report to the commission last week it was pointed out that industry has gone to outlying areas to solve this problem.

The planners could not agree that such a move out would be right for the government building. Such things as morale, con-

LABOR OF LOVE—Students paid tribute to the memory of Judith Koonce, 22, Eastmoor High School teacher who drowned last July in a futile attempt to save a little girl from drowning, in a memorial service held last Wednesday at the school. Donald Fischer, Central High occupational student, working under the guidance of his teacher, Richard Krumm, fashioned the brass plaque placed on the school lawn as a lasting reminder of her heroism.

Authorities Warn Parents About Hazards To Children

Police Chief George W. Scholer warned parents this week to keep their children away from the W. Broad-st underpass construction site where seven-year-old Thomas Hoover [illegible] four weeks ago.

A spokesman for Visintine & Co., contractors on the expressway project added his company's views. When called Tuesday he said that he felt the "responsibility is now up to the nearby schools and to the mothers of the children who pass by this area daily." "They should warn their children about the dangers here and what the warning signs mean," he said.

When asked whether the company had added any more barricades around the concrete pit or the steep banks which overlook it, he replied "the area has been well barricaded all along." "We have regular marked barricades at Town and Richester and also at dead ends," he said.

"Some people have asked us why we don't erect a cyclone fence around the whole area, but men working in the project have to get in there to do the job for the state. They have to have some way of ingress and egress," he said.

He continued, "I realize that barricades mean very little to children, if they want to get in there." When asked about the danger of children slipping between the planks spread over the pit, he replied, "children will find a way of removing planks if they want to. Why, six or eight children could move a 2x4."

When asked if they had put more watchmen or guards on the area, he replied that they have "three or four men on duty at all times," although only one is considered a watchman. It would be a man-for-man assignment to make sure every child stayed away from the area."

Rev. Harold Dutt Stricken At Meet

Rev. Harold Dutt, pastor of Westgate Evangelical United Brethren Church was taken suddenly ill with a circulatory disorder while attending the EUB general conference in Harrisburg, Pa., last week.

Hospitalized in Harrisburg Hospital, he is reported in satisfactory condition and is expected to return home Saturday.

Also attending as a delegate from Westgate EUB was Dr. Eldred Heisel.

Pupil Evacuation Plan Is Studied By Parish

First step forward in a plan for the safe evacuation of parochial school children in the event of enemy air attack, will be taken Thursday, Oct. 23, 8:15 p.m. at St. Mary Magdalene School Hall. Anyone interested is invited.

Particularly invited are parents of all parochial and private students. Since they do not fall under the jurisdiction of public schools, they would not be included in any public school evacuation plan.

Spearheaded by Mrs. John L. Dehnart of 880 Wedgewood-dr, parish school bus driver, and inspired by the TV presentation, "You And Survival," the effort is believed to be the first of its kind locally.

Russell Pennell, civil defense representative, will discuss the problem and assist with suggestions at the meeting.

Concerned at the alarming possibilities of air attack after viewing the civil defense television show, Mrs. Dehnart, mother of five, contacted the Columbus Public and Catholic School Boards.

She learned that students of all schools not under public school jurisdiction could not be included in an evacuation plan.

C. L. Dumaree, assistant superintendent of schools, defined the board's position as "We have no right or jurisdiction to direct students of any private schools.

"A master evacuation plan for public school students has not yet been approved. When

Drive Volunteers Hope For Spurt In UA Gifts

Hoping to boost the Hilltop and West Side nearer its $9,880 "goal line," United Appeal volunteer solicitors in this area prepared to report their latest contribution totals at the fourth report luncheon downtown today.

A total of $4,967 had been contributed to the 1958 UA campaign by residents [illegible] business men of the Hilltop and West Side area at the end of the third report luncheon Thursday. The overall campaign total reported at the luncheon was $1,633,242 for 48.2 per cent of the goal. The campaign will close with a final report Tuesday, Oct. 28.

Charles W. Medick, general campaign chairman, emphasized a note of urgency in his appeal to volunteer solicitors and givers to step up the lagging pace of contributions in order to meet the $3,388,470 goal. Combined Metropolitan Residential goal for this area is [illegible].

Metropolitan Division solicitors on the West Side reported contributions amounting to $1,337 and $61 from the Hilltop Residential Division volunteers in both areas reported a total of $2,733.

GM Workers To Consider New Contract

A 20-day strike at the local Fernstedt plant which has flattened the wallets of many and made itself felt in local business probably will draw to a close this week.

Workers are expected to assemble Thursday in two separate meetings to vote on agreements reached Tuesday noon by General Motors and Local 969, United Auto Workers.

If the new contract is ratified, work at the body trim factory would probably resume next Monday. Details of the agreement will not be made until after Thursday, UAW officials said.

Skilled workers will conduct balloting at 8 p.m. Thursday in Union Hall, 3761 Harding-dr; non-skilled will vote at 8 p.m. at West High School.

On Sunday the union ratified a national agreement made with GM but continued the work stoppage here to iron out local difficulties. Negotiations were held continuously Monday and Tuesday.

Upsets Rule Record-News Football Poll

Big upsets on the college scene last week sent local pigskin experts into a dither in the third week of the Record-News Football Guessing Contest.

Throwing our homemade prophets offstride most commonly were upsets by Northwestern over Michigan, Tulane over Navy and Purdue over Michigan State.

Winner of this week's contest is Jay Wright, 400 Hilltonia-av, who correctly picked 18 winners although he missed the three big upsets. A deadlock resulted in the scramble for second place between Donna Young, 1970 Guernsey-av, and Richard Jaques, 886 Wiltshire-dr.

Students Pay Tribute To A Brave Teacher

By Betty Daft

High school students, many who knew her and one who did not, joined in dedicating a tribute to a brave teacher last Wednesday.

Memory of Judith Koonce, young Eastmoor High School teacher who died last July in a heroic-but-vain attempt to save the life of a child in her charge, was perpetuated with a redbud tree and a brass plaque, placed on the school lawn.

The living tree, planted by youngsters and the plaque, painstakingly perfect handwork of a boy, were offerings of children to a teacher who gave her life for one of them.

All the talent and artistry of a boy who never knew her, but felt his assignment "a very great honor to do something for Miss Koonce," went into the creation of the plaque.

Ronald Fischer, 39 E. Ninth-av, senior student at Central High School's Occupational Division, was chosen for the project by his foundry class teacher, Richard Krumm, who said, "The job called for skilled workmanship and plenty of patience. I knew Ronnie had enough of both."

Eastmoor principal, T. H. Mayer, turned to Central High for help after being told by commercial firms, the job couldn't possibly be completed in less than six weeks.

Ronnie, excused from regular classes, turned to the job at hand and, by devoting his entire time to patient hours of careful measurement and exact placement of letters, executed the plaque before the two weeks' deadline.

Plan Games, Food, Dancing For West Side's Halloween

Four West Side youth-serving agencies have combined to present a community-wide program for Halloween, Oct. 31.

The West Side Community Service Council is made up of the West Side Boys' Club, Gladden Community House, Sullivant Gardens Recreation Center, and Sunshine Recreation Center.

The council has announced its combined plan as follows:

At West Side Boys' Club a party will be held for both boys and girls, 12 years of age and under. Halloween games will begin at 6:30 p.m. There will be a carnival-type ride for the children. Prizes will be given for the best costume, the funniest, the most original, and the ugliest costume. Donuts and milk will be served by the Mothers' Auxiliary.

Sullivant Gardens Recreation Center will present a movie for all youngsters 12 and under starting at 7:30 p.m.

Gladden Community [illegible] will have a carnival-type affair from 7 to 9 p.m. with booths set up in the gymnasium and different games in each booth. Children 12 and under will be able to go around to all of the booths and play the various games. Many prizes will be awarded for various costumes in the masquerade parade starting at 8 p.m. Refreshments will include donuts and milk.

Don Curl and his orchestra will play for the teenage dance from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m. at Sunshine Recreation Center. Curl and his orchestra are furnished through the courtesy of the Columbus Federation of Musicians, Local 103, in cooperation with the Music Performance Trust Fund. Donuts and cider will be served at the intermission. All teenagers in the area are welcome.

Teenagers will register at the door as they enter the dance. When the dance is over, they will be allowed a half hour to reach their homes. Then, five names will be drawn from the registration slips received at the door by Sunshine's Advisory Council. Using the phone, telephone calls will be made to the youths' homes. If the teenager is at home, he or she will win a silver dollar donated by the Sunshine Recreation Center Advisory Council.

In the event the youth is not at home, another drawing will be made and another teenager called. A Columbus juvenile officer will deliver the silver dollars to the winners Monday afternoon.

Franklin Co. Trustee Group Opposes Metro Federation

The Franklin County Association of Trustees and Clerks has come out in opposition to issue No. 1, appearing on the ballot as the Metropolitan Federation of Local Governments charter amendment.

Local government officials charge that it is a means of spreading the large bonded indebtedness of the large cities over the practically debt-free townships. They point out that in Franklin County the City of Columbus could get townships and villages to help pay off its 296 million dollar bonded debt. (Figures are for 1957 and are exclusive of school debts).

It is charged that by comparison, all of the townships and villages in Franklin County combined have a bonded indebtedness of only slightly more than $8 million.

Quoting a recent news release from State Auditor James A. Rhodes' office "All of Ohio's 1331 townships combined spent less money in 1957 than each of the cities of Columbus, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Toledo, Akron and Dayton."

Township officials claim that this offsets the argument of Federation backers that vast economies are going to be eliminated by abolishing many township and village governments.

Westinghouse Begins Show Of '59 Lines

Both crews will do their first shows in the auditorium of the major appliance plant on Phillippi-rd, Oct. 27 and 28, before one moves through the East and the other the far West.

New lines of refrigerators, freezers, washers, dryers and ranges will be introduced and merchandising plans through the winter unveiled.

The School Bond

When the people of Columbus go to the polls Nov. 4, one of the most important issues they will find on the ballot is the 3.8 school levy.

The Columbus Board of Education and Superintendent Harold H. Eibling have called passage of the levy a "must" if the schools are to be adequately financed during the next three years.

Passage of the levy would enable the schools to maintain their present educational program, extend their services to an additional 10,000 pupils during the next three years, and carry out a "reasonable" improvement program, according to Dr. Eibling.

Failure of the levy, on the other hand, obviously would force a cutback in school services next year.

The Columbus Board of Education seems fair in asking for the increase. As the size of the student body becomes bigger, it stands to reason that additional money will be needed to provide existing services on a larger scale.

With Americans everywhere concerned with the advancement of science and the forging of new frontiers, it is vitally important that our schools maintain the best possible programs.

We feel that the present program should not only continue but that every boy and girl should be provided with even better educational opportunities to meet the challenges of the future.

Providing these opportunities should be our foremost thought when we go to the polls this November.

METROPOLITAN FEDERATION NEEDED

An issue which should receive a resounding "yes" on the November ballot is Issue No. 1, popularly referred to as the "Metropolitan Federation" amendment.

Under this proposed amendment to Article X of the Ohio Constitution, it would be possible for small villages and municipalities in any county which contains a city of 50,000 people or more to federate for the purpose of helping one another improve or expand certain services and/or facilities.

It appears that such an idea would solve, or at least alleviate, many of the financial and technical problems now facing villages in their quest for better police, fire, water, and sewage facilities and services.

The emigration of Franklin County families to "suburbia" has produced a serious shortage of service agencies which either were not extant in certain areas, or woefully undermanned and underequipped in others. Through "Metropolitan Federation" is seems reasonable to assume that these problems could go a long way toward being solved.

CHILDREN ASK FOR YOUR SUPPORT

Thousands of children and families are facing a health and welfare crisis in Franklin County.

The only immediate solution to their desperate situation seems to be passage of the Child Welfare and Relief levy which will appear on the November ballot.

The Child Welfare Board gives temporary care to 1,400 children . . . children who have been neglected by their parents . . . children who are dependant upon the community.

More than 10,000 families will be helped by the Welfare Department this year under programs of Aid to Dependent Children, Aid to the Blind, Aid to the Disabled and general relief.

Lack of funds has sharply curtailed the agency's services. Because of lack of staff members, one-third of the children are removed from their families needlessly. Because there isn't enough money to meet basic living needs, welfare budget for food and milk are only about 80 percent of minimum standards.

Passage of the levy will erase the deficits, will mean the preservation of hundreds of families. It will cut down the length of time children are deprived of family life. Welfare budgets for food and milk will continue at about the same level as last year.

Support of this issue at the polls will have an immense effect upon many in Franklin County. The levy must pass to prevent human misery and suffering.

BIBLE COMMENT

Evil Banned Quite Plainly By Prophets

The fate of the Hebrew prophets and their intense suffering is summarized in the tragic words of the Bible: "They were stoned, they were sawn asunder . . . were slain with the sword . . . being destitute, afflicted, tormented."

We may wonder why these men endured these persecutions, when by simple compliance with the mores of their times they could have avoided such torment.

It is probable that the propets could have led quiet, comfortable lives if they were content to denounce evil and malpractice in a general way. To be opposed to sin or graft or prejudice in vague, all-embracing terms is to court the displeasure of practically no one.

But to denounce evil in specifics, to point to a prominent member of the community and say, "You are the man" is another matter entirely. It was this direct illumination of evil that relegated the Hebrew prophets to a life of torment.

In our own country there is as great, if not a greater, need for such social reform. The man who attacks the abuses of the powerful in generalities and pious hopes will find his name appearing in nobody's black book. It is the reformer who steps forth to denounce in direct terms those who would destroy the society who is persecuted.

But it is this same reformer who will be remembered, and whose accusations may eventually be translated into a cleaner, more decent civilization.

From my front porch

By EARL MILLS

There are some good people in my town who are greatly interested in that wonderful bird, the lark—which, says the poet, 'at Heaven's gate sings.' They are eager to know its habitat and numbers, and are asking everyone, everywhere, who has seen or heard one recently to help them. If you have, drop me a line at P.O. Box 81, South Bend, Ind. and I will turn the information over to the lark people . . .

Smaller, but a beauty and delight, the lark reminds the wacky idea that there is merit is sheer bigness and length. Take, for example, the long-nosed, long-tailed, high-finned cars on our streets and highways.

Speaking of giants, who will say that just because a bakery is huge, it can turn out a better pie than mother used to make.

HIS DOLLAR

The chemistry professor was giving a demonstration of the properties of various acids. "Now, I am going to drop this silver dollar into this glass of acid. Will it dissolve?"

"A student in the rear answered promptly, "No, sir."

"No?" queried the professor with a glint in his eye. "Perhaps the young man will explain to the class why the silver dollar won't dissolve."

The young student arose to his full length, and said. "Because if it would, the professor would not drop it in."

Metropolitan Issue Is Topic At Mayor's Council Meeting

By DAVE HESS

One of the main topics of discussion Thursday at the Franklin County Mayors' Council meeting is the proposed "Metropolitan Federation" amendment to Article X of the Ohio Constitution.

The amendment, branded a bi-partician issue, will appear on the November ballot as Issue No. 1, and in no way should be confused or related to the controversial Issue No. 2—the "Right to Work" amendment.

Stated in legal gobbledygook, the issue will appear on the ballot in the following form:

"Shall the proposed amendment to Article X of the Constitution to permit voters in a metropolitan area within a county containing a city of 50,000 population to form a federation of contiguous townships and municipalities where the most populous municipality is included, and to form a federation which may include the county government if the entire area of the county is included, such a federation to exercise the powers and duties designated by a charter, framed by an elected commission, and approved by a majority of those voting in the largest municipality and majority in the balance of the area outside such municipality, be adopted?"

More simply interpreted this amendment, if accepted by county voters, would provide more efficient, expanded facilities and services which smaller villages and cities in the county have not been able to afford in the past.

Among these services would be police protection, water and sewage treatment and disposal, fire protection and so on.

One of the more attractive aspects of the issue is that, if adopted, there are no provisions which could compel voters to accept certain types of governments, or levy burdening taxes on areas which could not carry the extra load. If the amendment were adopted, then an elected commission would frame a charter which would have to be approved by the same voters who adopted the amendment, and elected the commission.

There are three definite stages in the process of federalization, excluding actual voting processes:

1) Approval of the amendment;

2) Election of a commission to draw up a federation charter;

3) Approval of the charter by electors who not only approved the amendment, but named the commission which formulated the charter.

To ensure against any further potential abuses a majority of the largest municipality must be garnered, then a majority outside such a municipality obtained to legalize the charter.

The proposal sounds like a good idea, and could solve many financial, and even zoning problems now confronting small town officials and residents.

LINCOLN'S WIT

No trait is more useful in life than the ability to laugh at our own defects just as Lincoln was able to make fun of homeliness. Once during a debate Douglas accused him of being two-faced. Without hesitation Lincoln calmly replied, "I leave it to my audience—if I had two faces, would I be wearing this one?"—General Features Corporation.

Nope, folks that are stupid never need to advertise it.

SONG FOR MOM

The summertime is through,
Vacation's over, too
And I resume my dull domestic labors;
But home seems strangely quiet
Without the joyous riot
Of fight, between our children and the neighbors'.
I miss the happy noise
Of shouting girls and boys
(Each one of whom yells loud enough for seven);
I sigh and say, "Somehow,
The house seems lonely, now
The kids are back in school again—thank Heaven!"

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROD COCHRAN

October—Time To Start The Home Bird Feeders

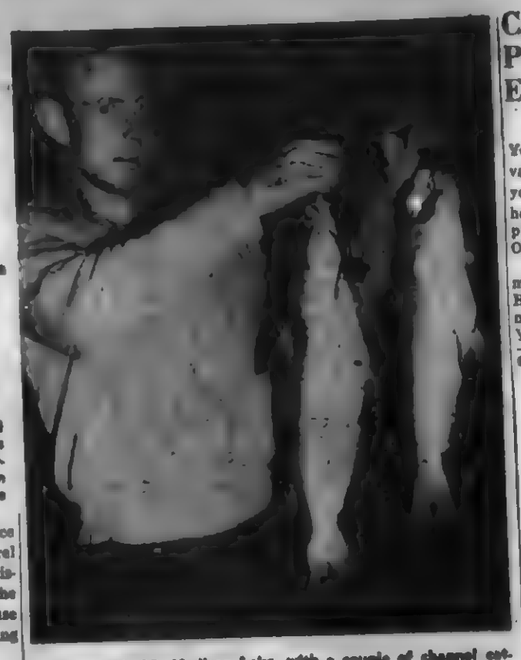
The winter birds are filtering in from the North, so it's time to put seeds and grain in the feeders.

I saw the first flock of chickadees almost two weeks ago. Downy woodpeckers are here in greater numbers than they have been all summer.

A couple of nuthatches put in their appearance a few days ago. These are the most enthusiastic guests at winter feeders—they almost stand in line to wait their turn at the suet. When they start to congregate I put sunflower seeds, bread crumbs, mixed grain, and suet in our two feeders.

It's true, plenty of natural food is around in October — the time of the harvest moon. Weeds hang heavy with seed pods, and slow-moving insects are easy prey. But if you start feeding now you will make your neighborhood exceptionally attractive to birds. They are shifting around right now looking for choice spots to spend the winter. A feeder or two may entice some to locate in your yard.

Once you start winter feeding, it becomes a duty. If you hold birds in your yard by feeding, then you must faithfully replenish the supply all winter and through early spring. The birds are depending on you.



It is fitting that our cheery winter visitors arrive in October. It is perhaps the best month of the year to be outdoors—fishing, hunting, or just observing nature. Early in the month autumn flowers put on a show equal to their May-blooming cousins. Soon the maples turn golden and the oaks scarlet to give the outdoors its most brilliant moment.

Nature's spectacular mystery of bird migration appears: It's much greater than the spring flight, for young of the year swell the ranks. Birds, and all wildlife for that matter, are short lived, and their populations vary greatly from spring to fall. From a few birds in the spring, many are here in the fall. Geese form their wedges high in the sky. Hawks wheel over farmlands on bright sunny days. Song sparrows hop from bush to bush. All feel the age-old tug of migration.

October is a good month for fishing. Bass and catfish feel more like taking a bait. Bloodlis put on a surge of feeding before the cold weather. They will hit flies and rubber spiders on the surface on warm days, and on cooler days they will take baits fished deeper.

The hunter has a wide choice of game this month. Squirrel hunting improves as leaves disappear from the trees. For the upland gunner there are grouse and woodcock. Duck hunting begins now.

October's harvest moon signifies nature's bountiful season. It is bountiful indeed for outdoor activities—we hate to see it slip by.

JOE KELSO, Madison Lake, with a couple of channel catfish taken at the lake using minnows for bait. They weighed 5 and 3¾ pounds. Kelso claims that cooler weather encourages fish, particularly catfish, to go on a feeding rampage.

Food Markets This Week

by Mrs. Estelle B. Franks

THIS WEEK SHOP FOR:

Halloween Tricks or Treats—Apples, cider, pumpkins, popcorn, grapes, cheese.

Other Good Choices—Potatoes, cabbage, cauliflower, celery, squash, medium eggs, chuck roast, fresh pork shoulder cuts, large turkeys, freeze limit.

FOODS FOR TREATS AND SNACKS

Halloween, tricks or treats, hob-goblins, kids and parties—all these things give us atmosphere for the first festival of the fall. Such occasions call for decorations and refreshments.

The above list of foods could be extended, but these particular items are plentiful at this time of year. Besides they lend just the atmosphere we want in autumn fanfare. Pumpkins, for instance, fill the bill for more than one purpose. You can eat them—you can make Jack-O-Lanterns of them—or, you can use them for decorations in other ways.

Folk who know their pumpkins say that the Connecticut Field Pumpkin makes the best Jack-O-Lanterns because it's flat on the ends and has a thin, hard rind. If you scoop out the insides so the rind is left fairly thin, light really glows through. For this purpose, a flash light will give the same effect as a candle, and will be much safer.

Now, if you want to eat the pumpkin, select the small sugar or New England pie pumpkin. It has a rich orange flesh, is meaty, sweet, and fine grained. It makes good pies.

Shoppers Pick the Snack — Not all of the snack foods sold this week will be for "tricks and treats." Snacks are here to stay! Today's eating habits seem to include one or two in-between meal snacks for most every member of the family. Perhaps the "coffee break" or the habit of munching while watching television is responsible. But this impromptu eating need not result in poor eating habits. The homemaker can still regulate eating.

How?—One of the best ways is to see that good healthful snacks are always available. Our responsibility starts at the grocery store when we shop for food. "Out of sight — out of mind," might be a good slogan to prevent the "too much sweets or too much starch." Instead, choose fresh fruits and crisp, raw vegetables, cheeses and cheese dips, dried fruits, peanut butter or fruit juices. Or plan for milk and ice cream drinks.

These are just a few healthful snack possibilities . . . all easy on the budget at this season. Of course, we need to consider family likes and dislikes. Snacks should taste good. After all . . . snacks are eaten for fun!

Research Uses Squirrel Paws

The Game Management Section of the Ohio Division of Wildlife reports that a research project is currently underway involving three thousand squirrel paws.

The paws collected from hunters this fall, are being X-rayed to determine the degree of bone development. This, technicians say, will tell them whether Ohio's longer squirrel hunting seasons are harming the bushy-tail population.

Waterloo Experiment Station, near Athens, is conducting the research.

For Your Thoughts

6 What is your opinion of the proposed new housing code before Columbus City Council which states:

"The owner or occupant of every dwelling, dwelling unit and rooming unit, or the person in charge thereof, shall give the housing inspector free access to such dwelling, dwelling unit or rooming unit and its premises, at all reasonable times for the purposes of such inspection, examination and survey."

Steve C. Emery, 2960 Valleyview-dr: "I'm against the proposed code as is. I feel they would be invading my privacy if they came into my home without my consent. Now, if I were renting out a multiple family apartment dwelling, I feel there might be a reason for them to inspect, but I would still expect them to ask my permission and the renter's first. Maybe the best way would be to have the landlord obtain a license which can be issued only after his dwelling and contents meet certain specifications.

Mrs. James V. Sterner, 78 Florence-av, "I wouldn't want the inspectors to enter my home without my permission, first. I think some type of notice should be mailed about one or two weeks in advance of the inspection. I think it is up to the apartment landlord to inspect the heating units himself. But if he refused to do so and the renter finds out the wrong type is in his building he should call the inspector himself.

Frank Brooks, Jr., 2497 Stockton: "Well, the landlord looks after the place and we've got a gas furnace so we don't have to worry. However, I feel if an inspector felt there was a reason and he knocked at the door and asked to come in, I'd let him in."

Mrs. Oscar E. Hess, 175 Whittethorne-av: "I am absolutely against that clause about having free access to anyone's house. I don't want anyone coming in here and sticking their nose in my business. I think it's all right for apartment buildings, but I think there they should have permission and mail them notices first.

R. H. Lorimer, Sr., 517 Columbian-av: "I don't think it's legal. The inspectors will have to have a search warrant which I believe comes under state law and has precedent to city ordinances."

Birth Of New River Bridge Is Fascinating Sight

TRUCKS AND MEN teeter precariously on platforms and forms over the Scioto in constructing the new Mound Street bridge. Pile drivers pound with a force of 12,000 pounds per square foot and tons of mix are poured into the forms.

THIS IS THE PANORAMA of activity which sidewalk superintendents see from W. Mount Street bridge these days. A new three-lane span of concrete and steel is being built across the Scioto River, alongside the present bridge. The new structure (scheduled to be completed Dec. 31, 1959) will carry one-way traffic east to downtown Columbus. The present bridge will be converted to a three-lane westbound carrier, feeding traffic into the Mound-Sandusky interchange. Both are integral parts of the innerbelt system. While building the new bridge supports, contractors hit a snag—sunken remnants of an older bridge which went down in the 1913 flood. Engineers said the delay cost $20,000 but the project is still ahead of schedule.

CAREFUL MEASUREMENT of ingredients is necessary to insure a good concrete mix, capable of forming a bridge firm enough for traffic of the future. This man makes daily checks of all mix used in the new Mound Street bridge.

Sylvia Smith To Take National Senior Exams

A total of 10,000 seniors throughout the U.S. will compete Dec. 6 in a three-hour examination to become finalists and therefore eligible for a four-year scholarship to the college of their choice.

Amount will depend upon each individual's needs.

Your Youth

By Al Hollowell and

The fall program of the Hilltop YMCA is now well under way. With the addition of new Gra-Y Clubs at Lindbergh and Valleyview a total of eight clubs are meeting weekly on the Hilltop. The Gra-Y Touch football league got off to a successful start two weeks ago.

Tomorrow evening the annual Gra-Y Induction and Installation of officers will be held at Glenwood Methodist Church beginning at 7 p.m. All member of the clubs are urged to attend and encourage their parents to accompany them to learn more about Gra-Y. This inspirational program for boys has always been well attended.

On Oct. 26 the Hilltop Lions Club will sponsor its annual fall trip in connection with the Hilltop "Y". Flyers have been circulated to the different schools on the Hilltop and early returns seem to indicate that the 100 vacancies will be filled very soon. This year the group will go to Athens to attend the Ohio University and Marshall game. Plans call for leaving the "Y" at 9 a.m. and returning by 7 p.m. For further information call the "Y" office.

The Gra-Y Touch Football league began Oct. 11 with six teams seeing action. At the inaugural contest in the North division a strong West Broad team turned back Westgate 12-6 with Dan Deat and Dennis McCann scoring for the winners and Jud Boley crossing the goal line for the Westgate tally.

In the South division opener John Burroughs defeated Binns 22-0 with Steve Prater, Jim Ellis, Butch Glascer and Nick Demopoles sharing in the scoring. Following this contest Highland edged past West Mound 12-6.

Parents are urged to attend these games each Saturday morning as the South division sees action at John Burroughs field and the North division battles on the new "Y" lot on Valleyview-dr.

The Big and Little Braves of the Hilltop Nation enjoyed a campout at South Side "Y" Park on Oct. 11 and 12. One hundred fathers and sons were in attendance.

The Scioto Tribe, newest in the Hilltop Nation, was inducted into the Indian Guide program at a campfire ceremony. The Big and Little Braves of the tribe include Ross and Jimmie Brandt; Gene and Eddie Brink; Loren, Jeff and Jon Caborn; Bert and Mike Edwards; W. S. and Bobby Shields.

New Nation officers were also installed. They are Dave Alban, Sioux tribe, big chief; Bob Porter, Cayugas tribe, subchief; Bill Curtis, Sac tribe, wampum bearer; and Bob Zuleaf, Apache tribe, tally keeper. These men will lead the Indian Guide activities for the coming year.

One of their aims is to start several new tribes in the Hilltop area. This program is for fathers and their sons, age six through grade school.

Schedule for the week follows:

Wednesday, Oct. 22 — "Y" Golden Age Club, Hope Memorial Church, 1:00 p.m.; Gra-Y Club, John Burroughs and Valleyview, 3:30 p.m.; "Y" Indian Guides, Huron, Comanche, 7:30 p.m.

Let's talk about

YOUR BIRTHDAYS

Every year, with monotonous regularity, each of us "celebrates" a birthday. With each birthday, we grow a little older. If we also grow a little wiser, we realize what life insurance can do for our future and for our families. And on each birthday, we would be wise to ask ourselves a few questions:

"Have my ____ changed since last year? Do I now need greater life insurance coverage? Had I better not do something about it immediately before my age changes again, and any new policy which I take can prove more expensive?"

I'm sure I can be of service. Why not give me a call? You will be under no obligation.

West Snares One; Now It's Aquinas

By BOB WILCOX

Hoping to keep their winning streak alive now that they've found that 'magic touch', the Cowboys tangle with a foe this Friday evening at Magley Field much more powerful than last week's opponent, Watterson. They take on a strong Aquinas eleven.

Aquinas, considered one of the area's better squads this fall, has lost only one game . . . to Eastmoor, 14-0. And Eastmoor, after a slow start, has proven to be one of the City League's powerhouses. Aquinas tied North for the City League title up until the last game of the season last year when the two met . . . with North taking home 'all the bacon', 27-0.

Aquinas uses the single wing and winged "T" offense, always with an unbalanced line and stresses power football. They especially love to sweep the ends and slant off tackle. Using the Oklahoma defense that has become so 'universal' in the area, they are about as potent in the air as on the ground.

Their outstanding player is a lad by the name of Powell; he's their "T" quarterback, the single wing blocking back . . . and their thrower . . . and a good one . . . so look out, West. secondary! Their line is short and stocky, thus perhaps on the heavy but slow side.

The Cowboys finally changed their theme song from, 'Almost, but Not Quite," to "We Done Dood It" last Friday night as they whitewashed a scrappy Watterson squad, 13-0.

Although the Eagles weren't rated very highly, they nevertheless wouldn't roll and play dead for the Broncos. In fact the first time they got their hands on the ball . . . and several occasions after that . . . they moved on the West defense like they might just take the "cake" and an upset home with them.

However the traditional homecoming crowd of 1852 paid admissions (plus all those many more attending thru the gratis of "comp" ducats) were not to be denied. And there certainly isn't a better time for a victory . . . and especially a 'first' one, than the homecoming contest.

The weatherman tried to do a little fouling-up, but was unsuccessful. Unfortunately crepe-paper decorations on the goal posts, over the team's entrance and the court's chairs had been placed in the stadium prior to the torrential downpour of Friday noon. More forunately, however it quit raining shortly after noon and the weather by game time was not only dry . . . but somewhat warmer.

Our heartiest congratulations and best wishes to cute little Queen Pam and all of her very attractive court.

The field at game time was not a sloppy mudhole, but was just slick enough to hamper some fooling and 'fancy' running, but hindered ballhandling to a much greater extent. Both teams battered each others' defenses for almost two whole periods without being able to dent the scoring column.

West took the opening kickoff and after picking up a first down lost the ball on the first of their series of fumbles. Watterson immediately began to move the ball as if they intended to go all the way themselves . . . and pronto. They picked up a first down on the first play and then two more before relinquishing possession.

Late in the second quarter West was forced to punt from their own 46 yard line. However the Eagles' Frank Biancone fumbled the catch and Cowboy Fred Ash alertly fell on the loose pigskin on the Watterson 28. Seven plays later Dave Francis went the final yard over right guard for the first of his two touchdowns of the evening.

Jim Hastings try around left end for the extra points was brought to a halt far short of the goal line. The big play of the drive was Hastings' 15-yard left end sweep. The slippery ball almost cost them the score as quarterbacker Bill Kern fumbled but managed to recover his own bobble.

West almost "killed" their own chances . . . per the usual 'script' the past few weeks . . . but Watterson just wasn't much enough . . . the quite scrappy . . . to upset the "dope bucket". The weather, fumbles, and their usual case of "penalitis" cost the Broncos further scoring opportunities. Of course the slick ball was not in best condition for passing, safest ballhandling and the slick ground wasn't good for tricky outside or cutback running. However, both squads got away with quite a bit of the latter. But the power plays up the middle (best on a muddy or sloppy field of any degree) were hampered by the old bugaboo . . . penalties.

Francis had the two touchdowns (run of 16 and six yards) called back for this reason on their finally successful second TD drive! Both scores were results of breaks that the Broncos took advantage of . . . the second one also the result of a punt. This one was a poor "line drive" type by Eagle Pete Tippett, but it managed to carry and roll to the West 26. From there in 18 plays . . . culminating midway in the last quarter . . . Francis went wide around left end for the final four yards and the score. Uldrich's kick for the extra point was good. The big play in this drive was a 19-yard pass play from Kern to end Jerry Spears; the Cowboys' first pass completion of the season to amount to anything. Maybe they will work up a little passing attack yet?

Francis was as usual the big offensive gun for the Cowboys with 193 yards in 31 carries for a nice 6.2 average per carry. Defensively he and three others teamed up for some mighty fine work on Watterson. Ash had a fine night . . . besides his punt recovery he also blocked an Eagle pass early in the game. Francis and Uldrick . . . especially the latter, made some "bone crushing" tackles. Although seeing only limited action, end Bob Dean made two nice behind-the-line tackles to throw Watterson backs for losses.

John Vellani was ejected from the game in the late stages for "piling on" as the penalties flew fast and furious (check statistics below). All in all West looked good (but not as good as suspected), but may have been hampered by the weather and certainly hampered themselves at every oppertunity . . . which will kill you quicker than scat when up against real competition, as the Cowboys can verify already this season.

Here are West (W)-Watterson (w) statistics: Penalties—W, 9 for 125 yards (all 15 yarders except 1); w, 7 for 55 yards. Fumbles—W fumbled six times losing three; w fumbled once and recovered. Passes—W tried 2, completed one for 19 yards; w tried eight, completed one for eight yards. Punts—W punted three times for 65 yards and an average of 22 yards per try; w kicked three for 94 yards and a 31 yard average. Punt returns—w one for 51 yards (most punts had no return tacked on the end). Kick-offs—W three for 151 yards and a 50 yard average; w one for 47 yards. Kick-off returns—W one for 26 yards (Francis) and w three for 23 yard average.

West's throwing was done by Kern, and Watterson's by Jack Dennis (facts above show West's secondary in pretty good form . . . can they stay that way against a good passing attack?) Punting was done by Francis and Tippett while the kick-offs were by Uldrich and Tom Scholl for the Eagles, Ron Moretti, end, John McCabe, linebacker, and Phil Sherrer, halfback and their leading ground gainer, were tough on the West offense all evening.

However, the real thorn in the West "machine" was Eagle guard Bill Ryan. He submarined through all night and kept hitting Kern's head while he was attempting his handoffs in the backfield . . . and the result was more than one juggled ball or an out-and-out fumble.

Meet The Cowboys

Thomas Edward Myers (better known as Tom) has been one of the outstanding linemen for this year's Cowboy football squad. Tom, born June 9, 1941, lives at 641 Blenn-blvd, with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Myers and his younger brother and sister, David and Linda.

Tom Myers

Now 17, he was born on the Hilltop, moved to Upper Arlington where he attended part of his elementary school days. Upon returning to the Hilltop he transferred to Westgate elementary, then went on to West junior and senior high schools. He is now a senior.

He has played two years of varsity and one of reserve football . . . starting out as a guard and defensive end and now playing tackle and defensive middle guard. As a field event man with the track squad, he throws the discus and pole vaults; his best effort to date in each is 116 ft and 10'6". He played forward on the Freshman and Reserve basketball squads thru his sophomore year. Since then he has played basketball and first base on the softball team for his church.

He belongs to Hi-Y, the Spanish Club, the Stage Crew . . . taking his regular turn as stage manager, his church's youth group and young people's choir and is a member of the Emmanual Baptist Church. In school he carries a B- average.

His other interests are golf and bowling, but everything takes a backseat to football.

He plans to take up civil engineering at Ohio State University. Although he may take a fling at college football, he will probably try his hand first with the track squad. He is also "toying" with the idea of an Air Force career. Tom stands 6 feet and weighs in at 197, even though he looks much bigger.

Heights Title Hopes Dim After Loss To Greenfield

Unleashing the strongest offensive punch they've shown this season, a steadily improving aggregation of McClain Tigers battered Franklin Heights into submission by a 28-0 score in a South Central Ohio League game on the Falcons' gridiron Friday night.

The Purple and Gold drove 73 yards to a touchdown the first time they held the ball, and broke the game wide open when Harold Stroup returned the third quarter kickoff 70 yards for another six-pointer They got another TD on an 83-yard march in that chapter, and rounded out their performance with a fourth period offensive that carried 86 yards.

Defensively, the Tigers allowed Franklin Heights only two penetrations of McClain territory, to the 29 in the first frame and to the 42 in the third.

McClain effectively bottled up the speedy Falcon backs, Doug Cox and John Yinger, and the FH use of the forward pass hardly constituted any threat.

Stroup notched McClain's first TD on a three-yard plunge.

On his kickoff return for touchdowns at the start of the third canto, he pulled in the bouncing pigskin on his 21, broke out of a pocket on his 40 and was in the clear at midfield after getting some dandy blocking from his mates.

Dick Craft pounded for a yard and a half over center for third and hit paydirt on a one-yard punch in the fourth.

Bill Harewood dropkicked for conversion following Craft's third quarter marker.

For the first time in their six games, the Tigers lost the toss and kicked off to open hostilities, Cox returning Sam Groom's boot 16 yards to the Franklin Heights' 36.

On a fourth and two, punter Bill Biggers received a bad pass from center and chose to run and got to the Franklin Heights' 48 for a first down. A pass clicked to the McClain 39 for another first down, and Yinger turned his right flank to the McClain 39.

Craft intercepted a pass and returned to the McClain 27 to set up McClain's first offensive which moved 73 yards to a score. Craft, Don Mossberger, Dale Wilson, Stroup and Pat Williams comprised the backfield on the drive which included Craft-to-Mossberger aerials for 15 and nine yards, a toss to Grooms for 11, a 12-yard jaunt by Stroup, another by Stroup for six yards, and his three-yard TD scamper.

The score came within 1:08 left in the quarter.

Main action in the second came on a McClain drive from their 22 to the Franklin Heights 15 where the Falcons held on downs. The Tigers passed eight times and ran three times in the series. With Craft firing, aerials were completed to Jerry Maxie for 22 yards, to Coleman for 11, and to Grooms who lateraled to Coleman for six.

The Falcons took over on their 15 with 1:10 left and passed to their 22, but Craft intercepted and returned to the Franklin Heights 44 as the half ended.

McClain's fine thrust which broke Stroup into the open for the kickoff return opening the third apparently disheartened the Falcons and they couldn't contain the two ensuing scoring drives mounted by the Tigers.

On the try for extra point following Stroup's TD, Harewood's pass to Grooms was broken up but the Falcons were ruled offside. However, McClain then was penalized for delay of game and lost a second chance.

Mike Beatty recovered a Falcon fumble on the Franklin Heights 42 to start the Tigers goalward again, with seven minutes left in the third. McClain relied entirely on ground power, with Williams, Coleman, Mossberger and Stroup lugging.

Coleman drew the crowd's acclaim with his running, particularly one "hippity-hop" bit of scooting for 15 yards and a first down on the 18.

Sutton regards the team as being short and fast and says that "its quality lies in the individuals to a great extent, and this will determine the success of the season."

Lions Little League Moves Into High Gear At Westgate

Hilltop Lions Little League began its first series of games Oct. 11 at Westgate Park.

The boys have a top age limit of 13 and do not exceed a 100-pound limit. Making league arrangements are Lions Ed Eberhard, George Blackmore, and ex-West high gridder Dennis McDonald. Coaches are Harry Hopwood, Norman Line, Jim Cire, and Gary Link.

About 80 boys are divided into four teams.

In first week's action the Lions edged the Browns, 6-0. Scoring occurred in the second quarter and the ballcarrier was Jim Veelas.

The Ohio State Juniors took the Yellow Jackets, 8-0, with a 65-yard run by Roger Nelson. Norman Caune picked up the extra two points, on a line plunge.

In the second round last week-end the following action was recorded: The OSU Juniors beat the Browns, 6-0, when Roger Nelson scampered 40 yards on an end run. The Yellow Jackets trounced the Lions 27-12. Jim McMillen scored five touchdowns Don Shoemaker added the other score. Bob Barnhart scored twice for the Lions on passes.

Games begin at the park every Saturday at 9 a.m. "Our teams are pretty evenly matched and are well worth rooting for," said Blackmore. "We'd like to see a big crowd of spectators out every Saturday."

League Results From Glenwood Are Announced

Bantam Bowling last Tuesday: Mark Hobbs and Darrell Rohrer, high men, 122 each; eight year-old Dennis Easley and Darrell Cheesebrew, second high, 118 each.

Prices of main feed grains in the coming year likely will average lower than this year, according to Ohio State University Extension economists.

Aquinas 11 Stun Bucs; North Next

The fog and a very wet, muddy field hampered the running style of Henry Heirston as Central went down to its second City League defeat at the hands of Aquinas.

Aquinas struck hard and fast in the first half to down a determined Central eleven, 20-18, on the losers' field before a large Dad's night crowd. The Terriers out-gained Central 279 to 162.

The game's classic play came early in the third period with Aquinas holding the ball deep in their own territory.

Eddie Powell skirted end for 10 yards, then lateraled to halfback Bob Kost, who went the final 70 yards without a hand being laid on him.

The Pirates will tangle with North on the downtown field this Friday night. North is sporting a 2-1-1 league record for the season after edging South 6-0 in last week's contest.

Hilltoppers Will Assist In United Appeals Audit

Two Hilltop residents have been selected to help direct the audit of the United Appeals Campaign, undertaken each year by the Columbus Chapter, National Association of Accountants as a community service.

West Student Group Promotes 'Fun Without Destruction' Plan

"Seeing is believing," the old adage goes, and several West High students hope to show younger pupils a sample of the fun in store if they attend the big community Halloween festival at West High the night of Oct. 31.

The committee is promoting the city-wide "Fun Without Destruction" campaign of the public schools. Two senior high dramatics groups have written their own playlets and will present them in six different schools on Oct. 28 and 29. Mrs. Evelyn Hall, dramatics teacher, is their advisor.

"The idea is to encourage kids to have a real good time with us at the party on Halloween instead of being destructive in the streets," said Don Uldricks, speaking for the group.

Don continued, "Police statistics show that property damage in the two weeks preceding Halloween has been reduced more than 60 per cent. And they give much of the credit to the "Fun Without Destruction" program, now in its ninth year."

The Columbus program has received wide acclaim in at least three national magazines and is being copied in some New York City schools.

Costumed students directed by classmates Diane Kelsey and Larry Marriott will make appearances in the following West area schools: Westgate, West Broad, Valleyview, John Burroughs, Highland and Chicago.

'Casper' Will Award Prizes In Party's Costume Contest

Casper the Camel will award silver dollars and records to winners in the costume parade at the community Halloween party, 7:30 to 10:30 p.m. Friday evening, Oct. 31 at West High school. He will also talk to his many fans who watch him daily on his WTVN television show.

Hilltop Business Men's Association is in charge of the parade and prizes.

Lee Koontz, popular West Side entertainer, will be on hand as master of ceremonies at this community celebration sponsored by the Hilltop Community Council.

Council members guarantee "fun for everyone." There will be the costume parade for those who dress up, movies for those who don't, and cafeteria full of good things to eat.

Dancing to "canned music" will be directed by the Hilltop Youth Council, with Mrs. H. C. Booth as advisor.

Something new has been added this year—a chance for youngsters attending the party to win a prize just by registering their name and phone number to come to the phone when called, to qualify for free silver dollars.

The West High celebration will come in compliance with the city's expressed desire to limit Halloween celebrations to Thursday and Friday.

Added to last week's Record and News list of organizations assisting in the celebration are the Hilltop Kiwanis and Lions and Y's Mens Club.

In the evening at 7:30, a forum will be given under the leadership of Mrs. Tommie Wiggs. Topic is "The Christian Woman's Role in Intergration" and speakers are Mrs. Glascor, social; Mrs. Constance Nichols, political and Mrs. Miller of Bexley Methodist, the church. UNICEF Penny Collection Set For Next Friday

Pennies for UNICEF will be collected this year on the night of Oct. 30, the night before Halloween. The milk cartons will be distributed to the children the day before. Last year some $150 was collected in Lincoln Village alone.

Representatives from churches in the Lincoln Village-New Rome area met in the home of Mrs. Robert Blees, 415 Weymouth-ln last Monday morning to set up the UNICEF program this year.

Columbia Heights Methodist Church was represented by Mrs. Robert Fox, Westminster United Presbyterian by Mrs. Ken Hamrick, Lincoln Baptist by Mrs. William Clark, St. Paul's Lutheran by Mrs. Jerry Leibert, and a representative from Concordia Lutheran Church. Mrs. Blees is general chairman of the program.

More than two million youngsters had the fun of sharing their Halloween last October with the sick and hungry children of the world. Their combined gifts of pennies, nickels and dimes rang up an amazing collective gift of more than one million dollars. This was converted by UNICEF into protective vaccines, penicillin, antibiotics, milk, vitamins and many other things to make and keep children well and strong.

Truck Rental, Leasing Firm Grows Into Major Business

Richard Knight

TYPICAL FLEET—This is a typical fleet of trucks used by one of U-Drive-It Company's clients. Fleets are mostly Fords but other makes are available. Local Manager Richard Knight explains that truck leasing has all the advantages of and none of the disadvantages or drawbacks of actual ownership. The U-Drive-It firm has two locations in Columbus—one at 179 E. State-st near State and Fourth, and another at 29 W. State-st.

Looking back over the 36-year history of the U-Drive-It Company, Richard Knight, local manager, observed that the truck maintenance business of the company is perhaps the most important part of all operations.

This year the company is observing its 36th anniversary. With executive offices in Columbus, it operates in eight major Ohio cities as well as Indiana, Michigan, Kentucky, Tennessee, and Missouri.

U-Drive-It was two locations in Columbus. One office is at 179 E. State-st, and the other at 29 W. State-st.

Knight asks: Why add to your worries by constant concern over the operation of a fleet of trucks? Maintaining these trucks is a business all its own. To you it's probably a losing business. "Under our truck lease plan, you can enjoy all of the advantages of owning and operating your own trucks without any of the drawbacks of actual ownership. Lease rates on trucks vary according to the services furnished.

"The plan has everything. You receive brand-new equipment, built to your exact specifications . . . size, body, paint job, exactly as you request. From then on it becomes the U-Drive-It Company's job to keep this equipment in perfect condition, both mechanically and as to appearance.

"We furnish licenses, lubrications, oil changes, insurance, washings, tires, and gasoline, if you so desire. All you furnish is the driver, who remains your employee. Your cost for this entire set-up is established on a reasonable weekly basis.

Lists Advantages

Knight continued, "Here is what the U-Drive-It Truck Lease Plan gives you . . . 1. Increased working capital. By leasing your trucks, instead of buying them, you do not have thousands of dollars tied up in equipment . . . it can be diverted to more profitable uses.

"(2) A yardstick for figuring truck cost. When you own and maintain your truck fleet, costs are uncertain and variable. If you operated on a budget, unexpected truck maintenance costs may throw it out of line. The Company Lease Plan enables you to pre-determine your truck costs.

"(3) Extra trucks for peak periods. You do not have to keep a surplus of idle trucks merely to have them available the few occasions when additional truck service is required. You pay for U-Drive-It trucks for the time they are used.

"(4) Less clerical work. In connection with the filling out and filing of the many forms incident to truck taxes, licenses and insurance, we take care of all details which ordinarily would have to clear through your clerical and accounting work."

The company was the first of its type in Ohio and originated "one-way" service, whereby a car could be rented in one branch city and left in another branch city. This "one-way" service is also available in truck rentals.

Rent or Lease Offered

The only difference between renting and leasing is the time element, with a greater savings to the customer on the long term Lease Plan. Under both plans complete maintenance, license, insurance and all related costs are included in the rental price of the car or truck.

In 1957 some 15 million people rented cars in the United States for a day, week or month. Rates were as low as $5 per day, plus five cents a mile. Cars may be leased on a yearly plan for as low as $74.50 per month.

It is predicted that by 1965, 50 million people will be using such rental and leasing services.

Wildlife Series Begins

First of five Audubon screen tours at the Ohio State Museum will be presented at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 28, by the Columbus Audubon Society.

For details and tickets (season, $3 for adults, and $1.50 for juniors) call C. Paul Brobst, 221 Letchworth-av, BR. 4-8578.

A boy, hearing him remark that he was especially interested in the game because he lived near Eastmoor, but had spent nine years at West, asked sympathetically, "What happened? Keep flunkin'?"

NO 'SECOND BEST' SHOE SIZE AT SALVATORE'S
Most parents have had the experience where a shoe salesman carefully measures a youngster's foot and announces the shoe size . . . he leaves to get the shoes only to return with a different size which he states will do "just as good" since the first size is [illegible] stock. This doesn't happen at Salvatore's! Only one size can be the correct size for your child's foot. We sell you that size from our large selection . . . or we don't sell you one.

Secrets of royal Chinese cooking, food of the emperors, were brought to this country by James Liang, at right, who served the mandarin dishes to President Eisenhower and Gen Van Fleet during their visit to Formosa. Manager of The Dragon Restaurant, 3187 W. Broad-st, he is shown with Tom Han Yang, in charge of the kitchen, examining the individual stove used to cook Volcano soup, a specialty of the house. The dragon wall tapestry was hand-embroidered in silver to Liang's order, in Taiwan.

Hilltop Restaurateur Was Once Aide To Gen. Chiang Kai Shek

Exotic delicacies traditionally served to Chinese kings may now become usual fare around our town.

Royal Chinese food, rarely served outside China and, according to the manager, in only a few other restaurants in the United States, is the specialty of the house at The Dragon, 3178 W. Broad-st, formerly the Colony.

Operating under the management of James Liang, native Formosan, the restaurant specializes in mandarin dishes.

Entirely different from Cantonese style of Chinese cooking familiar in American, the difficult preparation methods for the food is known only to those especially trained.

Liang, before coming to this country three years ago, was in charge of entertainment and banquet preparations for such visiting dignitaries to his country as President Dwight D. Eisenhower and Gen. James Van Fleet.

A graduate of Wangyu, Chinese military academy, Liang was attached to Service Headquarters Command and, when official visitors of his country or of Gen. Chiang Kai Shek arrived, was assigned to direct their entertainment.

His happiness at being in the United States is tempered only with regret for needing to leave his wife and children in Taipei, Taiwan. In another two years when he attains American citizenship, he says, he'll bring them to his adopted land.

Although saddened at Formosa's present plight, he expresses complete confidence in the outcome. "Truth must always be victorious and freedom for man is truth. Communists cannot continue to force men to their ways; in the end they cannot win."

Since arriving in America, Liang worked for a while at the Chinese Embassy in Washington, and then at Jong Mae in Columbus. A group interested in his unique cooking knowledge, formed a corporation to purchase the Dragon and put him in charge.

American style food will be served as well as royal Chinese cooking.

Six Chinese chefs, especially trained for Liang in the Peking Restaurant, Washington, D.C., will prepare the food.

Describing the exacting preparation ritual, Liang said, "Our boys have been taught just the right cooking time and temperature to insure the best flavor and color of each different food.

"Chinese vegetables, snow peas, bamboo shoots, water chestnuts, mushrooms and the many imported delicacies must all be cooked differently.

"They know that certain ingredients must have a protective covering to preserve its flavor. Chicken meat, for instance, is always dipped in beaten egg white with just a little corn starch before being added to a dish.

Imported Chinese kitchen equipment helps the procedure. Stoves with deep wells, more than a foot in diameter have four separate burners at the bottom for regulated heat control, and are covered with large cooking vessels.

Plan '59 Tour Of Europe Now, Club Suggests

It's not too early to start planning a 1959 tour of Europe.

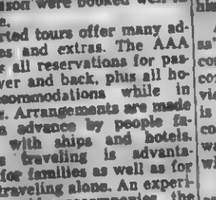
That cherished wish to see the Clock Tower in Berne, to be serenaded by gondoliers, stroll down the Champs Elysees, or watch the changing of the guards at Buckingham Palace all can come true as an AAA 1959 European tour.

A preview of the 1959 tour schedule has just been announced and it provides itineraries for just about everyone's budget and vacation timetable.

This year, for the first time, the AAA has added a Certificate of Guarantee — assuring members who make reservations by November 15 of inclusion in the tour of their choice.

Early action is well advised, since AAA tours are limited to small groups and many tours during the past spring and summer season were booked well in advance.

Escorted tours offer many advantages and extras. The AAA handles all reservations for passage over and back, plus all hotel accommodations while in Europe. Arrangements are made well in advance by people familiar with ships and hotels. Groups traveling is advantageous for families as well as for those traveling alone. An experienced guide accompanies the group from beginning to end and handles all details of the trip. Special guides in each city contribute their own know-how on local customs and tourist spots.



There are AAA escorted tours for all. On the famed "Easter in Rome" tour, seven countries are visited with Good Friday and Easter Sunday spent in the Holy City to highlight the trip. The "Seven-Country Budget Tour" sails on the fine ships of the Holland America Line.

Many seven-country and nine-country tours are offered with various departure dates. The "High Value Tours" sail on the luxurious Queens of the Cunard Lines, with substantial savings through cabin and tourist class accommodations. Ireland and England and Scandinavia are visited on the "Northern Capitals Tours." Still other tours take you to the countries of Southern Europe.

Folders are available at the Columbus Automobile Club.

it is, it will be on a state-wide level, to be re-defined down through each district."

Catholic School superintendent also advised Mrs. Dehnart that an evacuation plan had not yet been drawn up, and gave her permission to go ahead with the project.

With the help of Rev. Raymond Beuschard, St. Mary Magdalene pastor, and Sister Terrance, school principal, she devised a questionnaire to distribute among parish parents.

Questions and answers, planned to interpret each families' ability and willingness to participate in a mass plan, have been tabulated and results will be presented Thursday night.

The meeting will be held in place of the usual PTA meeting. John Mucle is president of the school PTA.

Mrs. Dehnart and her husband, a technical sergeant stationed at Lockbourne Air Force Base, and a veteran of World War II, acutely conscious of the need for foresight have infected other parish members with their enthusiasm.

venience to downtown offices and food service were mentioned.

In a recent editorial, Hartley Newspapers suggested that vacant state-owned land just south of Broad-st, next to Central-av, would be ideal for the new office building. The spot, now garden land for the Columbus State School, would cost the state much less to develop, and allow room to expand, it was stated. The land appears to be in an area where a highway link may be built between Grandview-av and the Sandusky-st expressway.

Immediately to the north several State Highway Department buildings already are under way. A large central office for all highway administrative offices also is under consideration.

Committees of the West Side Board of Trade and Hilltop Business Association plan to discuss the project in meetings this week.

Persons wishing to express their views on the matter can direct their letters to Ernest H. Stork, c/o the State Office Building Commission, 701 Wyandotte Building.

ANOTHER STRIPE FOR HIS SLEEVE

KENNETH E. HOLLEY, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray E. Holley of 2881 W. Broad-st, is seen receiving his promotion to corporal from Lt. Col. K. D. Frazier, commanding officer of Marine Air Reserve Training Detachment, at Naval Air Station, Willow Grove, Pa., where Cpl. Holley is presently stationed.

SPLASH PROVES PHOTOGENIC

MOTION—the wet kind—was captured by the camera of Jim Bolognone, and made this prize winning picture in West Side Camera Club competition. Bolognone is proprietor of Johnnie's shoe shop, 943 W. Broad-st, where the club meets regularly. The splash, caused by backwash from boats near Griggs Dam, was snapped with a Rollei, 1-250 sec. at f8 on Verichrome Pan. On Oct. 24 the club will judge prints taken during a camera scavenger hunt. Prospective members are welcome.

Glenwood Offers Variety For Gals

Bowling, basketball and beautification are being offered Hilltop women at Glenwood Recreation Center, 1935 W. Broad-st.

The bowling league will meet at Hilltop lanes each Wednesday afternoon from 1 to 3. Both experienced and inexperienced bowlers are invited to join.

The basketball league will consist of three age groups: the juniors (12 and under); the intermediate (13 through 15); and the senior (16 through 18).

A course in slimnastics will be held from 7:30 to 9 p.m. every Friday.

Interested persons can contact Mrs. Nancy Rager at BR. 4-7416 after 2 p.m.

Average corn prices likely will decline seasonally in the next few months, say Ohio State University Extension economists.

A THANK YOU NOTE

I wish to thank my newspaper customers for helping me to earn enough points necessary for me to have the opportunity to go on a trip to Chicago this past week-end, which I enjoyed very much.

Persons May Ask For Aid If Unable To Mark Ballot

If you are unable to mark your ballot by reason of physical infirmity and such physical infirmity is apparent to the judges to be sufficient to incapacitate you from marking your ballot properly, you may declare such fact to the presiding judge and be aided by a relative who shall be admitted to the booth with you, or you may receive the assistance from judges of election — a Democrat and a Republican.

Anyone who gives assistance to you shall thereafter give no information as to how you voted. Such assistance shall not be rendered for any other cause.

After you have marked your ballot and before leaving the voting compartment, you must fold each ballot separately so that no part of the face of the ballot is visible.

Upon leaving the voting compartment deliver your ballots and state your name to the judge in charge of the ballot boxes, who will announce your name, detach Stub A from each ballot, and announce the number on the stubs.

The clerks in charge of the poll books will then check to ascertain whether the numbers so announced are the numbers on Stub B of the ballots issued to you, and if no discrepancy appears to exist the judge in charge of the ballot boxes shall in your presence deposit each ballot in the proper box and place Stub A from each ballot in the container provided therefor without unfolding your ballot. It is this separation of Stub A from the ballot which insures the secrecy of your ballot.

Grand scholarship is $7,500. Others range from $6,000 to $3,000, and each of the remaining 35 winners will receive an award of $250.

Contestants will take a two and one-half hour science aptitude examination and write a report on "My Science Project." Personal and scholastic records are required from the school.

Recently Passed Act Might Affect Boaters In Ohio

The Division of Parks reports that Ohio boaters might be affected by the Federal Boating Act of 1958 if the Ohio legislature adopts a recommendation of the Council of State Governments.

This act sets up a state-operated system of numbering all inboard and outboard powered pleasure craft of more than 10 horsepower. It also provides for a uniform system of accident investigating and reporting.

The Council of State Governments has completed work on a model state boating law to implement provisions of the federal law, which they will recommend to all state legislatures for adoption.

Ohio boaters may also obtain a new digest of boating laws for the 48 states, the District of Columbia and Alaska by writing to Outboard Boating Club of America, 307 N. Michigan-av, Chicago 1, Ill.

Happiness in the Home
Comes First in Ohio

If Issue 2 Is Passed . . .
Family Security
Will be Weakened

A woman has to look ahead. And she doesn't have to look far ahead to see that Issue 2 is a threat to the security and happiness of her family.

If this amendment passed, the family breadwinner's job security, the only job protection he has, would be undermined. His wages would fall.

Housewives simply would have less to spend to keep the family going. For many a woman, Issue 2 would have the same effect as stealing milk from the refrigerator.

If large corporations didn't intend to lower wages (and increase their profits), why else would they throw so much money into the effort to force through Issue 2, the so-called 'right-to-work' amendment?

For an idea of what Issue 2 could do to you, look at the situation in the southern 'right-to-work' states.

In the states where 'right-to-work' laws have been in effect the longest, the typical housewife simply can't make ends meet. She has $666 LESS to spend for each member of the family than the typical housewife in Ohio. (According to the U.S. Bureau of Labor statistics.)

In these states the average income is one-third LESS than in Ohio. That's one-third less to spend for milk . . . one-third less to spend for clothes . . . one-third less to spend for all the other necessities of life.

In these states, businessmen make less because their customers earn less. Farmers make less because there is a smaller market for their crops.

Everybody's hurt by the trick-title 'right-to-work' . . . but hit hardest of all is the housewife, every family's dollar stretcher.

Women in Ohio will recognize this law as a fraud and a danger to their home. Vote NO on Issue #2.

Don't Be Misled! Vote No On Issue No. 2
